

Raiders take advantage of Red Knight miscues in regular-season finale

Cretin-Derham Hall took advantage of four Benilde-St. Margaret's errors during the course of the fifth and sixth innings, leading to eight runs in the third-ranked Raiders' 10-1 win over the 12th-ranked Red Knights.

Brett Huebner got the visitors on the scoreboard in the first inning when he launched a one-out, two-run home run to left field.

After that, pitchers Mikey McGill, Jimmy Cron and Connor Day would combine to retire 11 of the next 14 batters to keep BSM within reach through four innings.

Michael Kaminski's solo home run in the fourth inning was the only offensive production the Red Knights got.

In the bottom of the fourth, the hosts cut the lead in half when, with one out, Michael Kaminski lifted a towering solo home run to left field. The run came off reliever Hayden Olson but he, Joe Dekker and Rob Rice would allow just two more hits and no base runners would reach second base after that point.

Meanwhile, back-to-back, two-out throwing errors in the fifth inning by the Red Knights would lead to a pair of unearned runs, giving the Raiders a 4-1 lead.

CDH put the game out or reach in the sixth when it got three hits, three walks and took advantage of two more BSM errors to put six runs on the scoreboard.

Both teams used the game as a tuneup for their respective section playoffs, beginning later this week, by using all of their available players.

Fourteen of the Red Knights' 18 players came to the plate in the game and six different pitchers worked on the mound.

Chris Landis recorded two of BSM's five hits to lead the team offensively. Cron and Day, who combined to work the third and fourth innings in just 22 pitches, allowed just one hit and no runs.

Connor Day struck out two of the four batters he faced in his inning of work against the Raiders.

The Red Knights also learned their fate in the Section 6AAA seeding meeting following the game.

BSM was the unanimous pick as the first seed, finishing the regular-season with a 15-4 record. The Red Knights will host their first playoff game, Friday, beginning at 4:30 p.m. as BSM Field. They will face the winner of Thursday's game between ninth-seeded Robbinsdale Cooper and eighth-seeded Minneapolis Washburn.
