Notes: Connor Hellebuyck stopped all 39 Czech Republic shots on goal to help the U.S. win its second bronze medal in three years at the men's world championship. It was a gutsy effort by a young U.S. team (average age 24.3) after losing a hard fought semifinal game to Russia just 16 hours earlier. Nick Bonino, who had a goal and an assist, was named Team USA's Player of the Game. The best three U.S. players of the tournament were also named and included Hellebuyck, Trevor Lewis and Seth Jones. Hellebuyck was named the goaltender on the media all-star team, but despite leading the tournament in wins, goals against average and save percentage, was remarkably not named the top goaltender by the directorate.
