

Roosevelt Hall of Fame

Jessie Ventura
(a.k.a. James Janos)

Class of 1969

- Succeeded in many difficult, high-profile careers including politics, military, professional wrestling, writing, acting, and radio/television broadcasting.
- Elected mayor of Brooklyn Park, MN, 1991-1995.
- Elected governor of Minnesota, 1999-2003, early proponent of Metro Area light-rail system.
- Served in Vietnam War, Navy SEAL/UDT.
- Wrestled professionally for 15 years -- Jesse “The Body” Ventura.
- Won Pacific Northwest Wrestling Title, World Tag Team Championship; installed in Worldwide Wrestling Federation Hall of Fame.
- Did radio/TV color commentary for wrestling and professional football.
- Acted in twelve films including The Predator.
- Wrote eleven politically-themed books including, I Ain’t Got Time to Bleed.
- Served as Visiting Fellow at Harvard University in 2004.
- Hosted several television shows, including Conspiracy Theory w. Jesse Ventura.
- Arranged for significant financial gift to the RHS Foundation from self and others.
- Gave major financial support for the Doc Brown Annual Golf Tourney.
- Gave annual $5,000 plus college scholarship to a financially needy RHS student.

Inducted September 27, 2014