2018 INTERNATIONAL ICE HOCKEY FEDERATION WORLD JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP | BUFFALO, NEW YORK

SEMIFINAL GAME • USA (3-1-0-1) VS. SWEDEN (4-1-0-0) • BUFFALO, NEW YORK • KEYBANK CENTER (CAPACITY: 19,070) • JANUARY 4, 2018

TODAY'S GAME

The U.S. National Junior Team faces Sweden today in the semifinal round of the 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship. Puck drop is set for 4 p.m. ET live on NHL Network.

The U.S. is 14-1-0-15-2 (W-OTW-OTL-L-T) all-time against Sweden. In eight playoff round meetings, the U.S. holds a 7-1 record. Over the last 10 U.S.-Sweden meetings, Team USA is 9-1 with its only loss being a 1-0 preliminary round setback in 2016. Those nine wins include four medal games (gold - 2013; bronze - 2007, 2011, 2016).

The two teams last met in 2016, where the Swedes claimed a 1-0 preliminary round win before the U.S. won a rematch in the bronze medal game, 8-3. Anders Bjork, Ryan Donato and Matthew Tkachuk each scored twice and Alex Nedeljkovic stopped 35 shots in the win.

TALKING POINTS

TEAM USA IN SEMIFINAL PLAY

All-time, Team USA holds a 4-1-1-7 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record and has been outscored, 31-40, in 13 semifinal appearances. Last year, Team USA topped Russia, 4-3, in a shootout victory.

BILLS-INSPIRED JERSEYS RETURN

Team USA will wear its special Bills-themed jersey for today's game. The jersey was originally worn for the first-ever outdoor game in a World Junior Championship played on Dec. 29 at New Era Field. The U.S. beat Canada in that contest, 4-3, in a shootout before a record crowd of 44,592.

"With our team advancing to the semifinals and the Bills making the playoffs for the first time since 1999, we thought it would be great to wear those jerseys again tonight," said Jim Johansson, general manager of Team USA. "Our guys really like the jersey and have had some fun with the connectivity to the Bills by playing at New Era Field and seeing the success they've had."

Former Buffalo Bills great Thurman Thomas will drop the puck for a ceremonial opening faceoff. Thomas, the hall of fame running back, was a mainstay with the Bills from 1988 to 2000 and helped the franchise to four consecutive Super Bowl appearances.

TOURNAMENT LEADERS

Entering today's semifinal games, five U.S. players sit in the top five of several statistical categories.

Casey Mittelstadt (Eden Prairie, Minn./University of Minnesota) leads the tournament in points with 10 while being tied for first in assists (6) and tied for fifth in goals (4). Kieffer Bellows (Edina, Minn./Portland Winterhawks) leads the tournament in goals with six while Brady Tkachuk (St. Louis, Mo./Boston University) is fourth in points (7) and tied for fifth in assists (5).

Among defensemen, Adam Fox (Jericho, N.Y./Harvard University) ranks fourth in points with five (1-4) and is tied for third in assists with four while Joseph Woll (St. Louis, Mo./Boston College) ranks third among starting goaltenders in goals against average (2.26) and is fifth in save percentage (.905).

As a team, the U.S. is the most disciplined remaining team with only 15 penalties taken. Team USA is second in goals for (20); third in power play efficiency (30.43%) and goals against average (2.37); and fifth in penalty kill (80%) and save percentage (.897).

WELL WISHES FOR TEAM USA

Team USA has received well-wishes from several notable individuals, including current Buffalo Sabres head coach and 2013 gold medal-winning U.S. National Junior Team head coach Phil Housley, and PGA Tour Commissioner Jay Monahan, who grew up playing hockey with USA Hockey executive director Pat Kelleher and played hockey at Trinity College where he was an Academic All-American as a senior.

Additionally, the U.S. received good luck wishes from Lou Vairo, USA Hockey's director of special projects for USA Hockey since 1992, who is here in Buffalo. Vairo's coaching resume includes serving on the staff for two U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Teams (2002, 1984) along with four U.S. Men's National Teams (1983, 2000-03) and five U.S. National Junior Teams (1979-82, 2003). An assistant coach for Herb Brooks at the 2002 Olympic Winter Games, Vairo coached Brady Tkachuk's father, Keith, at those Games in addition to coaching U.S. head coach Bob Motzko during Motzko's high school days in Austin, Minnesota.

THINGS WORTH MENTIONING

At the 2011 IIHF World Junior Championship in Buffalo, the U.S. beat Sweden, 4-2, to win the bronze medal ... Casey Mittelstadt (4-6-10) and Brady Tkachuk (2-5-7) have tallied at least one point in every U.S. game ... Yesterday (Jan. 3) was Ryan Poehling's 19th birthday ... On Jan. 2, the NHL named Brock Boeser (2016 - bronze) the NHL's rookie of the month. For more, see page 8 ... Today Taylor Heise was named captain of the 2018 U.S. Under-18 Women's National Team with Gracie Ostertag, Dominique Petrie and Madeline Wethington tabbed alternate captains. The team opens the 2018 IIHF Under-18 Women's World Championship this Saturday (Jan. 6) against Sweden ... On Jan. 1, USA Hockey announced its rosters for the 2018 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team and Women's Ice Hockey Teams and 2018 U.S. Paralympic Sled Hockey Team.

2018 U.S. NATIONAL JUNIOR TEAM STAFF

JIM JOHANNSSON, GENERAL MANAGER • 9th Consecutive U.S. National Junior Team • Gold (2004, 2010, 2013, 2017)
Jim Johannsson, assistant executive director of hockey operations for USA Hockey, is serving as the general manager of the U.S. National Junior Team for the ninth consecutive year. Johannsson, who is also fulfilling the same role for the 2018 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team, a year ago guided Team USA to its fourth-ever gold medal at the World Junior Championship with a thrilling 5-4 shootout victory over Canada at the 2017 event in Montreal and Toronto, Canada. Under Johannsson's guidance, the U.S. has captured five other medals in tournament play, including a pair of gold medal finishes at the 2013 and the 2010 events. He also led the U.S. to bronze medals 2016, 2011 and 2007. A two-time U.S. Olympian (1988, 1992), Johannsson has served on the staff of 17 U.S. National Junior Teams and was the team leader for the first-ever gold medal-winning U.S. National Junior Team at the 2004 event.

