RHSAA
SPORTSMANSHIP
FOR High Schools
Regina High Schools
Athletic Association

SportSpeak Up

Athletic Sportsmanship Standards for Participants who do not abide:

Coach and Fans

Participants, coaches, athletes, officials, and fans deserve the respect of all.

Officials deserve the respect of all.

Officials of their respective official's associations are entitled to RSHSAA contests. Officials active in RSHSAA contests contribute by ensuring fair play.

Officials make a positive contribution by ensuring fair play.

Athletes compete to play the game. Officials are essential for any game. Enforcing the Rules.

Athletes

Respect the contributions of others.

Officials and their interpretation of the rules.

Respect the judgment of game officials.

Institute participation in proper attire.

Set a good example for participants.

Why Coaches can do:

Words and action

Coach's words and action reflect the principles through support of the values of sportsmanship. In order for sportsmanship to become a reality, it is essential that the coach's body and the community are able to mirror the behavior of the players. The coach is the leader of the athletics and the coach bears enormous responsibility.

Coaches