★ TALKING POINTS

GRANATO'S UW LEGACY: Current U.S. National Under-18 Team head coach Don Granato played at the University of Wisconsin from 1987-91, helping the Badgers win the fifth NCAA national championship in school history by knocking off Colgate in the 1990 title game at Joe Louis Arena in Detroit. Granato also contributed to Wisconsin's WCHA regular-season title in 1989-90 and the league's playoff crown in both 1987-88 and 1989-90.

EAVES AND USA HOCKEY: Before making his way to the University of Wisconsin in 2002, current UW head coach Mike Eaves spent two seasons (2000-02) in that same role at the National Team Development Program. While with the NTDP, Eaves led the U.S. National Under-18 Team to USA Hockey's first-ever gold medal at the IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship. Eaves went on to coach the 2004 U.S. National Junior Team to the first U.S. gold medal in World Junior history before serving as the bench boss of the 2006 U.S. Men's National Team.

NTDP CONTRIBUTES TO 2006 NATIONAL TITLE: The Badgers had plenty of help from products of the National Team Development Program during its 2006 NCAA title run as five alumni of the program skated with Wisconsin that season. The list includes NCAA Frozen Four Most Outstanding Player Robbie Earl, as well as Matt Auffrey, Jake Dowell, Jeff Likens and Jack Skille.

TANABE TO THE SHOW: David Tanabe, who skated for the NTDP before playing at the University of Wisconsin, became the first-ever product of the National Team Development Program to skate in the National Hockey League. Tanabe went on to play nine years (1999-2008) of professional hockey, including stints with the NHL's Carolina Hurricanes, Phoenix Coyotes and Boston Bruins.

GEOFFRION EARNS THE HOBEY: When Blake Geoffrion won the 2010 Hobey Baker Memorial Award, he became the fourth player from the NTDP to win the award, joining Kevin Porter (University of Michigan, 2008), Matt Carle (University of Denver, 2006) and Jordan Leopold (University of Minnesota, 2002).

PLAYING NCAA'S BEST: The 2014-15 edition of the U.S. National Under-18 Team has played three of the top-seven NCAA Division I programs in the latest USA Hockey Magazine/USA Today Men's College Hockey Poll, and the U18s have done exceptionally well. In those three games against top-ranked competition, the NTDP is 2-1-0 with wins coming against No. 6 Minnesota (5-4 in overtime) and No. 7 Miami (3-0). Its lone loss to a top-five team came at the hands of No. 2-ranked Boston University (6-4). The Under-18 Team will play current No. 1 North Dakota Jan. 3, 2015, at Ralph Engelstad Arena in Grand Forks.

PERFECT NOVEMBER: The U.S. National Under-18 Team went 10-0-0 during the month of November as part of a 12-game winning streak - the longest such streak by any NTDP squad dating back to the 2011-12 campaign. The U18s saw the winning streak come to an end last Saturday. (Dec. 6) at Youngstown.

JUMPING AHEAD: The U.S. National Under-18 Team has a 12-1-0 record when scoring first this season, but what's even more impressive is the team's ability to hold onto leads. When the squad carries the lead into the first intermission, it's 11-0-0. When the U18s lead after two: a perfect 15-0-0.

SEEING THE POTENTIAL: NHL Central Scouting's November Players to Watch list recognized 22 players with ties to the National Team Development Program, including 16 current members of the Under-18 Team. CSS handed down five "A" ratings to NTDP products, including F Jack Eichel, F Jordan Greenway, D Noah Hanifin, D Zach Werenski and F Colin White. Six other players were rated "B" prospects, while 11 garnered "C" ratings.

PROSPECTS ON DISPLAY: The NTDP had 15 current players in the CCM/USA Hockey All-American Prospects Game Sept. 25 Buffalo, N.Y. The list included goaltenders Michael Lackey and Luke Opilka; defensemen Nick Boka, Christian Evers, Casey Fitzgerald, Grant Gabriele, Caleb Jones and Steven Ruggerio; and forwards Jeremy Bracco, Christian Fischer, Jordan Greenway, Jack Roslovic, Troy Terry, Brendan Warren and Colin White. In addition to the current NTDP players, four products also skated in the AAPG: D Noah Hanifin (Boston College), D Zach Werenski (University of Michigan), F Jack Eichel (Boston University) and F Dennis Yan. Bracco (2-0), Eichel (1-1), and Greenway (0-2) all registered two points while playing on a line together for a majority of the contest, and Lackey (15 saves/16 shots) and Opilka (22 saves/23 shots) started for their respective teams and played 29:48 each. Warren (1-0), Gabriele (0-1), and White (0-1) all had one point. Under-18 Team F Mike Floodstand was invited to play in the game, but was unable to participate. Eichel (2011-13) was named Player of the Game. U18 Team coaches Don Granato and Nick Fohr served as assistant coaches at the event.

RECORD BREAKER: F Jeremy Bracco's has plenty of assists in his career at the National Team Development Program, but his helper against Augsburg College on Nov. 22 was historic. The assist, which came on a Colin White second-period goal, was Bracco's 89th at the NTDP and broke the all-time career assists record of 88 shared by Patrick Kane (2004-06) and J.D. Forrest (1997-2000). Last season, Bracco turned in 58 assists and tied Sonny Milano (2012-14) for the single-season assists mark at the NTDP.

GOAL-SCORING GENE: F Matthew Tkachuk has a knack for finding the back of the net - much like his father, Keith, had during his storied NHL career. When the younger Tkachuk buries it, it usually spells success for the Under-18 Team. In the 13 games in which Tkachuk has scored, the NTDP boasts a 12-1-0 record. When Tkachuk doesn't score, the U18s are 8-5-1.

