

Illinois Fire Juniors is on Facebook® & Twitter!

Our presence on Facebook® and Twitter is about building even closer ties with our communities. In order to fully realize this vision, we're expanding beyond the physical community into the virtual community.

Our Facebook® and Twitter pages are another great and convenient way to find out "what's happening" with Illinois Fire Juniors!

Illinois Fire Juniors Social Networking Policy

Social networking sites are a great platform to get real time information. Illinois Fire Juniors understands the concept of "community". Our presence on social networking sites like Facebook® and Twitter will be closely administered and monitored by our Directors of Coaching who pledge the following:

- To be responsible for written and published content posted by Illinois Fire Juniors, NFP on our social networking sites and pages.
- To always maintain the privacy of our student athletes. Personal information about players will never be posted.
- To respect all copyrights, trademarks and fair use doctrine.
- As in the actual world, our virtual interactions and conversations will always be respectful of others.

Illinois Fire Juniors will not tolerate disrespectful or disparaging comments about any student athlete, soccer club or sport. Activity of this nature violates "terms of use" for social networking sites. Any disparaging posts will be promptly removed and the individual posting them will be banned.

It is understood that the views expressed by "friends" in posts to our organization's social networking sites are theirs alone and do not represent the views, opinions or philosophies of Illinois Fire Juniors, NFP.

For questions on the Illinois Fire Juniors Social Networking Policy, please contact the Illinois Fire Juniors Directors of Coaching.
