

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY OF WALT WHITMAN CREW BOOSTERS, INC.

Policy on Conflicts of Interest And Disclosure of Certain Interests

This conflict of interest policy is designed to help directors, officers, and contractors of the Walt Whitman Crew Boosters, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as Organization) identify situations that present potential conflicts of interest and to provide the Organization with a procedure that, if observed, will allow a transaction to be treated as valid and binding even though a director, officer, or contractor has or may have a conflict of interest with respect to the transaction. In the event there is an inconsistency between the requirements and the procedures prescribed herein and those in federal or state law, the law shall control.

Conflict of Interest Defined

For purposes of this policy, the following circumstances shall be deemed to create Conflicts of Interest:

Outside Interests

A Contract or Transaction between the Organization and a Responsible Person or Family Member.

A Contract or Transaction between the Organization and an entity in which a Responsible Person or Family Member has a Material Financial Interest or of which such person is a director, officer, agent, partner, associate, trustee, personal representative, receiver, guardian, custodian, conservator, or other legal representative.

Outside Activities

A Responsible Person competing with the Organization in the rendering of services or in any other Contract or Transaction with a third party.

A Responsible Person's having a Material Financial Interest in; or serving as a director, officer, employee, agent, partner, associate, trustee, personal representative, receiver, guardian, custodian, conservator, or other legal representative of, or consultant to; an entity or individual that competes with the Organization in the provision of services or in any other Contract or Transaction with a third party.

Gifts, Gratuities and Entertainment

A Responsible Person accepting gifts, entertainment, or other favors from any individual or entity that:

(i) does or is seeking business with, or is a competitor of the Organization; or has received, is receiving or is seeking to receive a loan or grant, or to secure other financial commitments from the Organization; or is a charitable organization

(ii) under circumstances where it might be inferred that such action was intended to influence or possibly would influence the Responsible Person in the performance of his or her duties.

This does not preclude the acceptance of items of nominal or insignificant value or entertainment of nominal or insignificant value that are not related to any particular transaction or activity of the Organization.

Additional Definitions

A Responsible Person is any person serving as an officer, contractor or member of the Executive Board of Directors of the Organization.

A Family Member is a spouse, domestic partner, parent, child, or spouse of a child, brother, sister, or spouse of a brother or sister, of a Responsible Person.

A Material Financial Interest in an entity is a financial interest of any kind that, in view of all the circumstances, is substantial enough that it would, or reasonably could, affect a Responsible Person's or Family Member's judgment with respect to transactions to which the entity is a party. This includes all forms of compensation.

A Contract or Transaction is any agreement or relationship involving the sale or purchase of goods, services, or rights of any kind, the providing or receipt of a loan or grant, the establishment of any other type of pecuniary relationship or review of a charitable organization by the Organization. The making of a gift to the Organization is not a Contract or Transaction.

Procedures

Before the Executive Board of Directors acts on a Contract or Transaction involving a Conflict of Interest, a director or contractor having a Conflict of Interest and who is in attendance at the meeting shall disclose all facts material to the Conflict of Interest. Such disclosure shall be reflected in the minutes of the meeting.

A director or contractor who plans not to attend a meeting at which he or she has reason to believe that the Executive Board of Directors will act on a matter in which the person has a Conflict of Interest shall disclose to the President all facts material to the Conflict of Interest. The President shall report the disclosure at the meeting and the disclosure shall be reflected in the minutes of the meeting.

A person who has a Conflict of Interest shall not participate in or be permitted to hear the Executive Board of Directors' discussion of the matter except to disclose material facts and to respond to questions. Such person shall not attempt to exert his or her personal influence with respect to the matter, either at or outside the meeting.

A person who has a Conflict of Interest with respect to a Contract or Transaction that will be voted on at a meeting shall not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum for purposes of the vote.

The person having a Conflict of Interest may not vote on the Contract or Transaction and shall not be present in the meeting room when the vote is taken, unless the vote is by secret ballot. Such person's ineligibility to vote shall be reflected in the minutes of the meeting.

For purposes of this paragraph, a member of the Executive Board of Directors of the Organization has a Conflict of Interest when he or she stands for election as an officer or for re-election as member of the Executive Board of Directors.

Responsible Persons who are not members of the Executive Board of Directors of the Organization or who have a Conflict of Interest with respect to a Contract or Transaction that is not the subject of board action, shall disclose to the President or the President's designee any Conflict of Interest that such Responsible Person has with respect to a Contract or Transaction. Such disclosure shall be made as soon as the Conflict of Interest is known to the Responsible Person. The Responsible Person shall refrain from any action that may affect the Organization's participation in such Contract or Transaction.

In the event it is not entirely clear that a Conflict of Interest exists, the individual with the potential conflict shall disclose the circumstances to the President or the President's designee, who shall determine whether there exists a Conflict of Interest that is subject to this policy.

Confidentiality

Each Responsible Person shall exercise care not to disclose confidential information acquired in connection with such status or information the disclosure of which might be adverse to the interests of the Organization. Furthermore, a Responsible Person shall not disclose or use information relating to the business of the Organization for the personal profit or advantage of the Responsible Person or a Family Member.

Review of Policy

Each Responsible Person shall be provided a copy of this Policy and shall annually disclose in writing any relationships, positions, or circumstances in which the Responsible Person is involved that he or she believes could contribute to a Conflict of Interest arising. Such relationships, positions, or circumstance might include service as a director of or consultant to a not-for-profit organization, or ownership of a business that might provide goods or services to the Organization.

Any such information regarding business interests of a Responsible Person or a Family Member shall be treated as confidential and shall generally be made available only to the President or the Audit Committee, except to the extent additional disclosure is necessary in connection with the implementation of this Policy.

Any changes to the policy shall be communicated immediately to all Responsible Persons.
