

Extemporaneous Speaking Subject Areas

In accordance with the rules for the extemporaneous speaking event, the MSHSL lists the following subject areas:

UNITED STATES

1. The Current U.S. Administration
2. The American Political Scene
3. Domestic Issues --
 - a. Social Security
 - b. Taxation Issue & Policies
 - c. U.S. Supreme Court
 - d. Crime and Law Enforcement
 - e. Civil, Legal and Human Rights
 - f. Labor-Management Relations
4. U.S. Agricultural Issues & Policies
5. U.S. Economic Issues & Policies
6. U.S. Environmental Issues & Policies
7. U.S. Energy Issues & Policies
8. U.S. Population Issues & Policies
9. U.S. Space Exploration Issues & Policies
10. U.S. Educational Issues & Policies
11. U.S. Health Issues & Policies
12. U.S. Science & Technology Issues & Policies
13. Famous U.S. People in the News

INTERNATIONAL

1. The Current U.S. Administration's Foreign Policy
2. The United Nations
3. Major International Crises
4. World Food & Hunger Issues
5. World Economic Issues & Policies
6. World Population Issues
7. International Space Exploration
8. Nuclear Weapons Issues & Policies
9. International Leaders & Famous Personalities
10. World Drug Issues & Policies
11. Global Environmental Issues & Policies
12. Global Energy Issues & Policies
13. International Military Alliances
14. International Trade Issues & Policies
15. International Economic Assistance Issues & Policies
16. Major Issues & Policies in Countries of the World
17. World Science & Technology Issues & Policies

Speech Coaches who would like to recommend or submit topics for extemporaneous speaking should submit them to:

Bob Ihrig
320 Ridgewood Street
Mankato, MN 56001
Home: 507-388-1953
Cell: 612-437-1114
robert.ihrig1@gmail.com