- 1.2.2. Provide event names, dates, locations and description of how athletes qualify for the trials, events and camps listed above in 1.2.1. (if any).

Athletes that are identified as emerging elite will be placed in the U23 NWBA High Performance Pool, hereinafter, "U23 Pool".

Athletes are identified and evaluated throughout the quadrennial such that athletes that exhibit the necessary attitude, ability or potential to perform are eligible to be added to the Pool at any time.

Athletes are identified, evaluated and placed in the Pool by the NWBA U23 High Performance Selection Committee that consists of the NWBA Executive Director and/or designee, Men's National Team Head Coaches and Assistant Coaches, Jr. Division representative(s), College Coach representative(s), and a member of the NWBA High Performance Committee, if available. The NWBA U23 High Performance Selection Committee serves at the pleasure of the NWBA Executive Director.

Athletes who are members of the Pool may include the following:

- Athletes identified through NWBA High Performance Tryout and Training Camp events;
- Athletes identified through NWBA Developmental camps;
- Athletes identified by NWBA staff, scouts, consultants or other wheelchair basketball coaches;
- Any athletes identified and selected by the NWBA U23 High Performance Selection Committee; and/or
- Athletes identified by submitting videos or other relevant data to the NWBA U23 High Performance Selection Committee.

Selection to the Pool at any time does not guarantee that an athlete will be selected to participate in any NWBA High Performance Program(s) or event(s) during the quadrennial including those described in these Selection Procedures. Athletes may be added to the Pool throughout the quadrennial. Athletes may be removed from the Pool at any time by the NWBA U23 High Performance Selection Committee. Athletes may also voluntarily remove themselves from the Pool by notifying the NWBA Executive Director in writing.

- 1.3. Provide a comprehensive, step-by-step description of the method that explains how athletes will go through the selection process to become Team nominees (include maximum Team size).

A maximum of 45 athletes may participate in the 2017 U.S. Men's U23 World Championships Team Selection Camp. The maximum of 45 athletes will be determined by the NWBA U23 High Performance Selection Committee. Athlete selection will be determined using the criteria outlined in Attachment E.

At the 2017 U.S. Men's U23 Team Selection Camps candidates will participate in drills and scrimmages that will give them a chance to demonstrate their individual fundamental skills and ability to play within the staff's playing system. The NWBA U23 Men's Wheelchair Basketball Staff (hereafter referred to as "NWBA U23 Staff") will evaluate players during sessions of the selection camp on the specific skills and characteristics listed in Attachment E. Recognizing that a Team is more than the skills brought by its individual players, the NWBA U23 Staff will consider the mix of players in terms of positions, skills, sport classes, experience, match-up vs. international opponents, team needs, and player qualities beyond technical skills that contribute to the overall Team's success.

The NWBA U23 Staff will record their consideration of these other factors which may include:

- Teamwork: The willingness to accept a role that leads to team success.
- Positive Attitude: Exhibiting enthusiasm and support of teammates.
- Versatility: Exhibiting a balance between offensive and defensive skills as well as the ability to play multiple positions and fulfill multiple roles.
- Maturity: Exhibiting an ability to adjust to various situations and dealing with adversity. Adjusting to situations that are not going well and reacting appropriately.
- Coachability: Exhibiting the ability to process and incorporate input from the coaching staff.
- Experience: Number of years on the team and number of matches played.

When the 2017 U.S. Men's U23 Team Selection Camp is complete, up to a maximum of 20 players may be selected for participation and preparation in the America's Zone Qualification event and the 2017 Men's U23 World Championships.

The NWBA will select 12 of the 20 athletes for participation in the America's Zone Qualification event, with the 8 unselected athletes serving as alternates, in the case a replacement is required. The NWBA may select an athlete from the U23 Pool as a replacement, where one of the 20 athletes may not fit the classification standard as needed for fielding a legal IWBF line-up during the America's Zone Qualification and/or 2017 IWBF Men's U23 World Championships.

Final selection for the 2017 U.S. Men's U23 World Championships Team will be based on results of skills associated with Attachment E, training camps, competition against international players and discretionary criteria listed above. Final selection for the 2017 U.S. Men's U23 World Championships Team may occur following the Selection Camp or up to the final Training Camp in May of 2017.

The 2017 U.S. Men's U23 World Championships Teams will be made up of 12 players that have best met all of the criteria above, and give the USA the best opportunity to reach their gold medal potential at the 2017 Men's U23 World Championships.

