ABOUT CAITLIN WELCH

Caitlin Welch has had a tremendous volleyball career from the day she started playing. She is a local who attended Mercy Academy and played as the team's varsity libero since she was a freshman. Caitlin won two state championships at Mercy, receiving Region Player of the year and Most Valuable Player her senior year. As an 8 year old, she tried out for MidAmerica Volleyball Association (MAVA) unaware that she would be a player on the 12-1 team. She was a participant for MAVA for 10 straight years up to her final year at 18's. Caitlin won a national championship at USAV's Junior Olympics in 2008 and was also a finalist in 2007. She was named to the All-Tournament Team for five years in a row and was listed on PrepVolleyball's Top 10 Defensive Dandies for two years. At the age of sixteen, Caitlin committed to the University of Louisville where she received a full athletic scholarship. While playing at Louisville, she was a 4-year starting Libero, earning awards and breaking many records. She was named to the All-Tournament team at four different collegiate tournaments. Her Junior year, she became the All Time digs leader in a season. Shortly after, she broke the All-Time digs record. She earned her 1,000th dig in her Junior year and her 2,000th dig a year later. Caitlin was the first All-American Libero at the University of Louisville. She participated in the USA National A2 team as a junior and senior. Caitlin's hard work and dedication has helped her succeed in more ways than one. As a result, she was selected as the Head Coach for duPont Manual High School girl's volleyball program. It is in her full desire to teach what she has learned to others.

ABOUT THE CAMP:

Players will be taught basics starting at passing techniques and defense techniques. Players will learn what needs to be done in order pass and defend well. They will understand what kind of pass is needed and what a good dig looks like. This camp will involve many activities and games for the players to enjoy.
