Talking Points

All-Time vs. Belarus

The United States and Belarus are meeting for the eighth time in IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship history with the U.S. unbeaten in the previous seven meetings. The all-time series is 6-0-0-1 (W-OTW-OTL-L-T). The two teams have only met in preliminary-round games with the last game coming in a 7-1 USA win on April 18, 2010. The U.S. has outscored Belarus 54-8 all-time, with the largest margin of victory coming on April 17, 2006, in a 12-1 victory for the U.S.

U.S. History of Success at U18 Worlds

The U.S. enters the 2017 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship having captured a record 13 consecutive medals, including gold medals in six of the last eight years (2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2015). Team USA has won nine gold medals all-time, which is the most of any country in tournament history. The event began in 1999. Team USA returns to Slovakia where its first gold medal was captured in 2002 in Trnava and Piestany.

Wroblewski's Third Experience

U.S. National Under-18 Team Head Coach John Wroblewski (Neenah, Wis.) will make his head coaching debut at the 2017 International Ice Hockey Federation Under-18 Men's World Championship. This will be Wroblewski's third different role in the tournament. In addition to making history as the first USA Hockey National Team Development Program alum to serve as the head coach at the Under-18 World Championship, Wroblewski competed in the first tournament as a player in 1999, and he helped Team USA capture gold as an assistant coach in 2010.

"Coaches who have been there before can help (players) through the event," said Wroblewski. "It should give them an idea and a little bit of composure for when [it is time for] this event. We will have them [ready] with the best foot forward."

The U.S. coaching staff also includes assistant coach Nick Fohr (Grand Forks, N.D.), who recently completed his sixth season with the NTDP, is making his third tournament appearance. In his first two trips, Fohr helped lead one gold-medal team (2015) and one silver-medal squad (2013).

Seth Appert (Cottage Grove, Minn.), who recently finished an 11-year stint as the Head Coach of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (Troy, N.Y./ECAC), will make his Under-18 World Championship debut as an assistant coach. Appert served as an assistant coach for the 2007 U.S. National Under-18 Select Team that competed in the Memorial of Ivan Hlinka Tournament and as the head coach of the team in 2008 and 2011.

Greg Moore (Libson, Maine) returns to the 2017 International Ice Hockey Federation Under-18 Men's World Championship for the first time as a coach, after winning gold as a player with Team USA in 2002 in Slovakia. Moore recently completed his second season with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program as intern assistant coach of the U.S. National Under-18 Team.

Kevin Reiter (Pittsburgh, Pa.) will serve as goaltending coach for Team USA for the fourth time at the 2017 International Ice Hockey Federation Under-18 Men's World Championship. Reiter has helped guide Team USA to gold medals in 2014 and 2015 and a bronze medal in 2016.

Young Guns

Forwards Joel Farabee (Cicero, N.Y.) and Oliver Wahlstrom (Quincy, Mass.) are the youngest players on the Team USA Roster with 2000 birth years. The duo spent most of the 2016-17 season with the U.S. National Under-17 Team in their first year with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program. Both players were added to the U.S. National Under-18 Team roster in late February as the team finished out its United States Hockey League schedule.

Prior to the call-up, Farabee had 31 points (18-13-31) in 43 games. He added another 13 points (5-8-13) when he joined the U18s.

Wahlstrom had 25 points (14-11-25) for the U17s in 43 games and added 10 points (6-4-10) in 13 games with the U18s.

Poehling Makes Collegiate Jump

Ryan Poehling (Lakeville, Minn.) made an uncommon leap to collegiate hockey this year. After finishing his junior season and academic year at Lakeville (Minn.) North High School in 2015-16, Poehling had enough credits to graduate high school. He made the decision to forgo his senior year of high school and enrolled at St. Cloud State University for the fall of 2016. This has only been done a handful of times at NCAA Division I programs. With the move, Poehling was able to begin his freshman season with the Huskies and join his twin older brothers, Jack and Nick (20), who were also competing in their freshman season, for the 2016-17 season. Poehling registered 13 points (7-6-13) in 32 games during his freshman campaign.

