

ECEL 16U | 18U Top Performers

16U

F William Rosen (TM16) William was consistent throughout the weekend for Team Maryland including Rosen's two goals against the New Hampshire Avalanche in the semifinal game. The performance helped catapult TM to the 16U Championship game where they fell to Boston Advantage 15U. Additionally, he found the score sheet by getting at least an assist in every game.

Honorable mentions: Tristan Therrien (NBA), Ryan Corcoran (BA15)

D Tim Lovell (BA15) Lovell, the diminutive left shot Defenseman was a two way threat all weekend for the Boston Advantage 15U team. In addition to two contributing two assists in a 7-2 victory over South East Elite, Lovell was a stalwart defensively and a big part to Boston Advantage winning the 16U Championship.

Honorable mention: Bryce Montgomery (TM16), Nico Savoie (NBA)

G Connor Bradford (BA15) Another big key to his team's success, Bradford backstopped Boston Advantage to a 2-0 shutout victory against Team Maryland in the 16U Championship game. Connor also stopped 24 shots out of 25 in the semi-final game against top ranked Newbridge Academy.

Honorable mention: Dom Basse (TM16)

F Albert Pison (NBA) Pison finished with 9 points on the weekend leading his team to the semifinals on Sunday. Albert has been a standout for Newbridge all season long, finishing with 29 points in 15 games.

Honorable mention: Timofei Khokhlachev (HA), Halen Cookston (EHP)

D Brendan Root (EHP) Root had a great weekend, playing in all situations for Elite Hockey Program including an assist in the championship game. Throughout the weekend, Brendan tallied multiple points as well as logging huge minutes on the back end.

Honorable mention: Jack Ring (BA), William Neault (NBA)

G Brian Cannata (BA) Cannata was a stand out all weekend long with a .93 save percentage throughout the playoffs. Brian stopped 26 of 28 in the championship game against the Elite Hockey Program.

Honorable mention: Andrew Gargiulo (EHP)