Conference games still tied after a five-minute 5-on-5 overtime advance to a five-minute 3-on-3 overtime (and sudden victory shootout if still tied) with the team that wins the second overtime/shootout receiving an extra point in the standings (3/SW in the standings), making all games worth three points. The 3-on-3 overtime and shootouts only affect conference standings while the game is officially a tie for NCAA purposes.

NCHC FACTS AND FIGURES

- Coming off the break, all eight NCHC teams are in action with six facing non-conference foes and two (Miami and North Dakota) playing exhibition games. Three of the non-conference series this weekend are against ECAC Hockey foes, with NCHC teams going a combined 5-5-2 against ECAC teams so far this season. Overall, NCHC teams are a combined 39-17-11 in non-conference play this season, with the .664 win percentage second among the six conferences behind only the Big Ten at .697 (page 9)

- Seven NCHC skaters are taking part in the 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship from Dec. 26-Jan. 5 in Buffalo, N.Y., including six on Team USA: Minnesota Duluth sophomore forwards Joey Anderson, who is serving as captain, and Riley Tufte, UMD freshman defenseman Mike Anderson, Scott Perunovich and Dylan Samberg, and St. Cloud State sophomore forward Ryan Poehling. SCSU freshman goalie Dávid Hrenák is representing his native Slovakia. Team USA is coached for a second straight year by SCSU head coach Bob Motzko.

- According to the KRACH on USCHO.com, NCHC teams have played seven of the eight toughest schedules in the country. Minnesota has faced the toughest, but Denver, St. Cloud State and Omaha are second through fourth, respectively, while NCHC teams are also in spots five through eight. Colorado College has played the "weakest" schedule among NCHC teams, which is still 16th nationally, according to the KRACH Ratings.

- With conference play complete until January, previous history says a look at the current standings can be indicative of the final results. In the NCHC's first four seasons, the Penrose Cup champion was already in first place as of Jan. 1 two times (SCSU in 2013-14 and North Dakota in 2015-16). Last season on Jan. 1, Penrose Cup champion Denver was in second place, only one point out of first, while in 2014-15, eventual champion UND sat in fourth place on Jan. 1, but only two points back of first place.

- North Dakota earned two points in its last series Dec. 8-9 at St. Cloud State, both coming Dec. 8 in a 2-2 overtime tie and shootout win, as the Fighting Hawks fell on Dec. 9, 3-1. UND has now played in both of the only two NCHC games to go to a shootout this season, winning them both, with junior defenseman Christian Wolanin scoring the shootout-winning goal both times.
- Sophomore forward Cole Smith scored a goal in both games at SCSU and now has a goal in three straight games after notching one goal in his first 15 games this season. His four tallies this year already top his total from last year when he had three goals in 29 games as a rookie.
- North Dakota ranks seventh nationally, allowing only 2.20 goals per game this season. The Fighting Hawks rank sixth in the country on the penalty kill, killing 87.1 percent of their opponents' power plays (74/85) after going 7-for-8 at St. Cloud State on the penalty kill.

It was the first hat trick by a Maverick in the two-and-a-half year history of Omaha's Baxter Arena and it was UNO's first hat trick since Dec. 3, 2016 when Austin Ortega had three at Wisconsin. Jordan, who scored only one goal in 23 games as a freshman last year, has six goals in his last six games and eight goals on the season.

Helsinki, Finland

Borgström logged a point in all six games he played in November, including three games with at least three points. The Florida Panthers draft pick led all NCHC skaters and tied for the NCAA lead with 14 points in November, while his 1.33 goals per game and 2.33 points per game during the month were both best in the nation. Borgström scored eight goals in his six games, which tied for the NCHC lead and tied for third nationally in November. He also chipped in six assists, or one per game.

Borgström opened November with a five-point weekend in a pair of losses at WMU Nov. 3-4. In the series opener, he tallied a career-high four points, including his first career hat trick, and posted a +3, while earning the game's Third Star. The next night he added another goal. The following weekend, Nov. 10-11, Borgström compiled four points in a sweep of St. Cloud State. In the opener on Nov. 10, the Finn scored two goals to book-end the 4-2 victory, while assisting on the game-winning goal as well, and had an assist the next night.

Borgström rounded out November with another five-point weekend in a split with UND Nov. 17-18. After an assist Friday, he matched his career high with four points, having a hand in each goal in Saturday's 4-1 victory, scoring two and adding two assists, including on the game-winner. He was named First Star of the Game and earned NCHC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts. During the month, Borgström fired 27 shots on goal (4.50 per game) and was a +3.

Rookie of the Month

SCOTT PERUNOVICH
Minnesota Duluth
Freshman
Defenseman
Hibbing, Minn.

