Note: The referee is in charge of the game at all times. The league will not over rule any calls by the official. No verbally abusing the official is accepted. If the referee feels you're verbally abusing him it's his discretion to either give you a penalty or eject you from the game. If you disagree with these rules then don't put yourself in a situation that may cause the referee to eject you from a game. As a reminder all games are played under USA Hockey rules.

No team shall pick up any player without the agreement by all other coaches. A waiting list of undrafted players is kept.
