QUICK GLANCE: U.S. PRELIMINARY ROSTER

The preliminary roster for the 2017 U.S. National Junior Team was announced on Dec. 5, 2016, by USA Hockey exclusively on NHL Network's "NHL Now." The players at camp include four returnees from last year's bronze-medal winning 2016 U.S. National Junior Team and 10 other players who have previously earned IIHF medals with Team USA. Forward Brock Boeser (Burnsville, Minn./Univ. of North Dakota), who was also a member of the 2016 U.S. National Junior Team, was named to the roster but is unable to attend due to injury. For a full roster breakdown, see page 2.

"This is a talented, versatile group of players that has found success across all levels of hockey," said Jim Johannson, USA Hockey's assistant executive director of hockey operations and the general manager of the 2017 U.S. National Junior Team. "There is depth at every position, and while we still have some difficult decision to make, we feel each of these players can fit the style of hockey Coach Motzko (U.S. head coach Bob Motzko) first implemented at our National Junior Evaluation Camp last August."

TEAM USA STAFF RUNDOWN

Jim Johannson (Colorado Springs, Colo./USA Hockey) is serving as general manager for the U.S. National Junior Team for the eighth consecutive time. Bob Motzko (St. Cloud, Minn.), the 2014 National Collegiate Hockey Conference Coach of the Year and two-time Western Collegiate Hockey Association Coach of the Year (2006, 2007) with St. Cloud State University's men's ice hockey program, is making his international head coaching debut with the U.S. National Junior Team. Joining Motzko behind the bench are assistant coaches Greg Brown (Scituate, Mass./Boston College), Grant Potulny (Minneapolis, Minn./Univ. of Minnesota), Kris Mayotte (Pittsburgh, Pa./Providence College) and Steve Miller (Colorado Springs, Colo./Air Force Academy). Ryan Martin (Simsbury, Conn./Detroit Red Wings) and Ben Smith (Gloucester, Mass./USA Hockey) will again assist with player evaluation during training camp. Team USA's support staff includes high performance coach Sean Braziel (Burke, Va./USA Hockey), video coordinator Matt Chapman (Bloomington, Ind./St. Cloud State Univ.), equipment managers Scott Aldrich (Colorado Springs, Colo./USA Hockey) and Joe Guilmet (San Diego, Calif./Arizona State University); athletic trainers Jason Hodges (New Baltimore, Mich./USA Hockey National Team Development Program) and Stan Wong (Boca Raton, Fla./USA Hockey); team physician Dr. Phil Johnson (Fargo, N.D./USA Hockey); and communications contact Jon Gomez (Colorado Springs, Colo./USA Hockey).

RECAP: 2016 NJEC AT USA HOCKEY ARENA

Of the 26 players here in Buffalo, 25 attended USA Hockey's National Junior Evaluation Camp at USA Hockey Arena in Plymouth, Michigan, last August. Patrick Harper (New Canaan, Conn./Boston Univ.) is the lone player not originally named to the roster. The camp, which ran from July 30 through Aug. 6, is annually considered the first step in the U.S. National Junior Team selection process. The camp, which was previously held in Lake Placid, saw 10 international competitions take place between Canada, Finland, Sweden and the United States.

"We were impressed in August, not only with the players themselves, but with the pulse and emotion in the room," said head coach Bob Motzko. "Our staff felt it, and we know our players felt it. It's telling that so many kids from August are here. There's belief and desire here, and it's real exciting to be here in Buffalo with the guys and finally get this trip rolling."

Last year, he guided Team USA to its ninth-ever medal at the IIHF World Junior Championship with a bronze medal finish at the 2016 IIHF World Junior Championship in Helsinki, Finland. Under Johannson's guidance, the United States has captured four other medals in tournament play, including a pair of gold medal finishes at the 2013 IIHF World Junior Championship in Ufa, Russia, and the 2010 IIHF World Junior Championship in Regina and Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. He also led the U.S. to bronze medals at the 2011 IIHF World Junior Championship in Buffalo, New York and the 2007 IIHF World Junior Championship in Leksand and Mora, Sweden. BOB MOTZKO, HEAD COACH • International Head Coaching Debut • Assistant Coach, 2014 U.S. National Junior Team

Bob Motzko, head coach of St. Cloud State University's men's ice hockey team, will be making his international head-coaching debut as head coach of the 2017 U.S. National Junior Team. This is the second time Motzko will be behind a Team USA bench after serving as an assistant coach for the 2014 U.S. National Junior Team at the IIHF World Junior Championship in Malmo, Sweden. Head coach at his alma mater since 2005, the 2014 NCHC Coach of the Year and two-time WCHA Coach of the Year (2007, 2006) has produced seven 20 or more win seasons; seven NCAA tournament appearances; one NCAA Frozen Four appearance; two regular-season conference titles (one each: WCHA, NCHC); and one NCHC Frozen Faceoff Championship. Prior to his time at St. Cloud, Motzko served in multiple coaching capacities at four different schools, including a four-season span at the University of Minnesota (2001-05) that was highlighted by back-to-back NCAA national championships in 2002 and 2003. Additionally, Motzko twice served as a general manager and head coach in the United States Hockey League, the only Tier I junior hockey league in the United States, where he was twice named USHL General Manager of the Year.

Greg Brown, a two-time U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team member, and current associate head coach at Boston College, is serving on his second U.S. National Junior Team after filling the same role alongside Motzko in 2014. Brown is in his 13th season at his alma mater, Boston College, and has helped the program claim 10 overall five Hockey East Conference and three NCAA national championships (2008, 2010 and 2012). Additionally, Brown represented the United States at both the 1988 Olympic Winter Games in Calgary, Alberta, and the 1992 Olympic Winter Games in Albertville, France.

GRANT POTULNY, ASSISTANT COACH • Assistant (2013, gold) • 2x NCAA Champ

Grant Potulny, an assistant coach at University of Minnesota, returns to the U.S. National Junior Team staff after helping Team USA claim gold at the 2013 IIHF World Junior Championship in Ufa, Russia. Potulny, in his eighth season as an assistant coach for Minnesota, has helped the Gophers claim five-straight regular-season conference titles, two NCAA Frozen Four berths and one NCAA national championship game. As a player, Potulny was one of the Gophers' best on-ice leaders in history as he captained the squad for three seasons and helped the team claim two national championships (2002, 2003).

KRIS MAYOTTE, ASSISTANT COACH • U.S. National Junior Team Debut

Kris Mayotte, an assistant coach with Providence College, is making his debut on a U.S. National Junior Team coaching staff. At Providence, Mayotte works with the goaltenders and penalty kill unit and saw his first season with the Friars culminate in the program's first-ever NCAA national championship (2015). Under his guidance, Friar goaltenders have ranked among the nation's best each of the last two seasons. Last season, Mayotte and the Friars finished second in the nation for fewest goals allowed and fifth the season prior in scoring defense.