BOB MOTZKO, HEAD COACH • Head Coach Second Straight Year • Gold (2017) In International Head Coaching Debut
Bob Motzko, who guided the U.S. National Junior Team to its fourth-ever gold medal at the 2017 IIHF World Junior Championship, is serving as head coach for the 2018 U.S. National Junior Team. He also served as an assistant coach for the 2014 U.S. National Junior Team that finished fifth in 2014. Entering his 13th season at the helm of St. Cloud State University's men's ice hockey team, the 2014 NCHC Coach of the Year and two-time WCHA Coach of the Year (2007, 2006) has guided his alma mater to seven 20 or more win seasons; seven NCAA tournament appearances; one NCAA Frozen Four appearance; two regular-season conference titles (one each: WCHA, NCHC); and one NCHC Frozen Faceoff Championship. Prior to his time at St. Cloud, Motzko served in multiple coaching capacities at four different schools, including a four-season span at the University of Minnesota (2001-05) that was highlighted by back-to-back NCAA national titles in 2002 and 2003.

GREG BROWN, ASSISTANT COACH • Assistant (2017, gold; 2014, fifth) • 2x U.S. Olympian
Greg Brown, a two-time U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team member, is making his third appearance as an assistant coach on a U.S. National Junior Team. Last year, he was part of the U.S. staff that orchestrated a gold medal after also serving as an assistant coach on the U.S. National Junior Team that finished fifth at the 2014 event in Malmo, Sweden. Brown is in his 14th season at his alma mater, Boston College, and has helped the program claim 10 overall five Hockey East Conference and three NCAA titles (2008, 2010 and 2012). Additionally, Brown represented the United States at both the 1988 Olympic Winter Games in Calgary, Alberta, and the 1992 Olympic Winter Games in Albertville, France.

GRANT POTULNY, ASSISTANT COACH • Assistant (2013, gold; 2017, gold) • 2x NCAA Champ
Grant Potulny is serving on the staff of his third U.S. National Junior Team and seeking his third gold medal after helping Team USA claim one last year as well as at the 2013 event in Ufa, Russia. Potulny is in his first season as head coach of Northern Michigan University. He spent the past eight seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Minnesota, where he helped the Golden Gophers capture six regular-season conference titles and appear in one NCAA national championship game. As a player, Potulny captained the Gophers for three seasons and helped the team claim two national championships (2002, 2003).

KRIS MAYOTTE, ASSISTANT COACH • Assistant (2017, gold) • NCAA Champ (2015)
Kris Mayotte returns as an assistant coach for the second time after helping the U.S. National Junior Team claim the gold medal a year ago at the 2017 IIHF World Junior Championship in Montreal and Toronto, Canada. Mayotte is in his fourth season as an assistant coach at Providence College where he works with the goaltenders and penalty kill unit. He saw his first season with the Friars culminate in the program's first-ever NCAA national championship (2015). Under his guidance, Friar goaltenders and penalty kill units have ranked among the nation's best each of the last two seasons. Last season, the Friars finished ninth in the nation for fewest goals allowed while its penalty kill unit ranked 11th.

STEVE MILLER, ASSISTANT COACH • Assistant (2017, gold) • 3x NCAA Champ
Steve Miller returns as an assistant coach for the second time after helping Team USA claim the gold medal a year ago at the 2017 IIHF World Junior Championship in Montreal and Toronto, Canada. Miller is in his first season as an associate head coach for Ohio State University after spending the last two seasons (2015-17) as the director of hockey at Air Force Academy. His time in the collegiate ranks includes one season with Providence (2014-15) and 20 seasons at the University of Denver, where he helped the Pioneers claim seven WCHA conference titles and back-to-back NCAA National Championships (2004, 2005).

2018 U.S. NATIONAL JUNIOR TEAM GAME NOTES

SEMIFINAL VS. SWEDEN • JANUARY 4, 2018

OTHER TEAM USA TIDBITS

U.S. JUNIOR TEAM ALUMS EARN NHL ROOKIE OF MONTH HONORS

On Jan. 2, the NHL named Brock Boeser (Burnsville, Minn.) the NHL's Rookie of the Month for December. Boeser also earned the honors in November while Clayton Keller (St. Louis, Mo.) took the honor in October. Two years ago, Boeser helped the 2016 U.S. National Junior Team earn a bronze medal while Keller led last year's U.S. team in points (11) and assists (8) en route to winning the gold medal in Montreal.

TKACHUK'S EXCEL AT WORLD JUNIOR STAGE

Four games into this year's IIHF World Junior Championship, Brady Tkachuk (St. Louis, Mo./Boston University) is following in his family's footsteps as far as point getters go, sitting second on Team USA with six points (2-4). Two years ago, his brother Matthew tied for the U.S. team-lead with 11 points (4-7) in seven games while their father, Keith, followed a nine-point performance (6-3) in 1991 with a seven-point effort (3-4) in 1992. Both Matthew and Keith have earned WJC bronze medals.

OLYMPIC MEN'S, WOMEN'S, PARALYMPIC SLED ROSTERS

On January 1, USA Hockey announced the rosters for its 2018 U.S. Olympic Men's and Women's Ice Hockey Teams and 2018 U.S. Paralympic Sled Hockey Team during the second intermission of the NHL Winter Classic at Citi Field in New York City and live on NBC.

"We're excited about all three of our teams and the chance to compete for gold," said Pat Kelleher, executive director of USA Hockey. "There's no bigger stage than the Olympics and Paralympics and I know our teams will represent our country extremely well in PyeongChang."

The first 23 players to its 2018 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team include 15 who currently play professionally in Europe, three that compete in the AHL and four that play collegiately. It was also announced that Brian Gionta (Rochester, N.Y./Boston College), who played for Team USA in the 2006 Olympic Winter Games and has played in 1,006 regular-season NHL games, will serve as team captain of the 2018 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team.

The women's roster features 23 players, including 10 returning Olympians and six two-time Olympians (2010, 2014) in Kacey Bellamy (Westfield, Mass.), captain Meghan Duggan (Danvers, Mass.), Hilary Knight (Sun Valley, Idaho), Jocelyne Lamoureux-Davidson (Grand Forks, N.D.), Monique Lamoureux-Morando (Grand Forks, N.D.) and Gigi Marvin (Warroad, Minn.).

The 17-player sled roster includes 10 players with Paralympic experience, led by captain Josh Pauls (Green Brook, N.J.), alternate captains Declan Farmer (Tampa, Fla.) and Nikko Landeros (Johnstown, Colo.) and goaltender Steve Cash (Overland, Mo.). All four were members of the gold medal-winning 2014 Paralympic Sled Hockey Team.

