Worthwhile Service of All Kinds

Editor's Note: This article by Stefanie Fauth appeared in the Faith Column of the Stillwater Gazette on March 18. Please see: http://stillwatergazette. com/2016/03/22/column-worthwhileservice-of-all-kinds/

My dear friends, STAND FIRM and do not be shaken. Always keep busy working for the Lord. You know that everything you do for God is worthwhile.

- 1 CORINTHIANS 15:58

Everything you do for God is worthwhile.

Trinity has a proud history of sending high school and adult missionaries to Mexico every year to help put roofs on houses. It is hard work - but every year that people go, they are reminded of God's presence in their lives as they do work for others – and Trinity is proud to have this mission work be part of our identity!

It's a gift to be able to do work for the Lord – and we are reminded of the wonderful service so many have done as we celebrate the return of our Mexico Missionaries - how amazing that they were able to do such important work!

But we must remember – there is no service too small to be worthwhile in God's eyes. We are all missionaries even though not all of us are able to serve in Mexico.

Each one of us has been called to share the Good News - and in that, live our lives in a way that honors God, and the gifts we have been given.

I know not everything we do is so obviously connected to serving God – but if your heart is focused on God, you will be serving God in everything you do.

(I feel it important to note that when I use the word God, I mean the triune God - Creator, Jesus, Holy Spirit - and for you, if one of those aspects of God's being is more meaningful, please know that is just fine – we all have different ways of relating to God, and that's beautiful).

When we neglect our connection to God, it's easy to become focused on ourselves - our own agenda, pumping our own egos, and forgetting we need God to bring peace and balance to our lives. Jesus did not die on the cross and rise from the dead just so we would be saved from death - but also to give us a connection to God through the Holy Spirit – to offer peace, hope and guidance in THIS life - but it's up to us to seek God's will for ourselves. God never leaves us - but is always waiting to be invited in.

I invite you to devote time to prayer. Make it a practice every day – when you wake in the morning, for a break at lunch, before you go to bed - spend time in prayer. Sit with God – ask what God wants from you and for you. You might be surprised at what happens when you make prayer a part of your daily life.

When you pray, ask God what God wants from you, be thinking about how you can do the work of the Lord. Is there a particular mission or ministry at Trinity that you feel called to? Are there places to serve around the community? Can you find ways to serve God in your day to day work and lives that help keep you focused on doing the Lord's work?

We can only stand firm with the help of God – so do your best to keep focus on God and God's will for you!

We will be discussing the book Accidental Saints by New York Times best-selling author Nadia Bolz-Weber. "This is a book for everyone who yearns to be made new."

Bridge for Trinity

By Ann Wolff

The hard part about bridge for me is remembering. How many trump are still out? What suit did my partner signal me to play? Who dealt? We're still laughing at Bridge for Trinity about the time my partner and I were playing no-trump and our opponents (who had the bid) were playing 4 Spades.

I'm much better at forgetting than remembering – especially bad things that I try to forget. Wars. Say what you will about the French, they are really good at remembering and honoring those who made the ultimate sacrifice. There are war memorials everywhere "Lest we forget."

If you're reading this and you play bridge, join us the first Monday of every month, in the Garden Room, 8:45-11:45 a.m. Advance notice is not necessary, just come when you can. All are welcome. $5/time supports Trinity. For more information call Nancy at 651-334-4738 or Ann at 651-439-1972 or email bridgefortrinity@gmail.com.

From the Congregational Council

So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! -2 Corinthians 5:17

Just as our Minnesota winters seem to symbolize the waiting and watching of Advent and the solemn journey of Lent, spring reflects the hope and new life promised by Easter and Jesus' resurrection. So, too, Trinity has been through a long journey of waiting and watching and we eagerly anticipate the new growth that is to come.

