Sertich Ice Center

Doors & Auction open @ 6:00pm
$5 General admission

The Pikes Peak Miners are proud members of the Colorado Springs Amateur Hockey Association and compete in the Rocky Mountain Junior Hockey League. The Miners provide development for players aged 17-20 from Colorado Springs and across the country, who are looking to play college hockey. This season the Miners finished the regular season in first place and will compete in the playoffs for the RMJHL championship.

All proceeds from the Auction will go to The Bob Greene Memorial Emergency Scholarship Fund which is handed out each season to help keep youth hockey players in the Colorado Springs Amateur Hockey Association on the ice through difficult times.

Admission is free for all CSAHA youth hockey players