2018 U.S. U.S. OLYMPIC TEAM HAS JUNIOR TEAM TIES

Among the first 23 players named to the 2018 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team, 11 players have skated on a U.S. National Junior Team. Brian Gionta (Rochester, N.Y.), who was also named captain of Team USA, skated on two U.S. National Junior Teams (1998 - fifth; 1999 - fifth).

In addition, six players helped the U.S. earn a medal in IIHF World Junior Championship play. A year ago, Jordan Greenway (Canton, N.Y.) and Troy Terry (Highlands Ranch, Colo.) helped the 2017 U.S. National Junior Team to a gold medal while Ryan Donato (Scituate, Mass.) and Will Borgen (Moorhead, Minn.) were on the 2016 U.S. National Junior Team that earned a bronze medal. Additionally, James Wisniewski (Canton, Mich.) was part of the first-ever gold medal-winning U.S. National Junior Team in 2004 and Ryan Stoa (Bloomington, Minn.) helped the U.S. earn a bronze medal in 2007.

Other former U.S. National Junior Team players to be on the 2018 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team include Jonathan Blum (Long Beach, Calif./2008, 2009), Chris Bourque (Boston, Mass./2005, 2006), Bobby Sanguinetti (Trenton, N.J./2008) and Jim Slater (Lapeer, Mich./2002).

NOTABLE WATCHING USA-CANADA

GIONTA VISITS TEAM USA

Before its practice on Dec. 30, Team USA received a visit from Brian Gionta (Rochester, N.Y.), who will captain the 2018 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team at the 2018 Olympic Winter Games in PyeongChang, South Korea.

Gionta has represented Team USA at the 2006 Olympic Winter Games in Torino, Italy, the IIHF Men's World Championship (2000, 2001, 2005), the IIHF World Junior Championship (1998, 1999) and also played for the U.S. at the 2004 Deutschland Cup.

A 15-year veteran in the NHL, including stops in New Jersey (2001-2009), Montreal (2009-2014) and Buffalo (2014-2017), Gionta's career has included a Stanley Cup title in New Jersey in 2003 and seven seasons as an NHL captain, including four in Montreal and three with Buffalo.

"You gotta come together as a group as quickly as you can but embrace the opportunity," said Gionta. "These guys have a great opportunity to win gold, they have to seize that. Back-to-back gold for the U.S. at the World Juniors would be an unbelievable thing for USA Hockey and for the nation. For us alums that have been part of this World Juniors, for them to go back to back would be pretty special."

RECORD ATTENDANCE FOR WORLD JUNIOR GAME

The U.S.-Canada outdoor game on Dec. 29 at New Era Field saw a record 44,592 fans in attendance, besting the 20,380 single-game IIHF World Junior Championship attendance record previously set in the gold medal-game of the 2009 IIHF World Junior Championship in Ottawa, Ontario.

NEW ERA FIELD: SITE OF HOCKEY HISTORY

New Era Field is home to the NFL's Buffalo Bills and made hockey history for the second time in a decade with the first-ever outdoor game in IIHF world championship play. On Jan. 1, 2008, what was then known as Ralph Wilson Stadium hosted the first-ever NHL Winter Classic between the Buffalo Sabres and Pittsburgh Penguins in front of a then-record 71,217 spectators.

FROM COLUMBUS TO BUFFALO

The United States began its journey towards the 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship with 28 players convening in Columbus, Ohio, the night of Dec. 14. There, Team USA held five days of practices and meetings at Nationwide Arena and the OhioHealth Ice Haus before moving to Jamestown, New York, for a three-day camp from Dec. 20-22. The time in Jamestown started with a 14-0 pre-tournament victory over Belarus and closed with a 3-1 victory over Sweden in Erie, Pennsylvania.

In total, five players were released, including Cole Huitts (Stoughton, Wis./Penn State Univ.) on Dec. 19; Reilly Walsh (North Falmouth, Mass./Harvard Univ.) on Dec. 21; and Jack Badini (Old Greenwich, Conn./Harvard Univ.), Phil Kemp (Greenwich, Conn./Yale Univ.) and Hugh McGing (Chicago, Ill./Western Michigan Univ.) on Dec. 23.

PRE-TOURNAMENT GAMES: U.S. TOPS BLR (14-0), SWE (3-1)

The U.S. claimed both its pre-tournament games by blanking Belarus, 14-0, at Northwest Arena in Jamestown, New York, on Dec. 20, and edging Sweden, 3-1, at the Erie Insurance Arena in Erie, Pennsylvania, on Dec. 22. In total, 15 players tallied at least one point with Quinn Hughes (1-2--3), Trent Frederic (2-0--2), Casey Mittelstadt (2-3--5) and Kailer Yamamoto (2-0--2) each registering at least one point in both games.

ST. CLOUD'S BOB MOTZKO RETURNS AS U.S. HEAD COACH

Bob Motzko (St. Cloud, Minn.), head coach of St. Cloud State University, is serving as head coach of the U.S. National Junior Team for the second consecutive year. Last year, he guided the U.S. to an undefeated 5-2-0-0 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record that culminated in a thrilling 5-4 overtime shootout gold medal-win over Canada. He is joined behind the bench by assistant coaches Greg Brown (Scituate, Mass./Boston College), Grant Potulny (Grand Forks, N.D./Northern Michigan Univ.), Kris Mayotte (Pittsburgh, Pa./Providence College) and Steve Miller (Littleton, Colo./Ohio State Univ.), all of whom were part of last year's gold medal-winning staff.

TEAM USA STAFF

Jim Johansson is serving as general manager for the U.S. National Junior Team for the ninth consecutive time.

Additional staff members on this year's U.S. National Junior Team include Ryan Martin (Novi, Mich./Detroit Red Wings) and Ben Smith (Gloucester, Mass./USA Hockey) in player evaluation roles along with high performance coach Sean Braziel (Alexandria, Va./USA Hockey) and video coordinator Matt Chapman (Bloomington, Ind./St. Cloud State Univ.). All four were part of last year's championship staff.

Team USA's support staff also includes equipment managers Brock Bradley (Plymouth, Mich./USA Hockey) and Josh Penn (Hadley, Mass./UMass Amherst); athletic trainers Derek Repucci (Rochester, N.H./USA Hockey) and Stan Wong (Boca Raton, Fla./USA Hockey); team physician Dr. Doug Weiss (Dublin, N.H./USA Hockey); and media officer Jon Gomez (Colorado Springs, Colo./USA Hockey).

