

Hopkins Royals Boys Basketball Association
Mission Statement and Core Values

Mission Statement

The mission of the Hopkins Royals Boys Basketball Association (HRBBA) is to provide boys in the Hopkins School District the opportunity to learn and enjoy the game of basketball at a competitive level. HRBBA offers a program, which will develop and improve individual as well as team skills, promote good sportsmanship and create positive community support.

Core Values

Development – Grow as players and as people.

Teamwork – Learn to lead and to follow in a team environment. Players need to be a good teammate, both on and off of the court.

Trustworthiness – Players need to be honest to their coaches, their families, their opponents and to themselves.

Disciplined Work Habits – Hard work is the base of development. Players are expected to earn opportunity.

Pride – Hopkins basketball has a long history of success and has significance in the community. Playing for Hopkins is an honor and players are expected to conduct themselves with respect and pride.

Community

Every season our players, coaches, parents, and board members will give back to the community by volunteering with a local organization.
