

Time Line – Description of what you should be doing and when

Not a comprehensive list, but a guide

Freshman year

- Update your information on University Athlete.
- Prepare yourself by working hard in the class room and on the court.
- Have fun.
- Talk with your parents about what you think you might have interest in studying at university/college.

Sophomore year

- Continue to work hard on the court and in the classroom.
- Update your information in University Athlete.
- Develop a set of criteria for colleges.
- Attend camps of schools in which you might have interest.
- Create a biography sheet.
- Begin contacting coaches with your information.
- Fill out recruiting questionnaires, which can be found online on most schools' athletic websites
- Before your Junior year, start recording video and think about a skills video.
- Have fun playing volleyball.

Junior year

- Begin contacting coaches if you haven't already.
- Fill out questionnaires and send Bio Sheets with club schedule
- Send out skills and game footage.
- Update your information in University Athlete.

Tsunami Volleyball ∞ Recruiting Information

- Define your criteria for colleges. Begin to narrow your focus
- Work hard in the class room and on the court.
- Regular contact with coaches.
- Attend camps of schools that have interest in you.
- Call coaches to gauge interest.
- Go visit some schools.
 - A good time to do this is while you are at camp and when you have a club tournament in that area.
 - Take unofficial visits to schools you would like to see.
- Have fun playing volleyball.

Senior year

- Make your decision.
- Official visits.
- If you are not committed yet, don't panic. There is a place for every level of
- Have fun playing volleyball and enjoy your senior year