ANDERSON, BELLOWES, FOX AND LINDGREN TO LEAD TEAM USA

On Dec. 17, coach Motzko named forward Joey Anderson (Roseville, Minn./Univ. of Minnesota Duluth) captain of the 2018 U.S. National Junior Team. In addition, on Dec. 23, Motzko tabbed forward Kieffer Bellows (Edina, Minn./Portland Winterhawks) and defensemen Adam Fox (Jericho, N.Y./Harvard Univ.) and Ryan Lindgren (Minneapolis, Minn./Univ. of Minnesota) alternate captains. All four helped last year's U.S. National Junior Team capture the gold medal in Montreal.

A member of last year's gold medal-winning team, Anderson was an alternate captain for the U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team that claimed a bronze medal at the 2016 International Ice Hockey Federation Under-18 Men's World Championship in Grand Forks, North Dakota. A product of USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, he was drafted in the third round, 73rd overall, by the New Jersey Devils. Watch the announcement on teamusa.usahockey.com/worldjuniors2018.

Anderson is the second player from Roseville, Minnesota, to captain a U.S. National Junior Team. In 1979, Steve Ulseth wore the 'C'. He skated four seasons at the University of Minnesota, winning the 1979 NCAA National Championship and in his senior year was recognized for his outstanding play when he was named the WCHA Most Valuable Player and was selected as a finalist for the 1981 Hobey Baker Award.

2018 WJC: ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship started Dec. 26, 2017 and will culminate on Jan. 5, 2018, at the KeyBank Center in Buffalo, New York.

This is the sixth World Junior Championship to be played in the United States and second time Buffalo is serving as host (2011). Like this year, the 2011 event saw the U.S. enter the tournament as the defending gold medalist. In the end, Russia won gold, Canada earned silver and the U.S. claimed bronze.

The U.S. and Canada made history when the two rivals battled outdoors on Dec. 29, 2017, in a preliminary round game the U.S. won in a shootout, 4-3 in front of a record 44,592 attendance. The outdoor game, one of 31 total in the 2018 tournament, was staged at New Era Field in Orchard Park, New York, home of the NFL's Buffalo Bills. Never before had an outdoor game been played at any top-level IIHF world championship.

SEVEN GOLD MEDAL RETURNEES

Seven players on this year's roster were members of the 2017 U.S. National Junior Team that earned the gold medal at the 2017 IIHF World Junior Championship in Montreal and Toronto, Canada, including forwards Joey Anderson (Roseville, Minn.), Kieffer Bellows (Edina, Minn.), Patrick Harper (New Canaan, Conn.); defensemen Adam Fox (Jericho, N.Y.) and Ryan Lindgren (Minneapolis, Minn.); and goaltenders Jake Oettinger (Lakeville, Minn.) and Joseph Woll (St. Louis, Mo.).

TRIO OF INTERNATIONAL DEBUTS

Three players on this year's U.S. National Junior Team are representing the United States in international play for the first time, including defenseman Dylan Samberg (Hermantown, Minn./University of Minnesota Duluth), goaltender Jeremy Swayman (Anchorage, Alaska/University of Maine) and forward Max Jones (Rochester, Mich./London Knights). In Team USA's 9-0 victory over Denmark, both Samberg and Jones scored, while Swayman was the U.S. backup goaltender in Team USA's 4-3 shootout victory over Canada outdoors at New Era Field.

Additionally, forward Riley Tuft (Ham Lake, Minn./University of Minnesota Duluth) and defensemen Mikey Anderson (Roseville, Minn./University of Minnesota Duluth), Scott Perunovich (Hibbing, Minn./Univ. of Minnesota Duluth) and Andrew Peeke (Parkland, Fla./University of Notre Dame) are representing the U.S. in International Ice Hockey Federation play for the first time after previously skating on U.S. select teams internationally.

RECAP: 2017 IIHF WORLD JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

A year ago, the U.S. went undefeated (5-2-0-0) and came back from two two-goal deficits in the gold medal-game to top Canada, 5-4, in a shootout.

Team USA defeated Latvia (6-1), Slovakia (5-2), Russia (3-2) and Canada (3-1) to go undefeated in preliminary round play. After topping Switzerland (3-2) in the quarterfinals, the U.S. edged Russia (4-3) behind a seven-round shootout that saw Tyler Parsons (Chesterfield, Mich.) turn aside four shooters and Troy Terry (Highlands Ranch, Colo.) score three-straight shootout goals. In the gold medal game, the U.S. came back from two two-goal deficits to force overtime. In the shootout, Terry was the lone scorer and Parsons stopped all five Canadian shooters to secure the win. The tournament marked the first time a team defeated two teams twice en route to a gold medal.

RETURN TO BUFFALO

The 2018 International Ice Hockey Federation World Junior Championship is just the latest major international hockey event to be taking place in Buffalo. Recent events to be held in Buffalo's HarborCenter include the 2016 International Paralympic Committee Pan-Pacific Championship, 2015 IPC Sled Hockey World Championship and 2015 International Ice Hockey Federation Under-18 Women's World Championship, all of which saw the United States win on home ice. In addition, Buffalo has hosted four of the six CCM/USA Hockey All-American Prospects Games (2012, 2014, 2015, 2017).

WORLD JUNIORS SUCCESS FOR TEAM USA

Over the last 10 IIHF World Junior Championships, no country has won more gold medals than Team USA's three (2010, 2013, 2017). In total, the U.S. has claimed five medals, including three gold and two bronze (2011, 2016), which is the best 10-year stretch in World Junior Championship history for the U.S.

In addition, since a quarterfinal loss to Russia at the 2015 event, the U.S. has registered a 10-2-0-2 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record, which is the best U.S. performance over a two-tournament span in World Junior Championship history.

OTHER TEAM USA TIDBITS

INTERNATIONAL SUCCESS FOR USA HOCKEY

The 2016-17 season brought unprecedented international success in ice hockey for the United States, as it became the first nation to ever win gold in the first four International Ice Hockey Federation World Championships in a single season. In all, Team USA claimed top honors at the IIHF World Junior Championship, IIHF Under-18 Women's World Championship, IIHF Women's World Championship and IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship. Additionally, the U.S. National Sled Hockey Team was crowned World Sled Hockey Challenge champions for the third consecutive time and saw its season culminate with a silver medal at the 2017 Para Sled Hockey World Championship.

WORLD JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP FAMILY CONNECTIONS

Two players have a combined six family members who have previously skated in IIHF World Junior Championships.

Forward Josh Norris's father, Dwayne, skated for Canada at the 1990 IIHF World Junior Championship where he scored the winning goal to help Canada beat Czechoslovakia and win the gold medal.

