"The basketball program allowed students to learn to follow directions, work together as a team, and commit to something that they could be proud of. It was thrilling to watch my students grasp the idea that effort, practice, and hard work can lead to success.

I was also pleased with the leadership, professionalism, and commitment of the CSAA."

- Nick Timpone - Principal,

Harlem Village Academy Charter School

"Students that participated in the league had to maintain a certain grade point average which promoted greater student achievement.

I endorse the efforts of this association for bringing athletics into charter schools."

- Joanne Hunt - Principal, Harbor Science & Arts

"As a new small school a sports program was but a dream until your program came along. Mott Hall would like to continue to develop its relationship with CSAA."

- Jorisis Stupart - Principal, Mott Hall 3

"As the coaches of our two teams we have been continually impressed with the organization of the league, the directors of the league, the way our girls have been affected by their play, and the benefits of our team for our school. Additionally, our school has never had a sports team before, and our participation in the CSAA has brought about a new sense of school pride."

-Deborah Carlson-Doom, Laura Jacobs, Rosanna DeMammos - Teachers and Coaches, The Young Women's Leadership School

"Our middle school boy's basketball team has enjoyed playing in your well-organized and exceptionally well-run tournaments. Your organization has opened up sports competitions to our students which otherwise would not have been available.

"Sports are an essential part of a student's learning experience... You are providing a great service to New York City public charter school students."

- Stacey Gauthier, Co-Director of Operations

The Renaissance Charter School

"Physical Education and recreation are two key components of a child's education and one that is too often overlooked. In route to our championship season in 2004-2005, our students-athletes learned many valuable lessons that are unique to the sporting world and helpful in their maturation to young adults."
