2018 OLYMPIC WINTER GAMES | PYEONGCHANG, SOUTH KOREA

Preliminary Round • OAR (1-0-0-1) vs. USA (1-0-1-0) • Gangneung Hockey Centre • Gangneung, Gangwon-do, South Korea • Feb. 17, 2018

TONIGHT'S GAME

The U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team faces the Olympic Athletes from Russia tonight in the third and final preliminary round games for both teams at the XXIII Olympic Winter Games. Team USA is the visiting team, will wear its white jersey and occupy the right bench (from the player's perspective looking onto the ice). Today's game will be televised on NBCSN and streamed live at NBCOlympics.com.

THE LATEST

LINEUP TONIGHT

Ryan Zapolski will get the call in goal tonight for Team USA. Zapolski has played the first two games for the U.S. in the Olympic tournament and picked up his first ever Olympic win yesterday with 21 saves in a 2-1 victory over Slovakia. He made 22 saves in a 3-2 overtime loss to Slovenia in his Olympic debut on Feb. 14. Zapolski plays for Jokerit of the KHL and leads the league in shutouts with nine. He played NCAA Division I college hockey at Mercyhurst College in Erie, Pa. Goaltender Brandon Maxwell, defenseman Will Borgen, and forward Jim Slater will not dress tonight.

LOOKING TO WIN GROUP

The U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team looks to win its group for the third straight Olympic Winter Games and earn a bye directly to the quarterfinals. In 2014, the U.S. beat Slovakia (7-1), Russia (3-2, SO), and Slovenia (5-1) to win its group, while in 2010, the U.S. downed Switzerland (3-1), Norway (6-1) and Canada (5-3) to earn the bye. A U.S. win in any fashion tonight against Russia will secure the bye for Team USA.

ALL-TIME VS. OAR (RUSSIA) IN THE OLYMPICS

The U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team is 1-1-0-2-1 (W-OTW-OTL-L-T) all-time against OAR (Russia) at the Olympics. The teams last met in the preliminary round of the last Games in 2014, with the U.S. earning a 3-2 shootout win. T.J. Oshie scored four times in a dramatic eight-round shootout to help propel the U.S. to victory.

U.S.-RUSSIA IN DEUTSCHLAND CUP

The U.S. and Russia faced off in the Deutschland Cup on Nov. 11, 2017, in Augsburg, Germany, with Russia gaining a 5-2 victory. The U.S. had a 32-25 edge in shots on goal, but Russia used three straight power play goals after a 2-0 U.S. lead to help propel it to victory. Of the 22 players in the lineup tonight for Team USA, 10 dressed in the game vs. Russia in the Deutschland Cup. Russia's Olympic roster contains four members of the team that the U.S. faced in the Deutschland Cup.

GIONTA PARENTS HERE

After originally not intending to attend the Olympics, Brian Gionta's wife Harvest sensed his parents -- Sam and Penny -- were having second thoughts after watching game one on TV. She went into action to see how quickly she could arrange flights, accommodations, and tickets and after all was in place, she called them and told them of the arrangements. Brian had no idea they were coming until they were in the air and on their way. They went from Rochester, N.Y., to Chicago and onto Seoul and arrived here in Gangneung just in time for yesterday's 12:10 p.m. game against Slovakia. They are here for the duration of the Games.

HEARTWARMING

U.S. defenseman James Wisniewski, who has 552 NHL regular season games on his resume, has had four ACL knee surgeries -- three on his right knee and one on his left. At 33, prior to knowing he might have the chance to play in the Olympics, he considered retiring. But with the Olympics a possibility, he wanted to give it a shot and has spent the year in Germany playing for Kassel. His Olympic dream has become reality and on the ice following yesterday's win vs. Slovakia, he got to share a special moment with his daughter Jamie when he skated over to the glass and wished her a happy (5th) birthday and told her he loved her. His wife, mom and dad, little sister and other daughter were there at the glass too.