Brady Tkachuk has five relatives who skated for the U.S. in IIHF World Junior Championships, including three who went on to earn medals. His father, Keith, was a member of the bronze medal-winning U.S. National Junior Team at the 1992 event. Brady's brother, Matthew, then went on to earn a bronze medal at the 2016 event. Among his cousins are Tom Fitzgerald, who skated on the 1987 U.S. National Junior Team, as well as Tom's son, Casey, who helped Team USA claim a gold medal at the 2017 tournament last year. In addition, their cousin, Jimmy Hayes, skated on the 2009 team.

SMITH AMONG 2017 U.S. HOCKEY HALL OF FAME CLASS

On Dec. 13, U.S. player personnel staff member Ben Smith and four other American hockey legends including Kevin Collins, Jack Parker, Ron Wilson and Scott Young, were formally enshrined into the United States Hockey Hall of Fame during a sold-out induction ceremony at the Westin Boston Waterfront Hotel.

Several of this year's inductees have significant ties to the U.S. National Junior Team. Smith is currently serving on the U.S. National Junior Team in a player personnel capacity, while also fulfilling the role of Director of Player Personnel for the 2018 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team. In addition, both Parker and Wilson served as head coaches of a U.S. National Junior Team. In 1996, Parker led the U.S. to a fifth-place finish in Boston, Massachusetts, while Wilson guided Team USA to a bronze medal at the 2016 event in Helsinki, Finland. Meanwhile, Young was a three-time member of the U.S. National Junior Team (1985-87) who went on to serve as captain and finish as the team-leader in points (7-4--11) in 1987.

In addition to the induction of the Class of 2017, Peter Lindberg and Dave Ogren both received the National Hockey League's Lester Patrick Trophy, presented for outstanding service to hockey in the United States.

USA HOCKEY'S PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CAMPS

Twenty players have attended at least one USA Hockey Player Development Camp. Held annually every June and July, the camp provides many of the United States' best young players with concentrated on- and off-ice training and coaching, as well as the chance to compete against their peers. Players are selected from a national pool of camps in USA Hockey districts and rosters are formed by camp staff prior to the teams assembling at their respective locations.

Camp Attendees (Camp Age in Parenthesis): Joey Anderson ('15), Mikey Anderson ('15, '16, '17), Kieffer Bellows ('15, '16), Logan Brown ('15), Adam Fox ('15), Trent Frederic ('15), Patrick Harper ('15, '16, '17), Max Jones ('16, '17), Ryan Lindgren ('15), Casey Mittelstadt ('17), Josh Norris ('15), Andrew Peeke ('15, '16, '17), Scott Perunovich ('16, '17), Ryan Poehling ('15, '17), Dylan Samberg ('17), Jeremy Swayman ('15, '16, '17), Brady Tkachuk ('15) Riley Tufte ('15, '16, '17), Joseph Woll ('15) and Kailer Yamamoto ('15, '16, '17).

ANDERSON BROTHERS JOIN FERRARO'S, BROTEN'S

U.S. brothers Joey and Mikey Anderson of Roseville, Minnesota, become just the third brothers to be named to the same U.S. National Junior Team. Fellow Minnesotans Neal and Aaron Broten were the first to accomplish the feat in 1979, just one year before Neal went on to be a part of the 'Miracle on Ice' 1980 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team. The other brothers to skate together were Port Jefferson, New York, natives Peter and Chris Ferraro, who skated together on both the 1992 and 1993 U.S. National Junior Teams. In addition to this year's U.S. National Junior Team, the Anderson brothers are teammates at the University of Minnesota Duluth during the regular season.

CURRENT TEAMMATES

Several members of the U.S. National Junior Team are teammates with their respective teams in the regular season.

Boston University (3): Patrick Harper, Jake Oettinger, Brady Tkachuk
University of Michigan (2): Quinn Hughes, Will Lockwood
University of Minnesota (2): Ryan Lindgren, Casey Mittelstadt
University of Minnesota Duluth (5): Joey Anderson, Mikey Anderson, Scott Perunovich, Dylan Samberg, Riley Tufte

WINNING PEDIGREES ON TEAM USA

In total, 33 players and staff have been on championship-winning teams at the club and international level.

Last year, Logan Brown and the Windsor Spitfires claimed the Memorial Cup on home ice. In 2016-17, Max Jones, along with former U.S. National Junior Team players Matthew Tkachuk (2016, bronze) and Tyler Parsons (2017, gold) helped the London Knights to the OHL's J. Ross Robertson Cup and CHL's Memorial Cup. In 2014-15, Kieffer Bellows led the Sioux Falls Stampede to a USHL Clark Cup championship.

Internationally, 12 different players have helped the U.S. win an international tournament, including 11 who have done so at the International Ice Hockey Federation level. In addition to the seven gold medal-winning returnees, last season saw Quinn Hughes, Josh Norris, Ryan Poehling and Brady Tkachuk lead the U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team to a gold medal at the 2017 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship. Tkachuk served as team captain. In addition, Mikey Anderson was a part of the 2016 U.S. Junior Select Team that won gold at the World Junior A Challenge.

The U.S. coaches and support staff also has an extensive winning pedigree. All four coaches have been part of NCAA championship teams, including head coach Bob Motzko (Minnesota - 2002, 2003), assistant coach Greg Brown (Boston College - 2008, 2010, 2012), Grant Potulny (Minnesota - 2002, 2003), Kris Mayotte (Providence College - 2015) and Steve Miller (Denver - 2004, 2005; Providence College - 2015).

In IIHF play, 14 staff members have won at least one gold medal, including the 12 returning staff members from last year's gold medal-winning team. General Manager Jim Johansson has been a part of all four gold medal-winning U.S. National Junior Teams (2004, 2010, 2013, 2017) along with U.S. athletic trainer Stan Wong. Potulny served as an assistant coach on Team USA's gold medal-winning 2013 U.S. National Junior Team while U.S. equipment manager Brock Bradley. Bradley was with the 2010 U.S. squad that won gold. Bradley has also been a part of five gold medal-winning U.S. Under-18 Men's National Teams (2002, 2006, 2010, 2012, 2014) while Dr. Doug Weiss was also a member of four U.S. teams to claim gold at the IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship (2012, 2014, 2015, 2017).

In addition, two U.S. staff members have been a part of Stanley Cup-winning teams. Ryan Martin, who is serving a player personnel role with the U.S. once again, was a member of the Detroit Red Wings front office when the Red Wings claimed the Stanley Cup in 2008. Three years later, U.S. athletic trainer Derek Repucci was with the Boston Bruins when they captured the Stanley Cup in 2011. Martin has also won two Calder Cup's as general manager of the Grand Rapids Griffins (2013, 2017).

