Paul Maltagliati

Memorial Golf Tournament

Please join us for a day of golf and camaraderie in memory of and to celebrate the life of Paul Maltagliati.

Paul, who died the summer of 2012, was a retired officer in the Fairfax County Sheriff's Department and an active member of the Knights of Columbus.

Additionally, Paul was passionate about wrestling. As George Mason University's (GMU) first qualifier for the NCAA Division I Wrestling Tournament, he felt he could have grown even faster and more accomplished in the sport with additional support from an affiliated wrestling club. As he remained close to GMU, wrestling after graduation, Paul recognized an increased need for an outside program as many college programs were being dropped. This spurred him in his last year of life to join forces with former wrestlers and coaches from GMU to form an organization, the Patriot Elite Wrestling Club.

This year's tournament will also be in memory of Johnny Wright, a long-time supporter of George Mason and a close personal friend of Paul's as well as several other former GMU Wrestlers and their families. Johnny was a lifelong resident of Northern Va, a local business owner, and an active participant in numerous causes that he found important, including last year's tournament. He is sorely missed by all who knew him.

The Patriot Elite Wrestling Club's purpose is to support and encourage amateur wrestlers in the Washington, DC area to cultivate their skills on the mat and paves a wider path for wrestling in the Northern Virginia area. The proceeds of the First Annual Paul Maltagliati Memorial Golf Tournament will be used to support Paul's dream — The Patriot Elite Wrestling Club, which is a 501(c)(3) tax exempt charitable organization.
