Wildcats Storylines ...

NUNC COEPI: Last season's loss in the Division I State Championship certainly stings, but the offseason saw the Wildcats renew their efforts with a much younger squad. One phrase that came to the forefront was "Nunc coepi." It is a Latin phrase, often quoted by Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers, which means "Now I begin." As such, the Wildcats began preparations after a short time off, getting back to work, especially in the weight room. Head Coach Chuck Kyle '69 takes the phrase to heart every year. The Wildcats are 139-15 in seasons following a state championship appearance.

LINEBACKER LEGION, THE SEQUEL: The strength of the 2016 Football Cats was the linebacker corps. Following the graduation of five seniors at the position, the group sees new faces, but still retains the name under Linebackers Coach and Defensive Coordinator Ryan Franzinger '02. Senior Andrew Keirn will lead the group as the middle backer after recording 7 tackles in 2016. Logan Joyce joins the varsity squad as a starter after a season off. Thomas Eichenberg will get the nod at the final linebacker spot after an impressive offseason and preseason. Seniors Michael Volpe and Thomas Grosel will give the unit depth.

HALL'S HEROES: Following a preseason quarterback competition with senior Daniel Alexander and junior Patrick Delahunty, senior Kyle Hall seized the job. Like last year's signal-caller Patrick Ryan, Hall has no prior varsity experience under center, but played well as a sophomore with the JV squad.

BOBO'S RETURN: Mark Bobinski will be expected to carry the load at running back after a phenomenal junior campaign. Bobinski rushed for 1,157 yards and 20 touchdowns last year, also catching 19 passes for 166 yards and a touchdown. Jahadge "Bo" Floyd, Matt Viancourt, and Aidan Gill will all compete for carries, too.

KILLER SPEED: Depth at secondary and wide receiver is a hallmark of the 2017 Wildcats. Returning starters include WR Michael Drobnick, CB Cam Toppin, and FS Justin Sands. Wideouts Sam Snyder and Max Pike, along with corner Jett Elad and safety Mitch Puhalsky also look primed for potential breakout campaigns after solid camp showings.

KICK IT, TRICKETT!: Senior Matthew Trickett will assume the roles of kicker and punter this year after a strong junior campaign. Trickett will give the Wildcats a big boost on special teams this season. And in his spare time, Trickett, along with his fellow special teamers, will be raising money for cancer research through Kick-It for Cancer.

ABOUT THE KNIGHTS ...

Learning about the Knights ...

MOVING ON UP: After playing in Division III last season, Archbishop Hoban has been promoted to Division II due to OHSA realignment. Hoban won its second straight Division III title at The Horseshoe last season with one of the talented duos in the program's history in quarterback Danny Clark and running back Todd Sibley.

NO LACK OF SKILL: The Knights have a talented group of playmakers returning in 2017. The team's top returning skill players on offense are wideouts Nate Bauer and Garrett Houser. Bauer committed to the University of Toledo in late July after receiving offers from several Ohio school. The 6'0, 190 pound receiver earned All-Northeast Inland District honorable mention honors after a promising season. Meanwhile, Houser committed to Navy in the offseason. Houser hauled in 30 passes for 946 yards and 9 touchdowns. Houser played the "X" last year but figures as a slot back in college.

LEADERS ON THE LINES: Graduation did impact Hoban's offensive and defensive lines, but impact players remain on both sides of the ball. Foremost among those is offensive lineman Nolan Rumler. The 6'4" 290 pound tackle has committed to the University of Michigan after receiving All-Ohio first team honors last season. Other returners on the offensive line include RJ Kelly, Jacob Petit, and Cade Thomas. On the other side of the ball, Daeshon Martin is a player to watch. The 6'3, 250 pound defensive end committed to Cincinnati after accruing All-Ohio Special mention honors.

THE QUARTERBACK QUESTION: With the loss of Danny Clark to graduation, the Knights had to fill the starting quarterback job during training camp. Shane Hamm looks like the favorite to start week one. The Austintown product drew solid reviews during Hoban's scrimmages. The freshman will look to show off his running ability, too, in week one. Junior Matt Salopek will also figure into the mix for the Knights.

4-2-5 DEFENSE: Like Saint Ignatius Head Coach Chuck Kyle, Knights Head Coach Tim Tyrell does not run a 3-4 or a 4-3 defense. Rather, Tyrell and the Knights run a 4-2-5, generally with 4 down linemen, 2 linebackers, and 5 defensive backs. The 4-2-5 formation, pioneered by TCU coach Gary Patterson, is designed to stop up-tempo offenses. As Patterson said at a 2011 coaching clinic, it divides the defense into "attack groups": 1. Four DL; 2. Two LB (the front); 3. One CB, FS, SS; and 4. The Weak Safety and the other CB. Basically, the 4-2-5 separates the front six and secondary, allowing for more creative defensive schemes, especially in varying between man/zone schemes.*

QB KYLE HALL '18

A quarterback battle in the preseason culminated in the annual Jamboree game vs. McKinley. The Saint Ignatius coaching staff selected Hall to be the starting quarterback. All eyes will be on Hall, who will make his first varsity start against Hoban. Hall excelled at the JV level when called upon as a sophomore.

