Pacific Lutheran vs College of Idaho Homecoming

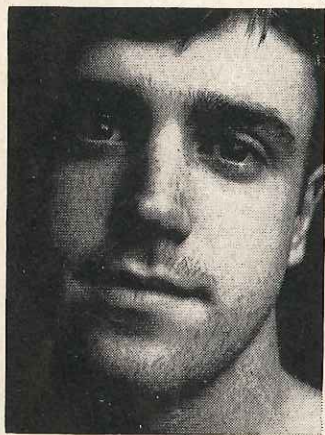

FRANKLIN PIERCE STADIUM
SATURDAY, NOV. 15 1969 2 P.M.

Break your beard in right.

Right now your beard is in the formative stage.

You can shave it with a razor blade like your father does. And each time you do your beard will grow back a little more difficult. Until one day shaving's no longer a chore. It's an agony.

Look no further than your father's face for proof.

But fortunately, you're catching your beard at an early age. You can break it in to be just as shaveable 10 and 20 years from now as it is today.

With a REMINGTON® Lektro Blade shaver.

And if you think the kind of shave we're selling won't be close enough for you, you're wrong.

Our new Lektro Blade shaver has very sharp disposable blades. Just like a razor. So it gives very close shaves. Just like a razor.

What's more, you can dial a Lektro Blade shaver into a sideburn trimmer.

Admittedly, it costs more to buy our electric shaver than a razor and some blades.

But it's a good investment.

These next few years will determine how you and your beard will get along for the rest of your lives.† SPERRY RAND®

DOUG JANSEN, Senior Defensive Halfback No. 33

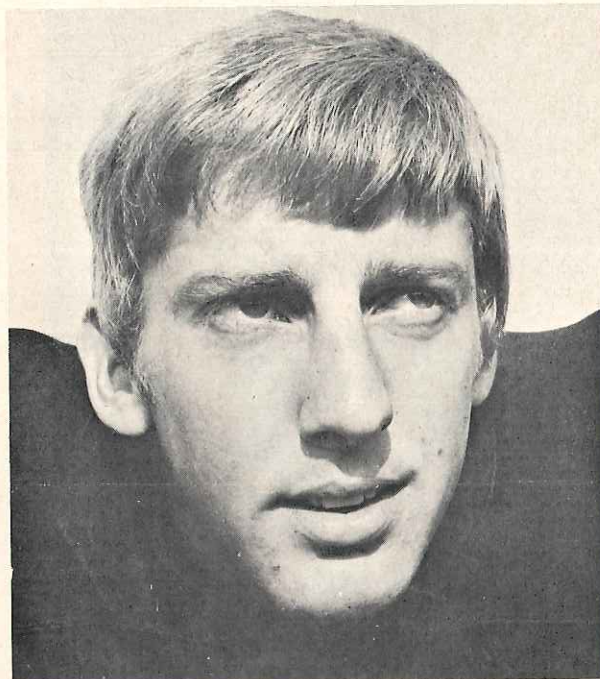

by Rick Johnson

One of the fastest and most versatile members of PLU's football team is defensive halfback Doug Jansen, a four-year letterman.

A high school star at Sumner, Doug came to PLU as an offensive end and defensive back. He settled at the defensive halfback slot his freshman year and has been there ever since, but in addition has filled in at times as a split end and flanker.

During his four year career he has intercepted 16 enemy passes for a team that has snared 82 interceptions over the past four years, and has continually been high in team defensive statistics. He has started every game during his four years at PLU.

This year opposing teams have shunned the left side of the field, which has been manned by three four year lettermen including Jansen. Neil Bryant is at defensive end and Skip Miller plays corner line-backer, and the three have made yardage tough for opponents all season.

Jansen has fine speed, good hands and is a strong open field tackler. He earned All-Northwest Conference honorable mention last year and was named to the District I NAIA second team.

Married last summer, Doug makes his home in Puyallup. Upon graduation he plans to teach and coach at the high school level.

RICK JOHNSON NO. 85

Lute All-America Candidates Anchor Offense and Defense

Two PLU seniors often mentioned as possible 1969 NAIA All-American candidates this season will be anchoring the Lute Offensive and defensive squads in PLU's grid finale this afternoon against College of Idaho.

Rick Johnson, 265-pound offensive tackle and an honorable mention All American last year, has been one of the prime reasons for the Lutes' record breaking offensive show this year. On defense, 180-pound safety Tim Chandler has led the Lutes all season in tackles, assists and interceptions.

Johnson has been plagued by injuries most of the season, but has seen yeoman's action in every game to date. The Lutes need only 210 yards total offense Saturday to reach the 3,000 yard mark, 500 yards more than the former school record, and much of the credit must go to the ferocious blocking of Johnson and the veteran offensive line.

PLU also set a school rushing record Saturday and lead the conference in that category for the second consecutive year.

Rick, a commercial fisherman during the off-season, is completing his third year of varsity football. He came out of nowhere last year to earn selection on all regional post season teams and mention on the All-American lists.

Chandler's inspired defensive play helped keep the Lutes at the top of the NWC defensive lists much of the season. Beginning with the fourth game of the 1968 season, Chandler grabbed 13 interceptions in 12 ball games, with one stretch of nine games in which he pilfered at least one pass. At present he is tied for the conference interception lead with seven.

In addition to his work in the secondary, he has consistently moved into the line to help stop the running game, recording 53 tackles in the process. He and teammate Jack Irion lead the Lutes with 107 and 109 defensive points respectively.

Chandler also came out of nowhere, turning out for collegiate football for the first time last season. He had originally intended to play basketball at PLU, but was convinced in his junior year that he had the ability to make the Lute football squad.

Johnson hails from Gig Harbor, while Chandler comes from Greeley, Colo.