The IWBF allows only 12 athletes to be named to the final delegation roster for the America's Zone Qualification event and 2017 Men's U23 World Championships. The 8 unselected athletes will serve as alternates for the 2017 Men's U23 World Championships in the case a replacement is required. The NWBA may select an athlete from the U23 Pool as a replacement, where one of the 20 athletes may not fit the classification standard as needed for fielding a legal IWBF line-up during the America's Zone Qualification and/or 2017 IWBF Men's U23 World Championships.

The NWBA U23 Selection Committee shall approve the 2017 U.S. Men's U23 World Championships team as presented to the committee by the NWBA U23 Staff.

2. DISCRETIONARY SELECTION

2.1. Provide rationale for utilizing discretionary selection (if any):

There are no appropriate objective standards which are effective in assembling a competitive wheelchair basketball team at the international level. The NWBA will assemble a team utilizing NWBA and USOC approved policies and procedures, including those included herein, that consists of players that compose the best team, not necessarily the best individual talents, and who are willing to make the commitment to participate to the fullest extent required by the NWBA. Wheelchair basketball is a well-developed sport in the United States and around the world. Athletes who progress to professional status and compete on IWBF teams overseas throughout the year may not be able to participate in designated tryout or training camps but remain in the Pool and are eligible to be named to the National Team. Discretionary selection is not a separate process but is a part of the primary team selection process.

2.2. List the discretionary criteria and explain how they will be used (if any):

See Section 1.3.

2.3. Provide the name of the committee that will be responsible for making discretionary selections, along with a complete list of the members' titles currently serving on the committee:

NWBA High Performance Selection Committee
NWBA Executive Director and/or designee

2016 USA Men's Head Coach
2016 USA Men's Assistant Coaches (2)
NWBA Junior Division Representatives (2)
NWBA Intercollegiate Division Representatives (2)
NWBA High Performance Committee Members, if available, (1)

- 2.3.1. Specify the process that will be used to identify and handle any potential conflicts of interest involving a member of the committee.

Any member of the selection committee that has a possible conflict of interest must disclose it. If such conflict exists, the selection committee member must recuse him/herself from committee discussions and voting. Further, the committee member should not otherwise influence other members of the committee in the selection process. However, a committee member who recused him/herself, but who has relevant and necessary information with respect to athlete performance, for example a national team coach, may, if requested by the selection committee, provide such information to the committee so long as such information is provided in a fair and unbiased manner and the committee member who declared the conflict of interest does not vote toward the final decision.

3. REMOVAL OF ATHLETES

- 3.1. The NWBA has jurisdiction over potential nominees.

An athlete who is to be nominated to the Team by the NWBA may be removed as a nominee for any of the following reasons, as determined by the NWBA:

- 3.1.1. Voluntary withdrawal. Athlete must submit a written letter to the NWBA Executive Director.
- 3.1.2. Injury or illness as certified by a physician (or medical staff) approved by the NWBA. If an athlete refuses verification of his/her illness or injury by a physician (or medical staff) approved by the NWBA, his/her injury will be assumed to be disabling and he/she may be removed.
- 3.1.3. Violation of the NWBA Athlete Code of Conduct (Attachment B).
- 3.1.4 Re-classification by the IPC such that the athlete's qualifying performance would not have qualified him or her for the Team.

An athlete who is removed from the Team pursuant to this provision has the right to a hearing per the NWBA Bylaws Article 13 (Attachment D) and the USOC's Bylaws, Section 9.

<http://www.teamusa.org/Athlete-Resources/Athlete-Ombudsman>

- 3.2. An athlete may be removed as a nominee to the Team or from the Team for an adjudicated violation of IOC, PASO, IPC, WADA, IF, USADA and/or USOC anti-doping protocol, policies and procedures, as applicable.

4. REPLACEMENT OF ATHLETES

- 4.1. Describe the selection and approval process for determining replacement athlete(s) should a vacancy occur:

- 4.1.1. Prior to submission of Entries by Name to the Local Organizing Committee, including any applicable group or committee:

See Section 1.3.

- 4.1.2. After submission of Entries by Name to the Local Organizing Committee, including any applicable group or committee:

See Section 1.3.

5. SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

NWBA will retain the approved Selection Procedures and all supporting documents, including scouting or evaluation forms, etc., and data from the selection process for six months past the date of the Closing Ceremony of the Championships.

6. REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

- 7.1. NWBA web site: www.nwba.org

8. DATE OF NOMINATION

8.1 The NWBA will adhere to dates of nomination once provided to the NWBA by the IWBF and/or Event Organizers.

10. ANTI-DOPING REQUIREMENTS

Athletes must adhere to all IOC, IPC, PASO, WADA, IF, USADA and USOC anti-doping protocols, policies and procedures, as applicable. This includes participation in Out-of-Competition Testing as required by the IOC, IPC, PASO, WADA, IF, USADA and USOC Rules, as applicable.

11. NGB/HPMO BYLAWS AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

The NWBA Bylaws and Grievance Procedures can be found at:

12. INTERNATIONAL DISCLAIMER

These procedures are based on IOC, IPC, PASO, as applicable, and/or IWBF rules and regulations as presently known and understood. Any change in the selection procedures caused by a change in IOC, IPC, PASO, as applicable, and/or IWBF rules and regulations will be distributed to the affected athletes immediately. The selection criteria are based on the latest information available to NWBA. However, the selections are always subject to unforeseen, intervening circumstances, and realistically may not have accounted for every possible contingency.

If any force of nature, or force majeure, should cause the alteration or cancellation of any of the selection events listed in this document, these selection procedures will be revised.

1 Introduction

The National Wheelchair Basketball Association (“NWBA”), in our pursuit of excellence, provides qualified individuals with physical disabilities the opportunity to play, learn and compete in the sport of wheelchair basketball. The NWBA accomplishes this mission through its commitment to:

- Honesty, integrity, and trustworthiness in all dealings.
- Respect for the rights, differences, and dignity of others.
- Accountability and transparency.
- Unequivocal excellence in all aspects of the organization.
- Our rich tradition as a solid foundation.
- The development of our members and our community.
- The pursuit of competitive excellence.

The NWBA has adopted this Code of Conduct to support these values and with the expectation that the people who work for, or on behalf of, the NWBA conduct themselves consistent with these values and with the NWBA’s mission.

2 Applicability

This Code of Conduct applies to all employees, volunteers, board members, committee and task force members, and national team staff members of the NWBA.

3 Reporting Obligations

No code of conduct can address every situation, nor can it take the place of good judgment and integrity. The NWBA maintains an “open door” for anyone who has questions or concerns. The NWBA will support all efforts to comply with this Code of Conduct. If you need advice or assistance concerning the application of any aspect of these standards, consult your supervisor or manager, the Executive Director, the Chair of the Ethics Committee, or a member of the NWBA Board of Directors. You are expected to seek advice and clarification promptly when you are uncertain about proper actions or practices.

You should be alert and sensitive to situations that could result in unethical, illegal or improper actions. You have an obligation to report potential or actual violations of this Code of Conduct to your supervisor or manager, the Executive Director, the Chair of the Ethics Committee, or a member of the NWBA Board of Directors, or any other designated reporting authority identified by the NWBA.

Under no circumstances will an individual be subject to any disciplinary or retaliatory action for filing, in good faith, a report of a violation or potential violation of the Code of Conduct. However, filing known false or malicious reports will not be tolerated, and anyone filing such reports will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

4 Legal Compliance

The NWBA requires that you follow the Code of Conduct and abide by all applicable NWBA policies and procedures; United States federal, state and local law as applicable, including the Ted Stevens Olympic and Amateur Sports Act, codified at 36 U.S.C. §§ 220501 – 220529; and foreign law as applicable. If you ever encounter a conflict of law, such as a conflict between United States and foreign law, or have any questions about the legality of any action, contact the NWBA Executive Director or Chair of the Ethics Committee for further information and guidance.

5 Commitment to Integrity

The NWBA is committed to honesty and integrity as the cornerstone of our activities. In turn, the NWBA expects you to conduct yourself in an ethical and legal manner as a representative of the NWBA. This requires that you:

Respect the rights of all individuals to fair treatment and equal opportunity, free from discrimination or harassment of any type under applicable law.

Know, understand and comply with all applicable laws, regulations and codes of conduct.

Ensure that all NWBA work and transactions are handled with honesty and recorded accurately.

Protect information that belongs to the NWBA, our workers, volunteers, members and customers.

Never use NWBA assets or information for personal gain.

Recognize that even the appearance of misconduct or impropriety can be very damaging to the reputation of the NWBA and act accordingly.

Additionally, the NWBA finds sexual and physical abuse intolerable and in direct conflict with NWBA and Paralympic ideals. The NWBA is committed to ensuring that it and its employees, volunteers, board members, committee and task force members, and national team staff members promote an environment free from such abuse; and such commitment extends not only to the NWBA's workplace, but also to the creation of safe sporting environments for athletes. To that end, the NWBA forbids any form of sexual or physical abuse, whether in the workplace or outside it, and including instances involving athletes.