LB THOMAS EICHENBERG '19

The younger brother of Liam Eichenberg has drawn rave reviews in the preseason, especially from Defensive Coordinator Ryan Franzinger '02. Eichenberg will look to lead a unit hit hard by graduation, but one with impressive talent. Eichenberg will play a key role in both stopping the rush and getting after the quarterback. He will also see time on offense.

EDDIE DWYER'S PREVIEW

By Eddie Dwyer

OHIO CITY - The record 11-time Division I State Champion Wildcats, coming off a 13-2 season that saw them finish as the big school state runner-up to their Jesuit Brothers from Cincinnati St. Xavier, will travel to Archbishop Hoban's Monsignor Richard A. Dowd Field on Thursday for a 7 PM kickoff versus the Knights.

Under the direction of Head Coach Timothy Tyrrell, Archbishop Hoban has moved up to Division II, Region 5 this season. The Knights won back-to-back Division III State Football Championships in 2015 and 2016. Coach Tyrrell also serves as Hoban's Athletic Director.

Thursday evening's season opener in Akron will mark just the second time that Saint Ignatius and Archbishop Hoban will be meeting on the gridiron.

It was in Week 2 of 1958 that the football programs from Saint Ignatius and Archbishop Hoban met for the first and only time, and the Knights came away with a 13-12 victory on their home field. Controlling the time of possession, Archbishop Hoban led, 13-0, at halftime. The Wildcats came roaring back behind impressive touchdown runs by Mike Hegan and Nick Dagenti, but couldn't convert on either of their two 2-point conversion attempts following those TD runs and lost a hard-fought encounter with the Knights.

Now, nearly 59 years to the date of that September 19th, 1958 tale of two halves, this corner takes a look at Thursday's opener with the Knights, a matchup many preseason publications have labeled as one of the top five games to watch in Ohio this summer/fall. Saint Ignatius and Archbishop Hoban enter Week 1's area headliner ranked first and third, respectively, in the Cleveland.com preseason poll. St. Edward garnered the second spot.

TWO SPECIAL PLAYERS SAID GOODBYE, BUT, AS USUAL, THE FOOTBALL CUPBOARD IS FAR FROM BARE AT ARCHBISHOP HOBAN

The Knights finished 14-1 overall and 5-0 in the North Coast League last season, and brought home the program's second consecutive Division III state football championship. They are preparing to continue that run in Division II this year as they pursue what would be a 13th appearance in the OHSAA playoffs.

In case you wondered, Archbishop Hoban's only setback in 2016 came in Week 2, a 10-7 loss to St. Edward on Dowd Field.

Yes, Coach Tyrrell welcomed back 12 starters when camp opened in June, but he and his staff have to fill the void left by the graduations of two of the premier players in the Knights' football history - quarterback Danny Clark, now on scholarship at the University of Kentucky, and tailback Todd Sibley, who is furthering his education and football career on scholarship at the University of Pittsburgh. Clark and Sibley each accounted for more 4,000 yards of offense and 35 touchdowns while wearing the Knights' Navy Blue and Old Gold.

Matthew Trickett (right) could give the Wildcats a special teams advantage.

Archbishop Hoban's 2017 running game suffered a blow when the highly regarded William Collier took his talents to Akron East. However, the Knights will still feature five major-college recruits in offensive/defensive lineman

Nolan Rumler, a 6-foot-4, 295-pound Michigan recruit; defensive end Daeshon Martin, who has given a verbal commitment to the University of Cincinnati; wide receiver /defensive back Nate Bauer, a University of Toledo verbal; wide receiver Garrett Houser, who is bound for Navy next year, and highly regarded offensive/defensive lineman R.J. Kelly (6-2, 295), who has the interest of several college programs.

Rumler and Kelly are space creators, my friends.

The answer to the Knights' questionable running game might come in the form of 5-10, 210 pound junior Tyrus Dickerson, who rambled for touchdown runs of 45 and 50 yards during Archbishop Hoban's 28-7 scrimmage victory at Louisville this past Thursday.

Among the Knights' other names to remember are linebacker/fullback Reid Allen; defensive back Daulson Fitzpatrick; offensive/defensive lineman Jacob Petit; defensive back/quarterback Matt Salopek; offensive lineman Cade Thomas; athletic sophomore linebacker Deamonte Trayanum; offensive lineman Jaden Baxter and freshman quarterback Shane Hamm.

