

Hutchinson Junior League Baseball

Refund Policy

A refund will be considered do to the following circumstance:

1. Player suffers an injury or illness which prevents the player from returning to baseball.

A player will NOT receive a refund under the following circumstances:

1. The player quits the team and refuses to return for any reason.
2. Player is suspended by the coach (reviewed by the board) which in turn leads to release or removal;

Upon receipt of a request for a refund the HJLB Board will consider a refund based on the total number of games and practices scheduled up to the withdrawal, divided by the total number of total practices and league games that are scheduled for the season (tournaments not included), minus registration fee and administrative fee indicated as follows:

Refund = [Total Registration Fees Paid x (Total # of Regular Season Games & Practices Participated/Total # of Regular Season Games & Practices Scheduled for Season)] minus $25.00 Administrative Fee. Tournaments games will not be factored into games played.

Note: Registration fee check must be cleared before any refund will be considered. Any outstanding fees or charges not paid will be considered in the refund.

Any injury or illness that prevents a player from playing a portion but not the remainder of the season shall also not be considered for any refund. Refunds will be paid out after the August HJLB Board meeting. Any other circumstances not covered in this policy will be reviewed and decided upon by HJLB Board.