You have a duty to report any alleged sexual or physical abuse occurring in the workplace or at any NWBA supported training or sport activity to the Executive Director, the Chair of the Ethics Committee, or a member of the NWBA Board of Directors, or any other designated reporting authority identified by the NWBA

6 Ethics Program

The NWBA has established an independent Ethics Committee and has a designated Ethics Committee Chair who reports jointly to the NWBA Board of Directors and the Executive Director or his/her designee. The Ethics Committee Chair will monitor ethics reports and conduct ethics education at the NWBA.

The Ethics Committee Chair works closely with the Executive Director to ensure that the Ethics Committee is involved in ethics issues as appropriate.

7 Conflicts of Interest

The NWBA has instituted a Conflict of Interest Policy that requires that any conflicts of interest, whether actual or apparent, be reported promptly to the Ethics Committee. A copy of the Conflict of Interest Policy may be found on the NWBA's website.

You are subject to the conflict of interest policy, including its mandatory reporting of conflicts. In addition, all NWBA employees and Board members are required to complete an annual conflict of interest disclosure and certification.

A conflict of interest arises when you have an interest in, obligation to, or relationship with any business, property, or person that could affect your judgment in fulfilling your responsibilities to the NWBA. You are expected to refrain from any activity or investment that constitutes, or might appear to constitute, a conflict of interest. You are also required to disclose to the Ethics Committee any outside activity, relationship or investment in which you are involved or may become involved that is, or has the potential for appearing to be, a conflict of interest. If you require guidance in this area, your supervisor, the Executive Director, the Ethics Chair or a member of the NWBA Board of Directors, or any other designated reporting authority identified by the NWBA should be consulted.

For example, you are not to have a material holding in, or a professional affiliation with, an organization or affiliate with which the NWBA does business or with which the NWBA competes, except as prescribed by NWBA rules and policies and with the knowledge and approval of the Chair of the Ethics Committee, who will consult with the full Ethics Committee as appropriate. You may not use your position at the NWBA to benefit yourself, your relatives, friends or your private enterprises. A family or other personal relationship with a NWBA member, vendor, or competitor also may present a conflict of interest.

You must disclose to the Chair of the Ethics Committee any outside activity, relationship or investment in which you are involved or may become involved that is, or has the potential for appearing to be, a conflict of interest. The Chair of the Ethics Committee will consult with the full Ethics Committee as appropriate. If you have any question about whether something may constitute a conflict, it is suggested that you seek guidance from your supervisor, the Chair of Ethics Committee, or another executive member.

8 Business with or in Foreign Countries

Business conduct in foreign countries may sometimes differ from the United States, both in terms of common practice and legality. The NWBA requires that all business matters be conducted in an ethical and legal manner.

Gifts: The giving of gifts to, and receiving of gifts from, foreign nationals or representatives of foreign governments is governed by a complex set of US and foreign laws. Generally, the giving and receiving of such gifts is very limited or prohibited. Before offering a gift to a foreign national, you must receive the approval of the Chair of the Ethics Committee. In addition, if an exchange of gifts is both a legal and normal practice, the giving and receiving of such gift(s) will be subject to the NWBA's Gift Policy.

Payments: It is a felony under United States laws for the NWBA, any of its staff, or anyone acting on its behalf to give, offer, promise or authorize a payment to a foreign official, foreign political party or official thereof, or any candidate for foreign political office, for the purpose of corruptly obtaining or retaining business for the NWBA. United States law also makes it a felony to pay money or anything of value to a commission agent, sales representative or consultant when there is knowledge or firm belief that the payment will be used to corruptly influence a government official in connection with business the NWBA is attempting to obtain or retain. Political contributions will not be made by or on behalf of the NWBA in foreign countries. The NWBA will observe the laws of foreign countries in which it operates concerning payments of agents' fees and commissions, provided these laws are not in conflict with United States law. You are not to engage in activities designated to circumvent foreign laws concerning retaining or paying sales representatives and consultants.

Export Control Laws: It is the NWBA's policy to comply with the export and re-export control rules and regulations under the Export Administration Regulations (EAR) administered by the United States Department of Commerce and the International Trade in Arms Regulations (ITAR) administered by the United States Department of State. You are not to engage in any export-related transaction on behalf of the NWBA which would violate these regulations. NWBA executive management have been instructed to ensure that all who are involved in export-related transactions comply with all applicable export control requirements.

