

ELITE SPORTS QUEENS OF THE COURT

6/4/16

Elite sports events put on another fantastic basketball tournament this weekend as teams from all over the tri-state area came to Trumbull, Connecticut to compete for the title of champion in the QUEENS OF THE COURT tournament!!

In the Middle School Varsity Division, The Ct Lady Outlaws took on the Ct Impact in a very close, hard fought game between two equally talented teams. In the end, it was the Impact that proved to be the better team on this day as they squeaked out a hard fought 47-43 win! The Impact were led by Cashe Rogers with 18 and Yamani McCollough with 14 for the victors. The Outlaws were led by Makaya Perez Vaughn with a game high 29 points!!! Zoe Furman Cox chipped in with 8 in defeat!

In the Middle School JV Division, the CBA Lady Wolverines from Connecticut took on the Ct Spirit in the championship game. The game was never close as the Ct Spirits proved to just be too much for the wolverines to handle, cruising to an easy 44-8 Championship win! The Spirits had a very balanced attack, being led by L. Ferguson with a game high 12 and J. Kemp with 6 for the Champions. The Wolverines were led by Meg Kirst with 6 and Ceri Severino with 2 in defeat.