Perunovich paced the Bulldogs with six points in seven games in November, as UMD went 3-4-0 during the month. His six points ranked second among NCHC rookies during the month, scoring a goal and adding five assists, while he posted a +3 plus-minus and blocked 10 shots in November, both of which also ranked second among NCHC freshmen. The draft-eligible free agent notched a point in five of his seven outings, with one multi-point game, as his only scoreless contests came when UMD was shut out.

Perunovich opened his November with an assist in a loss at St. Cloud State Nov. 3. The following weekend the former Cedar Rapids Roughrider handed out another helper in UMD's series-opening shutout win over Western Michigan Nov. 10, when he was +2.

Perunovich tallied three points in a split at Miami Nov. 17-18 and was +2 each night to earn NCHC Defenseman of the Week accolades. In Friday's 3-1 win, he set up UMD's first goal and capped the win with his second career goal to earn Second Star of the Game. The following night he added an assist in a 3-2 defeat. Perunovich then capped November with another assist on UMD's third goal in a 3-1 win over then-No. 8 Minnesota State on Nov. 25 to stretch his point streak to three games, while again logging a +2 plus-minus. The Hibbing, Minn. native fired six shots on goal during the month, as well.

- Five NCHC teams are ranked in the USCHO.com Poll, tying the Big Ten for the most from one conference, while all eight NCHC teams are receiving votes and would be ranked in the top 25. NCHC teams own the top two spots in the USCHO.com Poll for the eighth straight week, with St. Cloud State at No. 1. With SCSU in the top spot, the NCHC has now held the No. 1 ranking in the USCHO Poll 35 of the last 37 weeks, with half of the NCHC teams earning the No. 1 spot during that span (SCSU, DU, UND and UMD). Since the USCHO Poll on Nov. 17, 2014, the NCHC has had a team ranked in the top two 93 times. Hockey East is second during that span with only 28 top-two appearances. SCSU is also now No. 1 in the USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine Poll. In the Pairwise Ratings, all eight NCHC teams sit in the top 20. (page 9)
- Western Michigan sophomore forward Wade Allison is one of only two players in the NCAA with multiple hat tricks this year.

JULIE & SPENCER PENROSE MEMORIAL CUP

Awarded to the NCHC regular season champion, the Julie and Spencer Penrose Memorial Cup (right) serves as the league's crowning achievement. The Cup is named after Julie and Spencer Penrose, who were tremendously successful in the business world and did much of it in Colorado Springs in the early 1900s. The couple made much of their money in the copper industry, which is why the trophy includes copper stars on it. The Penroses also set up the El Pomar Foundation, which still today helps pay for amateur sports and other non-profits, including the NCHC office located in the Copper Building next to the Penrose House on the grounds of the Penrose compound in Colorado Springs. The El Pomar Foundation has also issued grants for the Penrose Cup, medallions for each individual champion and the NCHC's annual Post-Graduate Scholarship. Denver won its first Penrose Cup last season, while North Dakota won back-to-back Penrose Cups in 2015 and 2016 after St. Cloud State won the inaugural season.

NCHC TOURNAMENT/FROZEN FACEOFF

The NCHC Tournament will consist of four quarterfinal series on the first weekend following regular-season play (March 9-11, 2018). The four higher seeds will host the four lower seeds in a best two-out-of-three format. Seed #1 will host Seed #8, Seed #2 will host Seed #7, Seed #3 will host Seed #6, and Seed #4 will host Seed #5. The winners of the four quarterfinal series will advance to the NCHC Frozen Faceoff at Xcel Energy Center in Saint Paul, Minn. for the two semifinal games on Friday, March 16. Semifinal games will be reseeded based on the final regular-season standings. FRIDAY, DEC. 15

In the lone National Collegiate Hockey Conference (NCHC) game, and only non-conference game in the NCAA Friday, No. 2/2 Denver downed Dartmouth, 1-0, at Magness Arena behind senior goalie Tanner Jaillet's shutout in the series opener. Jaillet stopped all 23 shots he faced for his second shutout of the season and sixth of his career. After both teams had power play chances go empty in the first period, the Pioneers (10-3-4) took advantage in the second stanza when freshman forward Jaakko Heikkinen buried the puck in the back of the net on the man advantage with four minutes to play in the middle period. Junior forward Colin Staub and freshman forward Kohen Olischefski set up the tally with tic-tac-toe passing. DU controlled much of the play in the final frame, but neither team was able to score again as the Pioneers held on for the victory. Denver outshot Dartmouth (2-8-1), 32-23, and went 1-for-5 on the power play, compared to 0-for-3 for the Big Green. Devin Buffalo made 31 saves in net for Dartmouth.

