

NCYSA DISCIPLINE AND APPEALS

EDUCATION

Code of Conduct

Part 2 of the Discipline and Appeals Manual defines the NCYSA Code of Conduct and expected behaviors of individuals.

Expectations

- Principles of fair play and ethical behavior.
- Competition brings out strong feelings and opinions. Respect one's difference of opinion.
- Deal with conflicts in a spirit of good sportsmanship.
- Adhere to the spirit AND the letter of its Rules, as well as the Laws of the Game.
- Unfair, rowdy, violent, illegal, dangerous and/or unsportsmanlike behavior will not be tolerated.
- All participants should show respect for opponents, regardless of skill.
- CHILDREN ARE OFTEN INFLUENCED BY THE BEHAVIOR OF ADULTS!

Unacceptable Conduct

- Vulgarity by anyone, towards anyone.
- Harassment of referees, coaches or players by anyone.
- Debasing of referees, coaches or players by anyone.
- Physical violence or the threat of violence directed toward anyone.
- Consumption of alcoholic beverages in or around player area at any time.
- The use of illegal drugs under any circumstance.

Coaches

Coaches are responsible for their own conduct, as well as the conduct of Assistant Coaches, Players, Team Managers and Spectators.

Parents

Parents and all spectators have a great deal of influence on the children as they play the game. Yelling and/or screaming at other individuals/teams is not setting a good example and will not be tolerated.
