At this time, any player who has been selected to attend (or who is still in consideration for) one of the three National Girls' Player Development Camps has been notified of her status.

Only players who have been cleared to attend one of the three National Girls' Player Development camps as of May 16th are listed here. If there is a change in status for any player who is currently "in consideration" as of May 16th, that change will be communicated directly to the player in accordance with the National Notification Timeline. If a player who is "in consideration" is cleared to attend a National Girls Player Development Camp, her name will be added to this list, which will be updated on future National Notification Timeline dates.