Hamm fired a 50-yard TD pass in the Louisville scrimmage and Salopek ripped off a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown versus the Leopards.

JJ Huddle and MaxPreps ranked Archbishop Hoban No. 1 in their 2017 preseason Division II State Poll. Ranked second in Division II by JJ and MaxPreps is Cincinnati La Salle, which is seeking a fourth consecutive State Championship on the gridiron.

FROM SAINT IGNATIUS' HALL OF FAME HEAD COACH CHUCK KYLE '69

"Offensively, Archbishop Hoban will give you a lot of different formations and try to create angles for the blocking," said the man who, along with his OHSAA record 11 state championships, has guided his alma mater to a record five consecutive big-school state titles (1991 to 1995), a record 27 OHSAA playoff appearances, two state runner-up finishes (1996 and 2016), three national titles (1989, 1993 and 1995) and a national runner-up in 2008.

Saint Ignatius has a remarkable postseason record, all under Coach Kyle, of 70-16.

"Archbishop Hoban will mix pass and run, so they'll keep you honest," continued Coach Kyle, who will take 334 career victories into his 35th season opener on Thursday night. "Their receivers are very effective. They run good routes in an offense that is very balanced. That's the sign of a good team.

"Our secondary is going to be called on for a lot of work Thursday night," Coach Kyle said. "First, they have to help on the running game. So they have to read their keys effectively. I think our secondary can run with them. Archbishop Hoban has a nice offensive line with size and experience, so that's a challenge for our defensive line, where we graduated pretty heavily.

"Sometimes film doesn't tell you everything and we have to start making plays when the ball is in the air," said Coach Kyle of the Wildcats' scrimmages versus Solon and Canton McKinley. "There are two guys going for it and we need to make the play.

EDDIE DWYER'S PREVIEW

That's something we're working on."

Coach Kyle emphasized that defensively you can tell right away that the Knights have a couple of Division I recruits on that side of the ball, a very aggressive front four and a group of linebackers that when they read run, they're coming.

"What we've seen in their scrimmages is that the opposing quarterback hasn't had a lot of time," Coach Kyle said in reference to the vital role the 'Cats' offensive line will play on Dowd Field. "A great pass defense starts with a great pass rush and they really come after the ball hard."

Coach Kyle also pointed out how pleased he was with the Wildcats' ability to run the ball in last Friday's annual Jamboree scrimmage versus a very formidable Canton McKinley team at Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium.

"All along we've felt that our offensive line was going to key our offense, just looking at what we had coming back there," said Coach Kyle during Sunday's practice on Wasmer Field. "We were moving people on Friday night."

You could see the competitive fire in Coach Kyle's eyes Sunday afternoon when he said, without a second's hesitation, "This is going to be a playoff-caliber game Thursday night, there is no doubt about that."

HERE IS A LOOK AT SOME OF THE 'CATS' KEY PLAYERS FOR THURSDAY NIGHT, PLAYERS YOU READ ABOUT THROUGHOUT THE SUMMER CAMPS, PRACTICES AND SCRIMMAGES.

The offensive line, which is under the direction of veteran coaches Adam Rini '99 and Paul Yappel. Paul is a former Teacher and Assistant Coach at Archbishop Hoban, and he also serves as the Wildcats' Head Junior Varsity Coach.

Seniors Darian Kinnard and Billy Corte will be at the tackle spots. The 6-7, 336-pound Kinnard is a preseason All-American and a University of Kentucky recruit. All-Northeast Lakes District and All-Area selection Jack Jamieson will be joined by fellow senior Juan Pen as the starting guards, and gritty senior Jivan Meguerditchian will be at center. Junior Grant Abbott, in the words of Coach Rini, will be "working all over the line, tackle, guard and center." Coach Rini also said junior Xavier Everett will be playing guard and tackle.

Coach Dave Cicetti's and Coach Mark Sullivan's Defensive Line:

RB Mark Bobinski will be a key playmaker for the Wildcats in 2017.

"It's going to be quite a rotation of guys," said Coach Cicetti. "At nose guard we will rotate three guys, Darian Kinnard, Jack Jamieson and senior Aidan Gill (who doubles as a running back). Brad Andrich (senior) and Zach McMahan (junior) will start at end and Aidan Wells (junior) will rotate in at end. Grant Abbott will also play at nose and senior Colin Burns will be another rotation guy. Series to series it's going to be a different look. There is a lot of depth on the defensive line."