SATURDAY, DEC. 16

For the second straight night, a National Collegiate Hockey Conference (NCHC) team recorded a shutout, but NCHC teams went just 1-1 Saturday night in non-conference action. Colorado College earned the victory, as sophomore goaltender Alex Leclerc logged his second shutout of the season to backstop CC to a 4-0 win over Arizona State in the teams' first-ever meeting. Up the road at Magness Arena, second-ranked Denver jumped out to a 3-0 first-period lead, but Dartmouth rattled off five straight goals to upset the Pioneers, 5-4, as the teams split their weekend series.

Behind a big first period and a shutout from sophomore goaltender Alex Leclerc, Colorado College downed Arizona State, 4-0, Saturday evening at the Broadmoor World Arena in the first-ever meeting between the non-conference foes. After a scoreless first 10 minutes, the Tigers (8-7-2) pounced with two goals in a span of 17 seconds midway through the first frame. Junior forward Westin Michaud scored the first of his two goals in the game, finishing a one-timer to open the scoring, while sophomore forward Nick Halloran doubled the CC lead ticks later when he potted his eighth goal of the season. Freshman forward Christiano Versich made it 3-0 with 4:07 left in the opening period, finishing a spinning pass from junior forward Trevor Gooch on the power play, while Versich also handed out a pair of assists for a career-high three-point night and his first collegiate multi-point game. Michaud then capped the scoring with his second tally of the night early in the second stanza, wringing home a feed from Gooch, who had a two-assist game. Leclerc totaled 36 saves to earn his second shutout of the season and fourth of his career, as the Tigers outshot the Sun Devils (4-10-3), 43-36, in the win. CC went 1-for-5 on the power play and killed both ASU man advantages.

Following a narrow, 1-0, victory on Friday, No. 2/2 Denver came out firing on Saturday, grabbing a 3-0 lead after 20 minutes, but Dartmouth stormed back with three in the second and pulled off a 5-4 upset over the Pioneers at Magness Arena to earn a series split. Freshman forward Kohen Olischefski scored the first two goals of his collegiate career as part of the three-goal first frame for the Pioneers (10-4-4), two of which came on the power play with one of them from junior forward Troy Terry. The Big Green (3-8-1) came out strong in the second stanza, as Cam Strong got Dartmouth on the board early, while a little more than a minute later Will Graber made it a one-goal game. Late in the middle period, Shane Sellar scored the first of his two goals to tie the game. With only 1:37 remaining in regulation, Collin Rutherford beat senior goalie Tanner Jaillet to give the Big Green the lead and Sellar tacked on an empty-netter to seal the win, which turned out to be the game-winner after freshman forward Jack Doremus notched his first career goal for DU in the waning seconds. Despite the loss, Denver outshot Dartmouth, 42-28, but Devin Buffalo made 38 saves to earn the win in net. The Pioneers are now off until Dec. 29 when they host Merrimack and Dec. 30 when they welcome Air Force.

SUNDAY, DEC. 17

In the only National Collegiate Hockey Conference (NCHC) game Sunday and the final NCAA game in the unofficial first half of the season, Colorado College battled Arizona State to a 4-4 overtime tie at the Broadmoor World Arena in their series finale. With the result, the NCHC heads into the holiday break with a combined non-conference record of 39-17-11, with the .664 non-conference winning percentage second among the six Division I men's conferences (Big Ten at .697).

After earning a 4-0 shutout over Arizona State on Saturday night, Colorado College found the Sun Devils a bit more devilish on Sunday, settling for a 4-4 overtime tie in the series finale at the Broadmoor World Arena. ASU (4-10-4) jumped out to a 2-0 lead midway through the first frame, but the Tigers (8-7-3) roared back with three goals in the final five minutes of the opening period, including two on the power play. Sophomore forward Nick Halloran scored for the second time this weekend to put CC on the board on the power play, while junior forward Trevor Gooch then tacked on two goals for his first career multi-goal game, the second of which also came on the man advantage and put the Tigers in front, 3-2. Junior co-captain Tanner Ockey made it 4-2 Colorado College early in the second stanza, but the Sun Devils struck twice in a span of 32 seconds midway through the middle period to even the game, with the game-tying goal coming short-handed by Anthony Croston, who had a two-point night. Neither team managed to find the net in the third period or overtime as the game ended a 4-4 draw. Freshman forward Christiano Versich handed out two assists in the tie and also scored in the exhibition shootout following overtime. ASU finished with a slight, 39-36 edge in shots on goal, after outshooting CC, 5-0, in the 5-on-5 overtime. The Tigers went 2-for-7 on the power play and 5-for-5 on the penalty kill, while sophomore goalie Alex Leclerc made 35 saves in net for Colorado College. CC returns to action Dec. 29 at crosstown rival Air Force, before hosting Merrimack Dec. 30.
