

YEScoach ID – Recruitment Specialist

YESsoccer, a US based national coaching services provider, is entering its fourth year and are proud to be growing. Our collection of partners both on and off the field is growing in several regions across the US: Midwest, PA, New England, TX, West Coast.

At YESsoccer, our most important asset is our people. Our people make a huge difference to so many organizations, communities & lives via the medium of soccer. Our people are our brand. YESsoccer employ those select people who meet our YESDNA qualities.

YESsoccer is excited to announce that we are launching a new & innovative part-time position within our talented team to oversee every aspect of the recruitment process of all future YESsoccer staff.

This is a perfect position for an individual who knows how to work fast and smart. With a high level of initiative to know how to interact with coaches and how to promote the experience of being part of the YESsoccer team in the US. The roles of the job will follow a strict time line & tasks must be completed meticulously.

The YEScoach ID Recruitment Specialist will be expected to innovate, promote YESsoccer across the UK, manage applications from potential coaching staff, interview & assess candidates & aid those who are successful through the rigorous immigration processes to help them with their journey to the US.

You will need to be a self-starter, highly motivated, meticulously organized, and approachable, a social media guru and an ambassador for the YESsoccer DNA.

The Details

- Location – UK, home-based
- Compensation – Based on experience
- Application – Resume & Cover Letter to brown.m@yessoccer.net