

Title: In-House Parent Expectations

Reviewed: May 2016

Parents are expected to abide by the following list of guidelines and expectations:

1. Read and abide by Parent Code of Ethics (see below).
2. Assist player in getting to all practices and games in prompt manner.
3. Will be responsible for any participation fees required for program participation.

Parent Code of Ethics:

1. I hereby pledge to provide positive support, care, and encouragement for my and all other children participating in youth sports by following this Code of Ethics.
2. I will ensure that my child is transported safely and escorted into the building where games and practices are held, and that s/he will be picked up on time after the activity has ended.
3. I will encourage good sportsmanship by demonstrating positive support for all players, coaches and officials at every game, practice or other youth sports event. I will refrain from coaching my child or other players, unless I am appointed as a volunteer coach.
4. I will place the emotional and physical well being of my child ahead of any personal desire to win.
5. I will insist that my child play in a safe and healthy environment.
6. I will provide support for coaches and officials working with my child to provide a positive, enjoyable experience for all.
7. I will demand a drug, alcohol and tobacco-free sports environment for my child and agree to assist by refraining from their use at all youth sports events.
8. I will remember that the game is for children and not for adults.
9. I will do my very best to make youth sports fun for my child.
10. I will ask my child to treat other players, coaches, fans and officials with respect regardless of race, sex, creed or ability.
11. I will refrain from the use of language that is inappropriate in a youth setting, including swearing, language that is sexually or ethnically related, racial slurs, and any other language that is derogatory in nature.
12. I will promise to help my child enjoy the youth sports experience within my personal constraints by assisting with coaching, being a respectful fan, providing transportation or whatever I am capable of doing.