The Transition Team has been incredibly busy for the last several months, gathering and synthesizing information from the Trinity community, delving into documents and operational structures, and much more. Our sincerest gratitude to the members of the Transition Team for its thoughtful and prayerful work, and thank you to all those who participated in the sessions hosted by the Transition Team, provided information, and completed the LEAD survey. The team expects to conclude its work in the coming weeks with recommendations for the council's consideration and a report to the congregation about its findings, preparing us to embark on our call process for a new senior/lead pastor.

SENIOR/LEAD PASTOR CALL COMMITTEE TO BE FORMED

With our Transition Team soon concluding its work, the time to start the call process for a new senior/lead pastor has finally arrived. Trinity has been greatly assisted and guided since last August by Interim Senior Pastor Paul Svingen; we are grateful for his experience and guidance and he will continue to lead us until our call process is complete.

The call process starts with the formation of our senior/lead pastor call committee. For anyone interested in being part of the call committee, applications are available at www.trinitylc.org > NEWS > Congregational Council > Call Committee or in the church office. The call committee will be chaired by Arba-Della Beck, who leads one of the Transition Team work groups; six additional members will be appointed. Applicants for the call committee should prayerfully consider whether they can make the significant time commitment needed for the call committee. This will include attending all call committee meetings (at least biweekly and sometimes more), as well as devoting additional time to writing, reading and researching, consultation with the synod, visiting candidates' congregations, reviewing applications and interviewing candidates, and congregational meetings. It is the council's goal for this group to be highly collaborative, to represent the broad interests of Trinity and its mission, to be effective communicators, and to reflect our congregation's diversity to the extent possible. Trinity members interested in being considered for the call committee are invited to submit an application no later than Sunday, April 24. The council plans to select call committee members at its meeting scheduled in late April.

The call committee's first critical task will be to create a Trinity ministry profile. Once that is completed, the call committee will begin to consider potential pastoral candidates; we expect that will be in early to mid-summer. As we have said previously, it is important that our call process be thoughtful and to take the time needed, but with the goal of moving forward as expeditiously as the process permits.

The ministry profile, which will be submitted to the Saint Paul Area Synod of the ELCA, will be used by the call committee, the synod, and interested pastors to help identify appropriate potential pastoral candidates. The ministry profile consists of an overview of Trinity and its mission and ministries, demographics of our congregation and our community, historical data, etc., and also will reflect the findings of the Transition Team. The draft ministry profile will be shared with the congregation before it is final.

More information on the call process is available at www.trinitylc.org > NEWS > Congregational Council > Call Committee. Even if you are not on the call committee, you will play an important part in this process. We ask that all of the Trinity community remember the call committee and process in prayer. As people of hope, we also can help shape the process and the results by being both optimistic and constructive as we provide feedback to the call committee about God's mission for Trinity and what we are looking for in a senior/lead pastor.

This is an exciting time for Trinity. Thank you for your continued support of Trinity's ministry and mission. Happy Spring!

Transitioning to the Future

Update
THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! To all who participated in Trinity's Heart2Heart Listening sessions, Dialogue Sessions, and the LEAD Assessment tool. Your participation is critical for Trinity's commitment to listen to, and gather the thoughts, hopes, and dreams representative of our congregation.

Offered in January and early February, the Heart2 Heart sessions were your opportunity to share whatever thoughts were on your hearts and minds about Trinity. The Transition Team's job was to just listen. We offered over 84 listening sessions, with over 200 individuals from elementary age to our beloved elders participating, resulting in over 65 pages of typed notes.

From your input during the Heart-2Heart Listening Sessions, the Transition Team identified eight themes that reoccurred most frequently, meaning these were subjects that were on the hearts and minds of Trinity's members most frequently. Even though we identified only eight themes, rest assured that all of your comments have been recorded and will be considered as Trinity develops it mission, vision, and plans for the future.

Transition Team Update

84 Heart2Heart Listening Sessions 200+ people participated in H2H 65 printed pages of listening notes 17 Dialogue Sessions 50+ participants LEAD assessment 200+ participants

In February, The Transition team hosted 17 Dialogue Sessions with over 50 participants. In these sessions we asked you to rank those eight themes in order of importance with a small group of fellow members. Why were you asked to do this? For Trinity to emerge from this transition with a common vision for the future, we need to work together to forge that vision. In a small way, these dialogue sessions have shown us the diversity of our opinions, but more importantly how through listening and conversation we can achieve the common vision we all hope for.