MOTZKO'S ST. CLOUD TIES

U.S. head coach Bob Motzko, who is in his 13th season as head coach of St. Cloud State University's men's ice hockey team, has several ties to players on this year's roster due to his time at his alma mater, St. Cloud.

Currently, forward Ryan Poehling (Lakeville, Minn.) skates for Motzko along with his brothers, twins Nick and Jack, all of whom are sophomores.

Ryan Lindgren's brother, Charlie Lindgren, was a goaltender for Motzko and St. Cloud from 2013-16. During his time at St. Cloud, he helped St. Cloud claim one NCHC regular-season (2013-14) and one NCHC Frozen Faceoff (2015-16) title while also receiving several NCHC honors, including NCHC All-Rookie Team (2014), NCHC First All-Star Team (2016) and NCHC Goaltender of the Year (2016).

In addition, when Motzko was named head coach, he succeeded Craig Dahl, whose nephew, Riley Tufte, is among those fighting for a spot on this year's roster. Motzko and Dahl were assistant coaches at St. Cloud together in 1986-87 for legendary head coach Herb Brooks.

MINNESOTA MEN

In total, 10 players hail from the state of Minnesota, including Joey Anderson (Roseville), Mikey Anderson (Roseville), Kieffer Bellows (Edina), Ryan Lindgren (Minneapolis), Casey Mittelstadt (Eden Prairie), Jake Oettinger (Lakeville), Scott Perunovich (Hibbing), Ryan Poehling (Lakeville), Dylan Samberg (Hermantown) and Riley Tufte (Ham Lake).

In addition to the Anderson brothers, Jake Oettinger and Ryan Poehling grew up playing hockey together. The two went on to become first round NHL Draft picks last June. The Montreal Canadiens selected Poehling 25th overall, just one spot ahead of Oettinger being chosen by the Dallas Stars.

Forward Casey Mittelstadt, currently a freshman at the University of Minnesota, was named Minnesota Mr. Hockey Award winner after captaining Eden Prairie High School and collecting 64 points, including 21 goals and 43 assists, in 25 games.

Defenseman Dylan Samberg was named the 2016-17 Reed Larson Award (Minnesota high school senior defenseman of the year) after captaining Hermantown High School to its second consecutive Minnesota Class A Tournament title last winter. He amassed 11 goals -- including the game-winner in double overtime in the state championship bout against Monticello-Annandale-Maple Lake -- and was a finalist for the Minnesota Mr. Hockey Award which went to Mittelstadt.

Collectively, three universities within Minnesota have players or staff aiming to represent Team USA in Buffalo, including St. Cloud State University (head coach Bob Motzko, video coach Matt Chapman, Ryan Poehling); University of Minnesota (Ryan Lindgren, Casey Mittelstadt); University of Minnesota Duluth (Joey Anderson, Mikey Anderson, Scott Perunovich, Dylan Samberg, Riley Tufte).

In addition, assistant coach Grant Potulny, who is in his first season as head coach of Northern Michigan University, spent eight seasons as an assistant coach for University of Minnesota where he played four seasons, including three as a captain, and won two NCAA National Championships (2002, 2003). Meanwhile, assistant coach Steve Miller is an alumnus of St. Mary's University in Winona, Minnesota, where he played three seasons. He then began his coaching career with his alma mater and in 1989 helped St. Mary's capture the 1989 MIAC playoff championship and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA tournament that same season.

BROWN, MITTELSTADT SHARE SABRES DRAFT CONNECTION

U.S. assistant coach Greg Brown (Scituate, Mass.) and forward Casey Mittelstadt (Eden Prairie, Minn.) both lay claim to being drafted by the Buffalo Sabres.

Brown, was drafted in the second round, 26th overall, by the Buffalo Sabres in the 1986 NHL Draft. After amassing 120 points in 119 games with the Boston College Eagles, Brown made his professional debut in 1990-91 when he split time between the Sabres and its AHL affiliate, the Rochester Americans. In total, he spent three seasons with the Sabres organization, collecting four points (1-3) in 49 games with the Sabres and adding another 90 points (20-70) during his time in Rochester.

This past June, Mittelstadt became the first American taken in the 2017 NHL Draft when the Sabres selected him eighth overall. It was the second time in three NHL Drafts that the Sabres took an American with their first selection. In 2015, the Sabres chose Jack Eichel (North Chelmsford, Mass.), captain of the 2015 U.S. National Junior Team, with the second overall pick.

RECAP: 2017 WORLD JUNIOR SUMMER SHOWCASE

From July 28-Aug. 5, 2017, the 2017 World Junior Summer Showcase took place at USA Hockey Arena in Plymouth, Michigan. The week-long camp included 12 international competitions between Canada, Finland, Sweden and the U.S. in preparation for the 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship.

Twenty-one players on this year's roster participated as all U.S. squads combined for a 7-0-0-2 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record.

"I thought it was great," said Jim Johannson, general manager of the 2018 U.S. National Junior Team. "It was really good hockey throughout the whole week -- it's a real compliment to all four teams. You can't run this event without great competitors, and Canada, Finland and Sweden showed well."

AMERICANS IN RECENT NHL DRAFTS

Over the last three years, a total of 159 American players have heard their name called in the NHL Draft. The total ranks second amongst all nations and accounts for nearly 25% of all draftees.

This past June, 49 American players from 19 different states heard their name called in Chicago at the 2017 NHL Draft. Led by Casey Mittelstadt (Eden Prairie, Minn.), six American first-round selections were made, four in the second round, nine in the third, six in the fourth and fifth, eight in the sixth and 10 in the seventh round.

At the 2016 NHL Draft, 55 American players from 19 different states were selected, including a record 12 American first-round selections. Auston Matthews (Scottsdale, Ariz.), who was chosen first overall by the Toronto Maple Leafs to become the seventh American all-time to be selected first overall, won the Calder Trophy this past season as the NHL's rookie of the year.

In 2015, 55 Americans were chosen from 18 states at the 2015 NHL Draft in Sunrise, Florida. Led by Sabres draft pick Jack Eichel (Second Overall/North Chelmsford, Mass.), the Draft saw 11 first-round American selections and the first time in NHL Draft history that three NCAA players were selected in the top-10 (Eichel, Second Overall, Boston University; Noah Hanifin, Fifth Overall, Boston College; Zach Werenski, Eighth Overall, University of Michigan).

