

Code Of Ethics for Parents

- As a parent or guardian of a Milwaukee Jr. Admirals AAA Hockey Organization hockey player, I will always support the objectives of the organization and strongly encourage my child to fully participate in practices, games and other activities and to behave in a respectful manner when doing so.
- I will strive to attend every game possible so that I may positively encourage my child to participate as a team player.
- I will always display exemplary sportsmanship, and serve as a role model to my child, other players, their parents and fans.
- I will respect the calls of the referees and I will refrain from criticizing them and their calls. I understand that they are sincere in their effort to make the right call.
- I will encourage my child to abide by the Code of Ethics for Players.
- I will respect the coaches and I will support their management of my child's team. I understand that if I have any concerns, I will approach the coach to discuss them in a responsible manner.
- I will encourage my child to take great care of the uniform that represents the organization and of the equipment that protects them.
- I will strive to create a safe, enjoyable and healthy environment for all participants in Milwaukee Jr. Admirals AAA Hockey Organization games and other activities.
- I will refrain from threatening, defamatory and/or critical comments about the Milwaukee Jr. Admirals AAA Hockey Organization and its coaches and/or players. If I have concerns or questions about the organization or its members and/or activities, I will contact a board member of the Milwaukee Jr. Admirals AAA Hockey Organization to discuss them in a positive, responsible and productive manner.

Code of Ethics for Players

As a hockey player with Milwaukee Jr. Admirals AAA Hockey Organization, I will strive to be an unselfish and cooperative teammate. I will strive to be the ultimate team player, and I will...

- Work to achieve good grades in school. If I perform poorly, I will accept my parent's decision to withhold me from playing.
- Accept that I must earn my playing time through my hustle, enthusiasm, effort, positive attitude, attendance and improvement of skill.
- Respect my parents, coaches, manager, referees and my teammates. I will always be a positive role model for my hockey organization and behave respectfully to all those that may coach/train me.
- I will be respectful to my teammates in my words and actions; I will not condone verbal or physical abuse and threatening or intimidating behavior.
- Encourage my parents to attend and enjoy my games, and support the goals of the Milwaukee Jr. Admirals AAA Hockey Organization.
- Respect the calls and decisions of the referees.
- Always show extraordinary sportsmanship during my desire to win.
- Take great care of my uniform and all equipment that protects me.
- I will also be respectful of my behavior and the property, when at any rink or training facility.

I understand that by signing this agreement I promise to uphold the MJA Codes of Ethics. I realize that violation of these Codes of Ethics may result in loss of ice-time, suspension for part of or all of a game, or even ejection from the MJA Program.