The final phase of our gathering was the LEAD assessment. LEAD, which stands for Living Everyday As Disciples, is an organization whose mission is to grow leaders with deep, bold, consequential faith in Jesus Christ, and whose vision is leaders growing ministries and faith communities to serve the world, living every day as disciples. LEAD often accompanies congregations in transition, such as Trinity.

The LEAD assessment was not a survey. It did not ask you what you preferred or if you were satisfied with Trinity. It was 20 statements about the congregation and its behavior in specific ministries. Participants were asked to choose the response they thought best described the congregation in areas such as worship, learning, outreach and mission, its role in the community, and more. The results of the Congregational Assessment will be one of several tools Trinity has engaged in over the past year and half to help us shape a path for the future, as we consider what God is up to in and through the people of Trinity.

8 Themes from Heart2Heart Listening Sessions

Children, Youth and Family Worship Outreach and Mission Engaging People Trinity's "All Are Welcome" statement Financials Staffing Learning

With the completion of the LEAD Assessment, the Transition Team concluded our gathering process. The results of the Heart2Heart listening sessions, the Dialogue sessions, and the LEAD assessment will contribute to completing our task of describing the mission and vision of Trinity Lutheran Church.

At the end of April, the Transition Team will complete its work on mission and vision, organizational structure, leadership, and governance. The Team will submit a report to the Council and congregation on all that we learned, and will offer recommendations for the leadership, staff, and the Call Committee(yet to be formed), for their future work together.

Sunday Volunteers Working Together and Taking Turns

We come to church on Sunday mornings in search of many things—strength, guidance, comfort, joy, love, hope, forgiveness, and peace. Ultimately, all those gifts come from God, but in great measure, they come to us through and thanks to people. And it takes a lot of people—pastors, choir, organist, A-V technician, someone to make coffee and lemonade, custodians, office staff, altar guild, bread-bakers, Sunday School teachers, and caregivers in the nursery.

If you are one of those people, thank you. But that's not all! Trinity needs all of us—working together and taking turns. Trinity needs each of us to do something to make it happen on Sunday mornings. Trinity needs you!

Trinity needs you to be a GREETER so that everyone is welcomed with warmth and enthusiasm. If you appreciate the importance of collecting the offerings, Trinity needs you to be an USHER. If you've never been a COMMUNION ASSISTANT, it's a very special experience and all are welcome.

Choose one or try them all. Help occasionally or often. It's a small commitment of time with a great return of blessings for Trinity and for you. Please work together and to take turns. Trinity needs you!

To give the gift of time as a greeter, an usher, or a Communion assistant at 9 or 10:30 a.m., contact Ann Wolff. Thanks!

Ephesians 3:17-19

17Then Christ will make his home in your hearts as you trust in him. Your roots will grow down into God's love and keep you strong. 18 And may you have the power to understand, as all God's people should, how wide, how long, how high, and how deep his love is. 19 May you experience the love of Christ, though it is too great to understand fully. Then you will be made complete with all the fullness of life and power that comes from God.

~New Living translation

More and more as I grow older my thoughts turn to the farm in Maynard, Minnesota, where my mom was raised. I didn't know my grandmother very well—she died when I was a junior higher—but I knew and loved my grandpa. Grandpa Ernest was a tall, lanky, white-haired gentleman who always had a twinkle in his eye and and pink lozenge candy in his pocket. Grandpa was a devout Christian man, whose relationship with Jesus was as evident as the crops in his field. So as I grow into a more silvery person myself and ruminate on the beauty and mystery of life, I think about Grandpa on the farm. His work in the fields, his gentle and steady manner, his ready laugh, his scripture readings many times a day, his bad jokes, his playing of hymns on his organ, his zest for life, his clean and pure living—all of what made Grandpa the honest, humble and hardworking man of God he was.