BUFFALO SABRES AND NEW YORK TIES

EMPIRE STATE OF HOCKEY

Of the 260 American players who skated in the NHL during the 2016-17 season, 34 were from New York. That ranked third among all states, trailing Minnesota (44) and Michigan (42).

New York had 50,042 hockey players during the 2016-17 season, which stood as the third-highest in the United States behind Minnesota (57,179) and Michigan (50,106).

The state of New York has produced some of the NHL's top stars, including Buffalo native Patrick Kane (Chicago Blackhawks), a three-time Stanley Cup champion (2010, 2013, 2015) whose personal accolades include the Conn Smythe Trophy (2013) as the most valuable player of the Stanley Cup Playoffs; Hart Memorial Trophy (2015-16) as the NHL's most valuable player; and Art Ross Trophy (2015-16) as the NHL regular-season scoring champion. With a career-high 106 points (46-60) in 2015-16, Kane became the first American-Born player to win either the Art Ross or Hart Memorial trophies.

Other notable NHL players from New York include Ithaca native Dustin Brown (Los Angeles Kings), and Rochester's Brian Gionta (Free Agent) and Ryan Callahan (Tampa Bay Lightning). Brown, a two-time Stanley Cup champion (2012, 2014) as captain of the Los Angeles Kings, was U.S. teammates with Callahan at the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Winter Games, where they helped the U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team earn the silver medal. Gionta, a 2006 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team member, won the Stanley Cup with the New Jersey Devils in 2003 and most recently spent three seasons (2013-16) as captain of the Buffalo Sabres.

SABRES CONNECTIONS

American Phil Housley (South St. Paul, Minn.) is in his first season as head coach of the Buffalo Sabres, the same team that drafted him as a player in 1982. A member of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame (2004), Housley has represented Team USA 15 times, including eight as a player and seven as a coach. Additionally, Housley was a head coach at the 2012 inaugural All-American Prospects Game, that was also held in Buffalo, New York.

Overall, the Sabres have drafted 14 Americans in the last five NHL Drafts, including recent first round selections Casey Mittelstadt (2017/Eden Prairie, Minn.) and Jack Eichel (2015/North Chelmsford, Mass.), both of whom won Most Valuable Player honors in their respective CCM/USA Hockey All-American Prospects Games (Mittelstadt - 2016; Eichel - 2014) that both took place in Buffalo. Each also went on to be the first Americans selected in their draft years (Mittelstadt - 2017; Eichel - 2015).

Eight current members of the Buffalo Sabres have represented the United States in international play.

Justin Bailey, a native of Buffalo who made his debut with the Sabres in 2015-16, skated for the 2013 U.S. Under-18 Men's Select Team at the 2013 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament.

Zach Bogosian represented the U.S. at the 2009 International Ice Hockey Federation Men's World Championship in Switzerland.

Jack Eichel, selected second overall by the Sabres in the 2015 NHL Draft, helped Team USA earn a bronze medal at the 2015 IIHF Men's World Championship. Captain of the 2015 U.S. National Junior Team, Eichel also skated for the 2014 U.S. National Junior Team and 2017 U.S. Men's National Team while winning a gold (2014) and silver (2013) medal with the U.S. Under-18 Men's National Teams.

Hudson Fasching earned a silver medal with the 2013 U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team and represented Team USA on three other occasions, including two U.S. National Junior Teams (2014, 2015) and one U.S. Men's National Team (2016).

Sean Malone helped the U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team earn a silver medal in 2013.

Jake McCabe was captain of the 2013 U.S. National Junior Team that won gold in Russia and helped Team USA win a gold medal at the 2011 U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team. Additionally, he skated on the 2014 U.S. Men's National Team.

Kyle Okposo has skated for Team USA five times, including three U.S. Men's National Teams (2009, 2010, 2012) and two U.S. National Junior Teams (2007 - bronze; 2008).

Kevin Porter represented the U.S. twice at both the IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship (2003, 2004) and IIHF World Junior Championship (2005, 2006). He helped Team USA to a silver medal at the 2004 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship.

In addition, three Buffalo Sabres prospects also represented the U.S. internationally, collecting a pair of bronze and gold medals in IIHF play.

Will Borgen, who is coached by U.S. head coach Bob Motzko at St. Cloud State University, helped the 2016 U.S. National Junior Team to a bronze medal at the 2016 IIHF World Junior Championship in Helsinki, Finland.

Casey Fitzgerald, the son of Stanley Cup champion Tom Fitzgerald, has skated on two gold medal-winning U.S. squads, including the 2017 U.S. National Junior Team and 2015 U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team.

Casey Mittelstadt, the first Sabres selection of the 2017 NHL Draft (eighth overall), is hoping to represent the U.S. in IIHF play on home ice for the second time after helping the 2016 U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team earn a bronze medal on home ice at the 2016 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship in Grand Forks, North Dakota. He also skated for the U.S. in the 2015 Ivan Hlinka Memorial.

Additionally, there are three American players currently in the Sabres Hall of Fame, including Mike Ramsey (Minneapolis, Minn.), Pat LaFontaine (St. Louis, Mo.) and Housley.

Ramsey, a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team and 1979 U.S. National Junior Team, was a four-time NHL All-Star Game participant (1982, 1983, 1985, 1986) and served as Sabres captain from 1991-92.

LaFontaine, who helped the U.S. claim the inaugural 1996 World Cup of Hockey event, spent six of his 15 NHL seasons with the Sabres, including five as team captain (1992-97). Housley, also a member of the 1996 U.S. World Cup of Hockey Team, skated his first eight NHL seasons with the Sabres and currently ranks third among U.S.-born players with 1,232 NHL points.

USA HOCKEY HAPPENINGS

USA HOCKEY SIGNS PARTNERSHIP WITH CHIPOTLE MEXICAN GRILL

On Dec. 21, USA Hockey announced that Chipotle Mexican Grill will become an official sponsor of the organization, including designation as the title sponsor of USA Hockey National Championships for youth, girls, women and high school aged-players. Chipotle will also be an official sponsor of Hockey Weekend Across America, including designation as Wear Your Favorite Hockey Jersey Day, sponsored by Chipotle, as well as an official sponsor of USA Hockey's two national Try Hockey for Free Days and USA Hockey Player Development Camps.

2018 U.S. UNDER-18 WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM

The 2018 U.S. Under-18 Women's National Team will seek its fourth straight gold medal at the 2018 IIHF Under-18 Women's World Championship in Dmitrov, Russia, from Jan. 6-13, 2018.

