About the Coach

College of Saint Benedict head coach Mike Durbin is in his 30th season as the Blazers' head coach. He has 33 years of coaching and clinic experience. Under his direction, the Blazer basketball team is 614-174 overall. He is assisted by Blazer assistant coach Denny Johnson as well as current and former Blazer basketball student-athletes.

About the Camp

Blazer Basketball Camps provide instruction on dribbling, shooting and passing, as well as three-on-three and five-on-five. All sessions take place at the CSB Haehn Campus Center. Indoor athletic facilities are air-conditioned.

Counselors are available for assistance at all times. Campers and counselors are housed in air-conditioned residence halls on campus. Blazer Athletic Camps reserves the right to make any roommate adjustments that are needed based on the number of campers and housing availability.

The college does not provide health/accident insurance. Campers must have their own health insurance to attend camp.

Further information about the camp will be sent once registration has been received.
