

BFA Disruptive Conduct Policy

1. Disruptive Conduct shall be defined as any of the following activities:
2. Continued violation of the Parent Code of Conduct despite being asked by a coach, or any other official of BFA to follow and adhere to terms set forth in the Parent Code of Conduct;
3. Engaging in any communication or physical action with another parent, a player, a coach, a game official, or a BFA official, where such communication is harassing, abusive, or threatening;
4. Communicating with parents or players in such a way that demeans or undermines a coach, a BFA official, or BFA policies.
5. Disruptive Conduct should be reported to the Vice President with a copy to the Player and Coach Development Officer as follows.
 - a. The party allegedly displaying the Disruptive Conduct
 - b. Details of the situation to include any third party witnesses with first-hand knowledge of the situation.
6. The Vice President along with the Player and Coach Development Officer will investigate the report. If it is determined that the reported party has engaged in Disruptive Conduct they will determine if a written warning will be issued or if the matter should be immediately referred to the President to convene a Grievance Committee. If a written warning is issued and the Disruptive Conduct continues a Grievance Committee will be convened.
7. The Grievance Committee will proceed in accordance with the Grievance Committee process set forth in the BFA Grievance Policy. If the Committee determines a party has engaged in Disruptive Conduct, that party may be sanctioned as appropriate in one of the following ways:
8. Issued a warning to immediately cease engaging in such conduct.
9. Suspension from attending in any way future practices, games, or team meetings.
 - a. Such suspension can include either some or all of the remaining practices, games, and/or team meetings in such year.
 - b. If a suspension is put in place, the suspension shall not prevent a parent from dropping off or picking up their child from the event.
10. A permanent ban from all future BFA practices, games, team meetings, or other events indefinitely.