9 Business Relationships

It is imperative that all NWBA, supplier, vendor and other business relationships are managed in a fair, equitable, ethical and legal manner consistent with the Code of Conduct, all applicable law and good business practices. Wherever practical, the NWBA provides a competitive opportunity for suppliers and vendors' business, and we enlist their active support in ensuring that we meet customer expectations regarding quality, cost and delivery. Decisions to hire or engage a vendor or supplier should be made on the basis of objective criteria, and not on the basis of personal relationships, friendships or the opportunity for personal gain, financial or otherwise. Prior to entering into a transaction or contract for a purchase or potential purchase that involves an actual or perceived conflict of interest, you should consult with the Chair of the Ethics Committee.

10 Personal Use of Organization Resources

It is the responsibility of each of you to protect and preserve the NWBA's resources. NWBA resources include such things as company time, materials, supplies (including food), equipment (including vehicles), information, electronic mail and computer systems, facilities and other property. These resources are provided to you to fulfill the NWBA's mission and work and are to be maintained and used for authorized NWBA-related purposes only. The use of NWBA resources for personal financial gain is strictly prohibited except where expressly authorized. You should consult the Employee Handbook for further details. If you have a question about use of any NWBA resources, you should contact your supervisor. You should report any improper use of NWBA resources to your supervisor or manager, Human Resources, the Chair of the Ethics Committee or other executive member.

The NWBA also has a Gift Policy that applies to giving and receiving any type of entertainment or gifts in connection with your work with NWBA or its member organizations. The Gift Policy also covers gifts to U.S. state, and local government employees. You should consult the Gift Policy, and if necessary obtain permission pursuant to the policy, before giving or receiving any entertainment or gifts. A copy of the Gift Policy may be found on the NWBA website.

11 Political Activities and Contributions

NWBA and its representatives comply with all federal, state and local laws governing participation in government relations and political activities. Additionally, NWBA funds or resources are not contributed to individual political campaigns, political parties, or other organizations that intend to use the funds primarily for political purposes. The NWBA also does not permit any political literature, campaign materials or politically orientated information, materials, posters, signs, or buttons to be displayed, circulated or otherwise present on NWBA property or in the course of conducting work for the NWBA.

There are some very limited exceptions to this policy. At times, the NWBA may ask individuals to make personal contact with government officials or to write letters to present the NWBA's position on specific issues. Before doing so, you should confirm with the Chair of the Ethics Committee that such contact is authorized and in compliance with this policy, and that you are knowledgeable on the specific issues about which you have been asked to speak. You may, of course, participate in the political process on your own time and at your own expense, so long as you do not give the impression that you are speaking on behalf of or representing the NWBA in such activities. Nor can you be reimbursed by the NWBA for any personal contributions for such purposes.

If you are seeking public office, you may use vacation time or request leaves of absence to campaign or hold office. The NWBA will not make contributions to any political candidate or party.

12 NWBA Information

You are each responsible for the integrity and accuracy of organization documents, communications and financial records. All financial information must reflect actual transactions and conform to generally accepted accounting principles. It is a violation of the Code of Conduct to alter or falsify information, including any record or document, to intentionally make a false or exaggerated statement or claim to anyone, or to mislead anyone. Anyone having concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters should report their concerns to the Chair of the Ethics Committee, which will refer the matter to the Board of Directors' Audit Committee.

NWBA's information assets are valuable to the organization, and it is NWBA policy that all NWBA representatives must diligently protect this information from loss, theft, inadvertent or unauthorized disclosure or misuse. It is essential that everyone do their part to protect NWBA information, whether stored in computers, files or elsewhere. You must not discuss with or disclose to any unauthorized persons inside or outside the NWBA any information that is confidential or not publicly available.

NWBA business should not be discussed with unauthorized persons. You should be careful about discussing NWBA information and activities in the presence of, or within hearing distance of, unauthorized personnel. You should also not seek or accept any information to which you and the NWBA are not legitimately entitled, regardless of the source.

Your obligations to maintain the confidentiality and protection of NWBA information does not end even if your employment or other relationship with the NWBA may end.

13 Intellectual Property

The NWBA protects the ownership of its intellectual property as set forth in the Employee Handbook. In addition, you should contact NWBA’s Executive Director or President of the Board of Directors regarding any anticipated use of intellectual property that does or may belong to someone else.
