Zero Tolerance for Unsportsmanlike Conduct

My Organizations ▼

Players or coaches who openly argue with the referees, use obscene language, or make inappropriate gestures, can expect to receive an unsportsmanlike minor penalty. A game misconduct penalty will be assessed to any player/coach who persists in these actions.

Parents who use obscene language, ridicule or threaten players, coaches, officials, other spectators, will be instructed to leave the ice rink. In addition, parents who throw objects in the spectator viewing areas or towards the ice surface playing area in order to create a safety hazard will be instructed to leave the ice rink. The Parent(s) asked to leave will automatically receive a 3 game suspension from the Falcons Rules and Ethics Committee and this is not eligible for appeal. Additional action may be taken by the Falcons Rules and Ethics Committee.

Any player, coach, team, or individual engaged in this behavior will be referred to the AHAI Rules and Ethics Committee and/or AHAI Suspension Committee for disciplinary action. The AHAI Zero Tolerance policy can be found here:
<https://www.ahai.org/page/show/223726-policies>. Be advised, the Falcons Hockey Association will act swiftly on this type of behavior!

Please display appropriate behavior when attending any Falcons event. The Falcons Hockey Association will not tolerate unacceptable player/parental behavior! Players and parents are expected to display positive attitudes in the viewing stands, rink lobbies, parking lots, and locker rooms.

Thank you for your anticipated year-round cooperation in this matter!
