Camp Director

Ruth Sinn is the University of St. Thomas head women's basketball coach. Coach Sinn has over 20 years of experience coaching teams and directing basketball camps in the state of Minnesota.

She has multiple coaching honors locally and nationally from coach of the year to winning conference titles and N.C.A.A. post season appearances. The University of St. Thomas is the winningest college Women's program in the State of Minnesota over the last 6 seasons.

Prior to coaching at St. Thomas, she was the girls' basketball coach at Apple Valley High School where she accumulated a record of 290-170, three state tournament trips, coached in eight section championships and was a five time Section Coach of the Year.

Coach Sinn is an honored member in the Minnesota State Coaches Association Hall Of Fame for her contributions to Girls Basketball and coaching success in the state of Minnesota. She has been a featured speaker multiple times at the Minnesota State Girls High School Coaches Associations annual meetings. Having held many different board positions within Minnesota basketball groups, she has maintained a connection with basketball throughout all age levels state wide.

Coach Sinn has helped develop many players into All-American, All-Conference, All-State, MN All Star performers as well as players who were voted Ms. Basketball for the state of Minnesota as the top high school player in the state.