The 23-player roster, announced Dec. 1, features seven players that helped the U.S. earn gold last year in Zlin & Prerov, Czech Republic, including Taylor Heise, Lizi Norton, Gracie Ostertag, Dominique Petrie, Lindsay Reed, Ally Simpson and Madeline Wethington. Twenty-one players also participated in the 2017 Under-18 Series vs. Canada last August in Lake Placid, N.Y.

Overall, the U.S. has captured gold six times (2008, 2009, 2011, 2015, 2016, 2017) and silver on four occasions (2010, 2012, 2013, 2014).

FELLOW U.S. NATIONAL HOCKEY TEAM SUCCESS

Over the last two months, four other U.S. hockey teams have found success in international competition.

On Nov. 12, the U.S. Women's National Hockey Team topped Canada, 5-1, to claim the 2017 Four Nations Cup at Amalie Arena in Tampa, Florida. The title was Team USA's third-straight in the event and eighth overall.

A month later, the 2017-18 U.S. National Sled Hockey Team edged Canada, 3-2, to claim the 2017 World Sled Hockey Challenge at McLaughlin Arena in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. The victory marked an unprecedented fourth-straight title in the event and tournament record sixth title overall.

The U.S. National Under-17 Team also claimed a pair of international titles. On Dec. 16, the U.S. National Under-17 Team defeated Russia, 2-1, in a shootout in its final game of the 2017 Under-17 Four Nations Tournament to secure first place with an undefeated 2-1-0-0 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record. The team also claimed the 2017 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge in Dawson Creek, British Columbia, in early November.

On Dec. 16, the U.S. Junior Select Team reached the championship game of the 2018 World Junior A Challenge in Truro, Nova Scotia, but fell to Canada West, 5-1, to earn second.

TEAM USA WOMEN TO HOST NWHL STARS IN EXHIBITION GAMES

The U.S. Women's National Team will play two exhibition games against the top players from the National Women's Hockey League. The games will serve as a final tune-up for the U.S. before the 2018 Olympic Winter Games in PyeongChang.

The games will be held Jan. 13 and 15 at Florida Hospital Center Ice in Wesley Chapel, Florida. Tickets will be available for $10 each with 50 percent of the proceeds benefitting The USA Hockey Foundation's Friends of Women's Hockey Fund. Further details about broadcast information and how fans can purchase tickets will be forthcoming.

THE TIME IS NOW TOUR, PRESENTED BY TOYOTA

The Time is Now Tour, which recently completed, consisted of a series of games in the U.S. to assist the U.S. Women's National Team in preparation for the 2018 Olympic Winter Games. In total, the U.S. went 4-0-1-2 (W-OTW-OTL-L) as it played four times against Canada (1-0-1-2) and once against both Finland (1-0) and Sweden (1-0). For more information, visit TheTimeisNowTour.com

2018 OLYMPIC WINTER GAMES

The XXIII Olympic Winter Games will be held in PyeongChang, South Korea, from February 9-25, 2018. Both the Men's and Women's Olympic rosters were unveiled on January 1.

Men: The 2018 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team will compete from Feb. 14-25. Team USA's final 25-player roster will be comprised of college players, American Hockey Leaguers, and Americans playing professionally in Europe. Jim Johansson is the general manager of the 2018 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team, while Ben Smith is director of player personnel. Tony Granato will serve as head coach and will be joined by assistant coaches Keith Allain, Chris Chelios, Ron Rolston and Scott Young. The U.S. Men's Olympic Team has won two gold medals (1960, 1980), eight silver medals (1920, 1924, 1932, 1952, 1956, 1972, 2002, 2010) and one bronze medal (1936) all-time in Olympic competition.

Women: The 2018 U.S. Olympic Women's Ice Hockey Team will compete from Feb. 11-22. Reagan Carey, USA Hockey's director of women's hockey, is the general manager of the 2018 U.S. Olympic Women's Ice Hockey Team, with Robb Stauber serving as head coach, Bret Strot filling the role of associate head coach and Paul Mara tabbed as an assistant coach. Since capturing gold in 1998, the U.S. has won three silver medals (2002, 2010, 2014) and one bronze medal (2006).

2018 PARALYMPIC WINTER GAMES

The 2018 Paralympic Winter Games will take place in PyeongChang, South Korea, from March 9-18, 2018. The U.S. Paralympic Sled Hockey Team, which was named on January 1, will represent the United States in sled hockey. Team USA will play in Group B alongside the Czech Republic, Japan and host South Korea. Group A will include Canada, Italy, Norway and Sweden.

The U.S. enters the Paralympic Winter Games as two-time defending Paralympic gold medalists. After going undefeated and unscored upon to claim the gold medal at the 2010 Paralympic Winter Games in Vancouver, British Columbia, Team USA became the first nation to claim back-to-back Paralympic gold medals in sled hockey when it defeated Russia, 1-0, in the gold-medal game of the 2014 Paralympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia.

11TH HOCKEY WEEKEND ACROSS AMERICA

The 11th annual Hockey Weekend Across America will be held March 2-4, 2018. The weekend will feature a theme for each of the three days, including Wear Your Favorite Hockey Jersey Day on Friday (March 2); Try Hockey Day on Saturday (March 3) and Celebrate Local Hockey Heroes Day on Sunday (March 4). Hockey Weekend Across America was created by USA Hockey in 2008 to engage the hockey community in celebrating the sport of hockey at all levels and exposing the sport to new audiences.

USA HOCKEY'S NATIONAL TEAM DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Founded in 1996, USA Hockey's National Team Development Program began operations in Ann Arbor, Michigan, and remained there until the summer of 2015. The full-time program is composed of two squads, the U.S. National Under-18 Team and U.S. National Under-17 teams, which compete in the USHL as well as against international and collegiate competition.

The Under-17 Team competes in the United States Hockey League and also participates in three international events annually. The U.S. National Under-18 Team's schedule includes games against NCAA Division I and III opponents, USHL teams as well as competition in three international tournaments.

USA HOCKEY ARENA

USA Hockey Arena, home of USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, is a two-sheet facility with regulation ice (85x200) in the main arena and Olympic-size ice (100x200) for the secondary sheet. Acquired by the USA Hockey Foundation on April 1, 2015, the facility has added 20,000 square feet to the property that included a 9,800-square-foot workout facility, additional offices and a conference center. In total, the facility encompasses 170,000 square feet with the main rink providing 3,504 seats for hockey games and 4,500 seats for other performances and events. Accompanying the facility is the USA Hockey Summer Drive-In, which has three large screens that show first-run double-features seven nights a week, as well as CJ's Brewing Company.