In the verse from Ephesians above, when Paul speaks of our roots growing down into God's love and keeping us strong, I think of my Grandpa Ernest and am so grateful for him. For planting the seeds of faith in his family, tending and nurturing those seeds, watering us with prayer and shining the light of Christ into our lives, our roots growing deeper and stronger, anchoring the tree of faith throughout the generations. I stand firm on the foundation laid for me, and possess the unshakable knowledge of how wide, how long, how high and how deep my heavenly father's love is for me. My grandpa showed me this great love of God first, and my prayer is you would know that as well, beloved child of God.

Life is a great Balaucing Act...Stand Firm

As written by Theodore Geisel, Dr. Seuss, "Step with care and great tact, and remember that Life's a Great Balancing Act." Are you feeling unbalanced and asking yourself any of these questions:

How can I keep it all together and "stand firm" as I try to juggle work, home, family and caregiving responsibilities? Am I losing it and possibly showing signs of early dementia? How do I make my health care choices known before a time when I may not be able to?

The Care Team and invited community professionals will provide you with some answers during Sunday morning presentations in April. Please join us as we explore topics on "Being a Working Caregiver," "When to Worry" (memory loss), and "Advanced Health Care Planning." See the details at right.

Learning how to stay balanced and stand firm during life challenges requires information, resources, planning, and support.

May all be well with you!

Advanced Care Planning

April 17, 9-10 a.m. & 10:30-11:30 a.m. Living Room Presented by Kim Barnhart, BA, LSW, Manager of Case Management at Lakeview Hospital and Advance Care Planning Facilitator, this workshop will provide an overview of what Advance Care Planning is, the importance of Advance Care Planning, and instructions on how to arrange Advance Care Planning Facilitation. Forms and literature will be provided.

When to Worry

April 24, 10:15-11:15 a.m. Living Room Presented by Jenny West, Community Educator at Family Means. Have you ever wondered if you are losing it? Join us for a conversation to better understand what may be "normal" memory loss versus signs of early dementia. Resources will be presented that are designed to support memory loss. Discuss tips on how to manage/ approach behaviors.

From your Trinity Library

By Norma Wilson

Have you have had a family generations picture taken recently? Trinity members had one created in their minds at the Mexico Missions Commission service. The youngest Church School children processed up the aisles with guilts, which they presented to high school missionaries. The missionaries received them with their adult leaders standing along side them, and a witnessing congregation who has supported Mexico missions since many of the adult leaders were students. Four generations were represented as the entirety of those present sang "Jesu, Jesu, fill us with your love, show us how to serve the neighbors we have from you."

Do you want to know more about missions provided through Trinity and the church at large? The following resources in the Trinity Library will increase your awareness and understandings.

Unexpected Journeys: The Extraordinary Capacity of Every Day People 266.0 HERM Trinity author Michele Hermansen's book is an inspirational account of her trip to Tanzania and her work to help villagers improve their lives. Michele continues to impact people locally and abroad through her service to others.

Shoulder to Shoulder (bega kwa bega): A Lutheran Partnership Between Minnesota and Tanzania 284.1 LUBA The Bega kwa Bega describes the partnership between the Saint Paul Area (ELCA) and the Iringa Diocese congregations of the in Tanzania and its impact on the lives of its people

We All Went on a Safari, A Counting Journey Through Tanzania (E K) and Rehema's Journey (E M) Authors Margolies and Krebs help children understand cultures from Minnesota to Tanzania.

Mother Teresa: A Simple Path 271.97 VARD and Mother Teresa: Come Be My Light 271.9 TERE These books share the thoughts and experiences that led Mother Teresa to do her extraordinary work, her remarkable spirit, and how she has led others to action.

Slices of Life: Stories And Devotions From A Bible Translator 266.0 LOVI Mission Aretta Loving describes her life as a missionary and her desire to translate the New Testament for the people of Papua New Guinea; "God knows just how to speak the language of our hearts."