Coach Kevin Johnson's ('10) and Coach Chad Aerni's ('12) Defensive Secondary: The most experienced and big-game tested unit for the 2017 Wildcats, the secondary is led by senior veterans Cam Toppin at cornerback, Justin Sands (a Penn recruit) at safety, Matt Viancourt at safety and Connor Kennedy (a Holy Cross recruit) at corner and safety.

Seniors Max Corrigan-Mook and Xavier Curtis have made their presence felt, junior Jett Elad has put together a solid summer at cornerback and fellow juniors Danny Scelza, John Wetula and Chris Velotta Jr. have also roamed the secondary with confidence.

Coach Ryan Franzinger's ('02) tough and talented linebackers:

The Wildcats' outstanding Defensive Coordinator said his starters for Thursday night will be senior Logan Joyce and junior Tommy Eichenberg on the outside, and senior Andrew Keirn in the middle.

The Quarterbacks, a position of excellence at Cleveland's Jesuit Preparatory School: Saint Ignatius' veteran Offensive Coordinator Nick Restifo, who has produced the most All-Ohio signal-callers in Northeast Ohio, is blessed with two savvy and skilled senior field generals in Kyle Hall and Danny Alexander.

Coach Terry Fergus' ('72) ground control: Senior tailback Mark Bobinski, one of the premier running backs in all of Ohio, will look to equal or better his efforts of last season when he rushed for 1,159 yards and 20 touchdowns, returned a punt for a touchdown and hauled in a TD pass. Mark finished with 1,602 all-purpose yards in 2016.

Coach Fergus has developed a deep and multi-skilled group of runners that includes seniors Aidan Gill and Matt Viancourt, or "The Big Backs," "The Men," if you will; senior Drew Phillips Jr.; juniors Jahadge "Bo" Floyd and Jack Kennedy, and promising sophomores Najee Lockett, Jack Welch and James Crosby.

Coach Jack Hyland's ('14) sure hands club: Coach Hyland has done an outstanding job in his first season with the Wildcats' receivers, a group that is led by seniors Michael Drobnick, Sammy Snyder, Max Pike and Connor Kennedy. Also making major contributions to this deep and talent-rich position are juniors Luke Cooper, Nigel Drummond II and John Wetula, and junior tight ends John Cannon, Owen Murphy and Tommy Eichenberg. Among the young pass catchers who will double with the Junior Varsity are sophomore tight end Sam Daugstrup and sophomore Connor Cmiel.

Getting Their Kicks: Saint Ignatius features one of the most talented and consistent kickers/punters in Ohio, senior Matthew Trickett. Matt came up with a career-best, 52-yard field goal in last weekend's Jamboree at Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium. Backing up Matt are senior Drew Alessandro, one of the team's tireless workers, and junior Patrick Otter.

THE AIR WAVES: Bringing you Thursday night's game live from Dowd Field will be the SIBN's gifted tandem of senior Matt MacKenzie and junior Zack Strom.

A CORNER'S VIEW: This old gridiron grinder will be on hand at Dowd Field Thursday night and will post a story that you can enjoy with your Friday morning coffee. See you at the home of the Knights.

Safety Matt Viancourt will play an important role in the Wildcats' secondary.

#58MILESTOCANTON

On September 17, 1920, seven men, including the legendary Jim Thorpe met in Canton, Ohio to form the American Professional Football Association (APFA), a precursor to today's National Football League.

An early hotbed of football, Canton was selected as the site of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, which opened its doors on September 7, 1963.

Before the Hall of Fame came into existence, Fawcett Stadium was erected in 1938. The facility housed the successful McKinley Bulldogs.

After the Hall of Fame was built in Fawcett's backyard, the stadium hosted the Hall of Fame Game beginning in 1962. The first two Hall of Fame enshrinements took place in Fawcett Stadium, too.

For a period of time in the 1990's and 2000's, Fawcett Stadium hosted the OHSA's Division I State Championship games. Saint Ignatius football fans became well-acquainted during this time, as the Wildcats played six state title games at Fawcett Stadium.

The Wildcats' third state title in 1991 was played at Fawcett, as the Football Cats defeated Centerville, 24-21. The Wildcats also won titles in 1992, 1999, 2001, 2008, and 2011 in front of adoring Wildcats fans in the historical stadium.

During years in which the Wildcats played at Fawcett, the football program adopted the phrase 58 Miles to Fawcett. The team's 2017 hashtag plays off that theme.

The stadium was renamed Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium after its most recent renovation, completed in August 2017. So, the Wildcats retired the phrase 58 Miles to Fawcett.

With the return of the OHSA State Championship to Canton, the theme #58MilesToCanton has been adopted. The theme will be used on social media, apparel, and other items. After falling short of a state title in 2016, the Wildcats will look to return to Canton in 2017 and claim the program's state record 12th state title.