TIDBITS

Ryan Donato scored two power play goals yesterday to help propel the U.S. to a 2-1 win over Slovakia. Donato and his father Ted, who played for Team USA in the 1992 Olympic Winter Games, are the only father-son tandem to both score a goal in the Olympics for the U.S. There are four total father-son combos that have played for the U.S. in Olympic men's ice hockey history, also including Bob (1980), Bill (1960) and Dave Christian (1980) , Ryan Suter (2010, 2014) and Ed (1956) and Gary Sampsom (1984) ... Following last night's game, Abby and Ellie Johannson, the wife and daughter of U.S. general manager Jim Johannson, were presented with the game puck in the team's lockerroom. Jim Johannson unexpectedly passed away at the age of 53 in the early morning hours of Jan. 21, 2018, at this home in Colorado Springs, Colo. In addition, John Johannson, brother of Jim Johannson, was on hand to present the U.S. player of the game award to Ryan Donato ... After losing its first game and winning its second in an Olympic tournament, the U.S. is 3-3-0 in its third game ... Ryan Donato is the first player with Harvard roots to score a goal in the Olympics for the U.S. men since Ted Drury tallied on Feb. 26, 1994, in a 4-3 loss to Germany ... Ryan Donato is Team USA's leading point getter with 2-1--3. His father, Ted, co-led the 1992 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team in points with 4-3-7 with Marty McInnis (5-2--7) and Tim Sweeney (3-4--7). ... Wisniewski is the fourth member of the gold medal-winning 2004 U.S. National Junior Team to play in the Olympics. That 2004 team was the very first group to win the gold medal in the IIHF World Junior Championship. Other Olympians from that team are Ryan Suter, Zach Parise and Ryan Kesler ... The U.S. National Under-18 Team rallied from a 3-0 deficit to beat Russia, 5-4, Friday night at the Five Nations Tournament being hosted by the U.S. in Plymouth, Michigan. The U.S. can win the event with a victory tomorrow against Finland.

USA HOCKEY HAPPENINGS

FELLOW U.S. NATIONAL HOCKEY TEAM SUCCESS

Over the last two months, six other U.S. hockey teams have found success in international competition.

On Nov. 12, the U.S. Women's National Hockey Team topped Canada, 5-1, to claim the 2017 Four Nations Cup at Amalie Arena in Tampa, Florida. The title was Team USA's third-straight in the event and eighth overall.

A month later, the 2017-18 U.S. National Sled Hockey Team edged Canada, 3-2, to claim the 2017 World Sled Hockey Challenge at McLaughlin Arena in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. The victory marked an unprecedented fourth-straight title in the event and tournament record sixth title overall.

The U.S. National Under-17 Team also claimed a pair of international titles. On Dec. 16, the U.S. National Under-17 Team defeated Russia, 2-1, in a shootout in its final game of the 2017 Under-17 Four Nations Tournament to secure first place with an undefeated 2-1-0-0 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record. The team also claimed the 2017 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge in Dawson Creek, British Columbia in early November.

On Dec. 16, the U.S. Junior Select Team reached the championship game of the 2018 World Junior A Challenge in Truro, Nova Scotia, but fell to Canada West, 5-1, to earn second.

The U.S. National Junior Team earned a bronze medal on Jan. 5, when it topped the Czech Republic, 9-3, to close out the 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship in Buffalo, New York. For the first time ever, Team USA has now earned a medal in three straight years at the event (2017 - gold, 2016 - bronze).

Finally, the 2018 U.S. Under-18 Women's National Team won an unprecedented fourth-consecutive gold medal at the IIHF Under-18 Women's National Championship last month in Dmitrov, Russia. After sweeping the preliminary round, the U.S. erased a two-goal deficit in the final period to top Canada in a shootout, 4-3, in the semifinals, before earning a 9-3 victory over Sweden to take home gold.

2018 PARALYMPIC WINTER GAMES

The 2018 Paralympic Winter Games will take place in PyeongChang, South Korea, from March 9-18, 2018. The U.S. Paralympic Sled Hockey Team, which was unveiled on Jan. 1 alongside the Men's and Women's Olympic rosters, will represent the United States in sled hockey.

The United States enters the Paralympic Winter Games as two-time defending Paralympic gold medalists. After going undefeated and unscored upon to claim the gold medal at the 2010 Paralympic Winter Games in Vancouver, British Columbia, Team USA became the first nation to claim back-to-back Paralympic gold medals in sled hockey when it defeated Russia, 1-0, in the gold-medal game of the 2014 Paralympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia.

USA HOCKEY'S NATIONAL TEAM DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Founded in 1996, USA Hockey's National Team Development Program began operations in Ann Arbor, Michigan, and remained there until the summer of 2015. The full-time program is composed of two squads, the U.S. National Under-18 Team and U.S. National Under-17 teams, which compete in the USHL as well as against international and collegiate competition.

The Under-17 Team competes in the United States Hockey League and also participates in three international events annually. The U.S. National Under-18 Team's schedule includes games against NCAA Division I and III opponents, contests versus USHL teams as well as competition in three international tournaments.

USA HOCKEY ARENA

USA Hockey Arena, home of USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, is a two-sheet facility with regulation ice (85x200) in the main arena and Olympic-size ice (100x200) for the secondary sheet. Since being acquired by the USA Hockey Foundation on April 1, 2015, the facility has added 20,000 square feet to the property that included adding a 9,800-square-foot workout facility, additional offices and a conference center. In total, the facility encompasses 170,000 square feet with the main rink providing 3,504 seats for hockey games and 4,500 seats for other performances and events.