Life Together and Prayerbook of The Bible 230.04 BOHN Dietrich Bonhoeffer was an influential theologian during the Nazi period. Among his expressions is the church as a community of love, which focuses on Jesus, and the Biblical teachings of humans and their family relationship.

Trinity has a mission/service focus within our congregation, and locally, as well as in many parts of our world. The words the children sang at the Mexico Mission Commissioning also include: "These are the ones we should love; all these are neighbors to us and you." The Trinity Library has additional resources regarding missions on the shelves labeled 260 -270's or can be found in the Trinity Library online at www.trinitylc.org > Connect > Library.

Brownies and Books!

The Trinity Library Volunteer staff is sponsoring a spring event April 17 between services. Please come explore the Library, located downstairs near the 3rd street ramp doors. Volunteers are eager to share the resources, help you choose a book of interest, and provide yummy brownies! While you visit you will enjoy perusing new books, including the following titles. A few new arrivals will also be on display.

Being Mortal 362.2 GAWA Atul Gawande, a practicing surgeon, has written a book that is changing medicine and lives. Through research and stories of his patients, he writes of aging, death and a good life until the very end. This book is a #1 International Bestseller, Best Book of the Year, and a New York times Notable Book.

An Altar in the World: A Geography of Faith 283 TAYL Barbara Brown Taylor's book helps readers "learn to live with purpose, pay attention, slow down and practice reverence." Discover the sacred in everyday experiences.

Acts For Everyone: Chapters 1-12 226.6 WRIG Understanding Scripture can be a challenge. The Bible Study resources, such as Wright's and Barclay's interpretations and questions, can be helpful to you individually or as a group.

Who Are the Christians in the Middle East? 275.6 BAIL Essays on history and culture, politics and demographics are shared in this volume. "This solid reference book should open up new understandings of the Christian community abroad."

Remember to add Brownies and Books on April 17 to your calendar!

MEXICO.MISSION.2016

Mexico Mission 2016 has come and gone, but the impact of the work done and the relationships made will last a life time. On March 17, 52 high school students and 26 adults traveled to the Yucatán Peninsula for a week of mixing cement, drinking Gatorade, and changing lives forever. In total, 12 roofs were put on homes of various shapes and sizes. Our 9 Senior Leaders (12th grade students), took turns blessing each home we finished and offering each family a quilt, a children's bible, and an adult bible. On behalf of our team, I cannot thank this community enough for supporting this life-changing experience and making this trip a reality for our high school youth—thank you.

By Kelsey Crusinberry

GUILTS. FOR. MEXICO.

The Love Story of the Quilt

- It started when Kelsey and the Mexico Missionaries visited Sunday and Wednesday School last fall to tell our children age 4 to 6th grade about the needs of the people they will visit in March.
- Then they gave the children a blank square of fabric and fabric markers and the opportunity to write and draw expressions of love, hope and connection to their peers in Mexico.
- Christine divided these decorated squares into quilt kits that wonderful volunteer sewists took home, assembled with love, and brought back.
- The Trinity Quilting Ministry also assembled some of the quilts this year.
- Then Christine took the quilts back to the children in Sunday and Wednesday School and lead them in tying the quilt layers together.
- Then children presented the quilts to the Mexico Missionaries in worship as they were commissioned.
- And they got carefully packed in a suitcase and flew to Mexico.
- And the Trinity Missionaries lovingly presented one to each family who just got a roof on their house.
- And all the quilts lived happily ever after as they fulfilled their purpose and were loved.

Muchas gracias to Christine Lande for managing the whole process!

- Bishop Dr. O.M. Mdegella

We share thoughts from just a few of the people that Tom Thiets has worked with during his almost nine years at Trinity. Thank you, Tom!

Thank you for allowing us to walk together as partners in God's mission. What a beautiful journey you have shared with so many.