Family Ties: Connecting the Dots on Team USA's Roster

Evan Barratt's (Bristol, Pa.) father Jeff, played four seasons in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League from 1979-1983. He has also coached in the United States Hockey League and Ontario Hockey League ... Jason Dhooghe, older brother of Sean Dhooghe (Aurora, Ill.) currently plays for the Green Bay Gamblers of the USHL. The Dhooghe brothers will reunite at the University of Wisconsin next season ... Jim Hughes, father of Quinn Hughes (Orlando, Fla.) played four seasons with Providence College from 1985-1989 and has been a coach and manager for NHL and AHL teams since 2001. Quinn's mother, Ella Weinberg-Hughes played both soccer and hockey at the University of New Hampshire, where she was inducted into the Wildcats Hall of Fame. She also represented Team USA at the 1992 IIHF Women's World Championship, where she earned first-team all tournament team ... Tommy Miller's (West Bloomfield, Mich.) older sister, Margot, played four seasons (2008-2012) for the University of North Dakota women's hockey program ... Dwayne Norris, father of Josh Norris (Oxford, Mich.), played four seasons at Michigan State University (1988-1992) before a 15-year professional career in the NHL, AHL and DEL. Josh's uncle, Warren, played four seasons of collegiate hockey at the University of Massachusetts Amherst (1993-1997) before completing a 14-year professional hockey career in 2011 ... Michael Pastujov's (Bradenton, Fla.) older brother Nick recently completed his freshman season with the University of Michigan hockey program. Nick is also and NTDP alum and competed in the 2016 IIHF Men's Under-18 World Championship ... Graham Slaggert's (South Bend, Ind.) father, Andy, is an assistant coach at the University of Notre Dame, where Graham is slated to attend next season ... Dylan St. Cyr's (Northville, Mich.) Father, Gerry, played five seasons of professional hockey. His mother, Manon Rheame, played goaltender for Canada at the 1998 Olympic Winter Games and in several world championships. She was also the first woman to appear in an NHL preseason game when she skated for the Tampa Bay Lightning in 1992 ... Brady Tkachuk's (St. Louis, Mo.) father, Keith, played in the NHL for 19 years, starred in four Olympics for the U.S. and was inducted into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2011.

Pre-Tournament Recap

Twenty-one players on the U.S. roster come from USA Hockey's NTDP. Forward Ryan Poehling is the only player who hails outside of the NTDP. He recently completed his first season of collegiate hockey at St. Cloud State University of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association ... Poehling (Jan. 3, 1999) is the oldest player on Team USA, while forward Oliver Wahlstrom, born June 13, 2000, is the youngest ... Twelve different states are represented on the roster. Michigan and Minnesota lead the way with four skaters, while New York has three. Florida and Illinois boast two players each while Connecticut, Indiana, Massachusetts, Missouri, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Texas have one player each.

U.S. Names Captains

Defenseman Phil Kemp and forward Brady Tkachuk will serve as captains of the 2017 U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team. In addition, forward Josh Norris will serve as alternate captain for the squad. Tkachuk will serve as captain with Kemp and Norris as assistant captains for all Team USA home games while Kemp will serve as captain with Tkachuk and Norris as assistant captains for all Team USA away games.

Pre-Tournament Roundup

The U.S. skated to 5-2 wins in both of its pre-tournament matchups. Last Friday (April 7), the U.S. beat Belarus at the Zimní Stadion Václava Nedomanského in Honodín, Czech Republic thanks to four second period goals by Oliver Wahlstrom, Scott Reedy, Logan Cockerill and Josh Norris. Goaltender Dylan St. Cyr made 18 saves on 20 shots.

Monday (April 10), Team USA got revenge on Finland, who ousted the U.S. in the semifinals last season, when Brady Tkachuk tallied twice in a 5-2 victory.

Adam Scheel (Lakewood, Ohio) made 21 saves on 23 shots and Cayden Primeau (Voorhees, N.J.) made saves on all seven shots faced in the third period.

NHL Central Scouting Update

Seventeen members of the U.S. squad were included in the final NHL Central Scouting draft rankings. The list includes defensemen David Farrance (45), Max Gildon (54), Tyler Inamoto (68), Phil Kemp (175), Nate Knoepke (79) and Tommy Miller (81), as well as forwards Evan Barratt (65), Logan Cockerill (214), Grant Mismash (24), Josh Norris (34), Ryan Poehling (13), Michael Pastujov (80), Scott Reedy (40), Graham Slaggert (180), and Jacob Tortora (165). Cayden Primeau was ranked fifth and Adam Scheel was ranked 28th among North American goaltenders.

43 - A Tale of 5 Nations

Embroidered on the warmup uniforms of every U.S. National Under-18 Team player is the number 43. The number represents the motto "for three." This stems from the team's desire to capture its third international tournament this season after finishing first at the 2016 Under-18 Five Nations Tournament in Plymouth, Michigan in November and the 2017 Under-18 Five Nations Tournament in Sundsvall, Sweden in February. The U.S. has lost only one game and outscored opponents 37-17 throughout the two tournaments en route to the championships.
