

Maggy Henschler (F), Rock County Fury

Maggy is an outstanding student athlete. She has been a 2 year captain for the Rock County Fury and an outstanding leader thru her 4 years of high school hockey. She leads the Badger conference in points. Maggy works extremely hard at all aspects of her game on and off the ice. She has shown her great leadership skills by pushing her teammates to get better every practice and game. She is a great example that hard work pays off. She has always been there for her teammates whether it is hockey related or personal. Maggy has always had a 100% commitment to the sport and team all 4 years of playing for the Fury. She is always one of the first on the ice and last to leave practice. Her accomplishments over the years have shown this. Maggy is a 2 sport athlete excelling in hockey and soccer. She always has a never quit and never give up attitude no matter what.

Maggy has received first team all-conference for the Badger conference in 2016-2017 season and second team all-conference in 2015-2016.

Maggy also excels in school and has a GPA of 4.0 during her senior year. Some of her classes included AP Language, Biology and Calculus.
