RUSSIAN RIVALRY

The gold medal is on the line as the United States and Russia meet for the second time in five days during the 2014 Paralympic Winter Games. Russia topped Team USA, 2-1, in the preliminary round on March 11. The Russians scored once in the first and second periods, while Adam Page scored for the U.S. in the third period. Team USA outshot Russia, 23-10.

Though the U.S. and Russia had never met in the Paralympics prior to this year, the countries matched up four times in the 14 months leading up to the Games. In January 2013, Team USA blanked Russia, 4-0, at the USA Hockey Sled Cup. In the semifinals of the 2013 International Paralympic Committee World Championship, the U.S. earned a 2-1 victory. Team USA won by margins of 2-1 and 4-1 at last December's World Sledge Hockey Challenge.

NBC will broadcast today's game live at noon ET. A live web stream is available at TeamUSA.org.

GOLD STANDARD

Team USA is playing in the gold-medal game for the third time in four Paralympic Winter Games. In 2002, the U.S. won gold on home ice in Salt Lake City. Team USA captured gold once again at the 2010 Games. The U.S. can become the first nation to repeat as Paralympic gold medalist with a victory tonight.

Eight players return from the 2010 U.S. squad that captured the gold medal in Vancouver, including goaltender Steve Cash; defenseman Taylor Chace, Nikko Landeros and Andy Yohe; and forwards Adam Page, Josh Pauls and Greg Shaw.

Team USA is guaranteed to win a medal for a fourth consecutive Paralympic Winter Games. Cash, Chace, Lipsett and Yohe all played on the 2006 U.S. Paralympic Sled Hockey Team that earned the bronze medal in Torino, Italy.

HARVESTING POINTS

Declan Farmer factored into each of Team USA's goals in the 3-0 win over Canada in the semifinals. He scored twice in the first period and assisted on Josh Pauls' marker in the second period. The 16 year old is tied for the U.S. lead in goals (3) and points (5) in the 2014 Games. He had a goal and an assist versus Italy in the tournament opener.

MONEY IN THE BANK

Steve Cash stopped 11 Canadian shots in the semifinals to notch his second shutout of the 2014 Games and his seventh career shutout in the Paralympics. Named Best Goaltender of the 2010 Paralympic Games, he did not allow a goal in 210 minutes en route to the gold medal in Vancouver. Cash yielded the first goals of his Paralympic career in the 2-1 loss to Russia Tuesday. His shutout streak reached 313 minutes and 17 seconds. Dating back to the 2006 Paralympic Games, Cash denied 38 consecutive shots before Russia converted a five-on-three power play at 11:57 of the first period. On Friday, Cash was named flag bearer for the Closing Ceremony by the USOC.

SERVING THEIR COUNTRY AGAIN

Four members of the U.S. Paralympic Sled Hockey Team -- Jen Lee, Rico Roman, Paul Schaus and Josh Sweeney -- have served or currently serve in the U.S. military. Lee is an active-duty sergeant in the U.S. Army. Roman is retired U.S. Army, while Schaus and Sweeney are both former U.S. Marines. Sweeney, Roman and Schaus play on the same forward line together.

SUPPORTING TEAM USA

More than 60 family and friends are in Sochi to support Team USA. Each player has at least two fans who have made the trip. Tyler Carron has the largest personal cheering section with 11.

LANDEROS LOOMS LARGE

Defenseman Nikko Landeros leads the U.S. with five assists and is tied with Declan Farmer for the team lead in points (5). He posted three assists against Italy and had a helper versus Russia and Canada. Also, Landeros has been playing nearly two-thirds of each game, averaging 28:53 of ice time per night.

CHACE CLOCKING IN

Defensemen Taylor Chace has logged the most ice time of any American player in the Paralympics. In four games, Chace has averaged 29:33 of playing time, scored once and added two assists. The three-time Paralympian has six goals and four assists in 14 career Paralympic contests.

THE KIDS ARE ALRIGHT

Teenagers Brody Roybal (15) and Declan Farmer (16) are the youngest and second-youngest Americans to score in the Paralympics. Against Italy, Roybal notched the first two goals and points of his U.S. National Team career. Farmer also tallied against the Italians.

CAPTAINS AMERICA

Andy Yohe is the captain of the 2014 Paralympic Sled Hockey Team. Team USA's alternate captains are Taylor Chace and Josh Sweeney. Yohe wore the 'C' for the 2010 Paralympic Team as well.

U.S. NATIONAL SLED TEAM EXPERIENCE

Fifteen players on the Paralympic roster were members of the 2012-13 U.S. National Sled Hockey Team that garnered the silver medal at the 2013 IPC Sled Hockey World Championship. Brody Roybal is in his first season with the U.S. National Team. Andy Yohe returned to Team USA for the first time since 2009-10.

2010 PARALYMPIC AWARD WINNERS

Steve Cash and Taylor Chace were both honored following their performances at the 2010 Paralympic Winter Games. Cash, who posted five straight shutouts in the tournament, was named Best Goaltender by the tournament directorate and earned a spot on the media all-star team. Chace, who tallied five points (3-2) in five outings, was tabbed Best Defenseman by the tournament directorate and, like Cash, picked for a spot on the media all-star team.

COACHING PEDIGREE

Head Coach Jeff Sauer is in his third year with Team USA. He led the squad to the gold medal at the 2012 IPC World Championship and the silver medal at the 2013 IPC World Championship. He coached the 1995 U.S. Men's National Team at the International Ice Hockey Federation Men's World Championship. He has also coached the last three U.S. Deaflympic Ice Hockey Teams. Sauer spent 31 seasons as a head coach in NCAA Division I, racking up 655 career wins. He won two national championships with the University of Wisconsin (1983, '90) and also coached for Colorado College, his alma mater. In 2011, Sauer was honored with the Lester Patrick Award for "outstanding service to hockey in the U.S."

Assistant Coach Guy Gosselin is also in his third season. He is two-time Olympian, skating for U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team in 1988 and 1992. He was an alternate captain in 1992. He also played on three U.S. Men's National Teams (1986, '90-91).

ICE WARRIORS

The 2014 U.S. Paralympic Sled Hockey Team was featured in a PBS documentary entitled 'Ice Warriors,' that debuted Feb. 24. The 60-minute film follows Team USA from its first training camp last September through its three-game series vs. Canada in January. The documentary can be viewed in full at www.pbs.org/wgbh/medal-quest/ice-warriors/