RACKING UP THE POINTS: To say F Jack Roslovic was on his game during the month of November would be a serious understatement. In 10 games last month, the Columbus, Ohio, native collected points in nine outings and racked up five goals and 18 points. Roslovic, who is off to Oxford, Ohio, next winter to skate for the Miami RedHawks, also notched his first-career hat trick (Nov. 8 vs. Switzerland) and a career-high for single-game assists (3) against the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point on Nov. 30.

WHAT IT TAKES TO BE NO. 1: F Auston Matthews may not be eligible for the 2015 NHL Entry Draft, but the Scottsdale, Ariz., native has quickly cemented himself as a favorite to be selected No. 1 overall in 2016. Matthews leads the U18s in goals (22), points (47), shorthanded goals (2) and game-winning goals (3), while ranking second with three power-play tallies. In addition, Matthews was selected to take part in USA Hockey's National Junior Team training camp and will likely represent the United States at the 2015 IIHF World Junior Championship in Montreal and Toronto.

MAKING THE GRADE: F Jordan Greenway and F Colin White are both A-rated prospects by NHL Central Scouting for the upcoming NHL Entry Draft, forecasting both players as possible first-round selections. Greenway, a native of Potsdam, N.Y., and White, who hails from Hanover, Mass., will both play college hockey in Boston and take part in one of the NCAA's best rivalries as Greenway will attend Boston University while White skates down Commonwealth Ave. at Boston College.

ANSWERING THE CALL: NTDP newcomers F Troy Terry, F Tage Thompson and D Steven Ruggiero have had little trouble clicking with teammates and contributing for the U.S. National Under-18 Team. Terry, who skated for the Colorado Thunderbirds in 2013-14, has registered 16 points (5-11) in 27 games, while Thompson, a product of the P.A.L. Junior Islanders program, boasts seven goals and 14 points in 25 outings. Ruggiero has seven helpers and has appeared in every game this year after playing for the USHL's Youngstown Phantoms last winter.

COLLEGE READY: F Christian Fischer, a 6-foot-1, 212-pound native of Wayne, Ill., appears more than ready to make the jump to NCAA Division I hockey next winter. Fischer has totaled seven points in 10 outings against college foes this season - including four goals - and has already signed his national letter of intent to skate for the University of Notre Dame in 2015-16.

DO YOU LIKE APPLES?: F Michael Floodstrand wasted little time setting his single-game career-high for assists, notching a trio of helpers on Sept. 6 in a game against the USHL's Lincoln Stars. The Hinsdale, Ill., native is on his way to Harvard University in the fall.

★ TALKING POINTS

CAPTAIN KUNIN: 2016 NHL Draft prospect and University of Wisconsin commit F Luke Kunin has worn a letter for the U.S. National Under-18 Team for the majority of the season. Although Kunin is one of four U18 players who will have to wait a year to enter the NHL Draft, he's proved his leadership abilities both on and off the ice.

SCORING TOUCH: After finishing the 2013-14 campaign without a goal, D Joe Masonius has four tallies this season, three of which have come against NCAA competition. The University of New Hampshire recruit has goals against Oswego State (Oct. 25), Minnesota (Nov. 21) and Neumann University (Nov. 29).

SHUTDOWN PAIR: The defensive pairing of D Nick Boka and D Christian Evers isn't the top-scoring duo on the NTDP blue line, but it is arguably is toughest to play against. The two reliable defenders will bring their talents to the University of Michigan and University of North Dakota in 2015-16, respectively.

POWER PLAY PRODUCTION: The man-advantage has been kind to D Charlie McAvoy and D Casey Fitzgerald this winter, as the blue-liners have combined for six power-play points. McAvoy's two goals and two assists lead all NTDP defensemen and rank fourth overall on the team in that category. Fitzgerald and McAvoy also both have a shorthanded assist in 2014-15.

DOUBLING UP: D Grant Gabriele and D Caleb Jones are well on their way to shatter their point production from last season. Gabriele already has nine points (3-6), while Jones has notched two goals and 11 points in 2014-15. Both players have played in every game this season and have combined for three points on special teams.

LAST LINE OF DEFENSE: The duo of G Michael Lackey and G Luke Opilka has been solid for the U18s in 2014-15, as the pair have combined for 20 wins, two shutouts and a 2.93 goals-against average. Lackey, who is off to Harvard in the fall, has won his last six of his last seven starts, while Opilka, a University of Wisconsin recruit, has won six in a row.

ON THE SHORT LIST: F Jeremy Bracco and F Auston Matthews were both named to the preliminary U.S. National Junior Team roster for the upcoming 2015 IIHF World Junior Championship, which takes place Dec. 26, 2014 through Jan. 5, 2015, in Montreal and Toronto. Joining the two current NTDPers on the preliminary roster are 17 alumni of the National Team Development Program. Also making the trip to Canada for the tournament will be Under-18 Team head coach Don Granato, who will work as an assistant for Team USA at the event, and U18 equipment manager Jake Visser, who is serving in that same role for the National Junior Team.

KEEPING THE STREAK ALIVE: With four wins in the recent Under-18 Four Nations Tournament, the U.S. National Under-18 Team upped its record to a perfect 19-0-0 against international teams since joining the NTDP last season. The members of the U18 Team won both the U17 Four and Five Nations Tournaments last winter, along with the World Under-17 Hockey Challenge. The U18s will participate in the U18 Five Nations Tournament in February before traveling to Switzerland for the IIHF Under-18 World Championship in April.
