

Olive Pony Baseball Refund Policy

Refunds in full will be issued in the following circumstances:

- Drop request, received in writing to the Olive Pony Board, prior to the team selection of the respective season. Team selection is defined as either by player draft or player placement by the Division Representative. Depending on the division and the season in question, teams may be formed by player draft or player placement. Once teams are formed either by the draft or placement, no refund will be given.
- If Olive Pony Baseball is unable to place a player on a team for the season, a full refund will be given.
