

Instructors

Olivia Antognoli

Olivia is a former Division I hockey player at Ohio State and will be one of the head instructors for Hockey 101. Prior to her time at Ohio State, Olivia competed for Team Illinois AAA. Through her hard work and determination, Olivia earned her spot at Ohio State University. Keeping her passion alive for the game of hockey, Olivia decided to share her knowledge with the hockey community in Colorado.

Chris Kawano

Chris played four years of Division I hockey as a goalie at Colorado College in the WCHA. Prior to his time at CC Chris played Midget AAA for the Dallas Stars organization as well as the Pikes Peak Miners. While at Colorado College, Chris competed against top collegiate national competition at NCAA Frozen Four. Additionally, Chris has coached Division I goal tenders at Bemidji State University and the US under 18 women's National Team. Chris and Olivia will be the head instructors for Hockey 101.

About Hockey 101...

- Ice hockey instruction led by professional coaches and former NCAA Division I ice hockey players, Olivia Antognoli (Ohio State) and Chris Kawano (Colorado College)
- Basic skills: Forward stride, edge control, stick-handling, shooting, stopping and starting, and goaltending fundamentals for men and women 18+ years old.
- The program consists of seven instructional 90-minute clinics designed to help you develop the skills necessary to graduate to Hockey 102
- Challenge yourself, meet new people, learn the basics of ice hockey, and have fun!