Mama (Marlene Harty)

Tom is one in a million; maybe one in a billion. It is a rare person that can usher 30 to 125 people onto a plane, transport them thousands of miles to some farflung part of the globe like Mwatasi, Tanzania or Chelem, Mexico, arrange a meaningful work experience, then guide them back safely two weeks later. Tom is that person. The amount of behind-thescenes planning involved in any mission trip is enormous—and there may be no one on the planet that can do that planning as well as Tom.

Though some missions involve traveling across the world, some involve simply traveling across Stillwater—to help feed the hungry via a food packing event, to serve a Thanksgiving dinner, to swing a hammer to get a roof over someone's head. Tom arranges and participates in all that stuff too.

But Tom isn't just a great organizer, he's also a great person. His energy and talents are boundless. I've seen him literally take the shirt off his back and shoes off his feet to give to someone in need. Kids love him, adults respect him and the world embraces him. "The impossible is possible" is the slogan coined for the work Tom initiated at the secondary school in Bomalongombe. I'm sure Tom will continue making the impossible, possible as he continues God's work in this world.

- Spike Carlser

I would love to congratulate my brother Tom for everything he has done with groups at Mwatasi and Bomalang'ombe. In 2005 i had no way to go back to school as my mom had no money to pay for school. A group from Trinity decided to help me with school fees! All these year i have spent to school, it has been great and wonderful moment to me. Trinity Scholarship sponsored my studies from secondary school to masters degree!!

Trinity mission educated villagers about agriculture and the important of planting trees. I learned so much from this! I can confirm that since 2005 i started planting trees to my family farms that is now ready to be sold out. I would never forget the way you taught me how to be a good person to others and being a man of commitments.

Brother Tom, God will bless you for the time and the way you sacrificed for helping others. Blessings to everyone at Trinity. Thank you.

CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILIES

Impact Parenting Session

Routines & Redirection with Tracy Lysne Wednesday, April 6

6:15 p.m.

Living Room

Kids crave routine. They may fight it, but structure helps them feel safe and function better. Do you have a morning routine? A homework routine? A bedtime routine? We will talk about routines and how to best support our children as we create and maintain routines. We will also discuss words and learn how we can use our words in a positive way to redirect our children when they stray from our routines. Grandparents welcome! For more information contact Monty Lysne at mlysne@trinitylc.org.

Photo below: Last month we had our Keeping the Promise event for our two year olds. They received their first Bibles and gathered to talk about ways to use it and pray with their families.

Deanna Dannhoff helps a small group of 4-year-old children learn about God's love on Sunday mornings. Thank you, Deanna! (Deanna is one of nine other loving volunteer Sunday School Leaders at Trinity this year.)

Thank you!

From Elin, Anders, Kai, Wesley, Audrey and Marshall THANK YOU ALSO to the many fabulous nursery volunteers who have been such a blessing to these same two year olds and many others throughout this ministry year.

Charlene, Almond, Nettie, Mary, Mya, Morgan, Jenna, Rachel, Carol, Madison, Claire, Rose and Sophie. The kids and I appreciate you immensely.

Honey Mustard Pretzel Chicken

This sauce makes a great dressing too! Yummy and easy! You can also skip the pretzels if you prefer.

INGREDIENTS

1/3 C Dijon mustard

1/4 C honey

2 T mayo

1 t steak sauce

20 oz. pack chicken breasts, pounded about 1/2 in. thick

2 1/2 C pretzels (optional)

DIRECTIONS

In a bag or bowl mix together first 4 ingredients. Remove about 1/3 C and chill for dipping sauce. Add chicken and chill for at least 30 minutes to overnight.

Put pretzels into zip bag and pound them. Then pour into shallow bowl or deep plate for dipping.

Heat oven to 350° and spray baking dish with cooking oil. Coat chicken in pretzel crumbs (if desired) and bake approx 30 min. or until done. Serve with sauce.

Cook's Note: The sauce recipe makes a nice honey mustard dressing too, just thin it with a bit of milk or water.

Thank You!

A big thank you to those that helped Dale when he fainted in church. Thank you also to Pastor Stefanie and everyone for your prayers.
