

CAMP DIRECTOR

Camp Director and Castleton University men's ice hockey head coach Bill Silengo brings over ten years of coaching experience to the Green Mountain Hockey School. As one of the youngest head coaches in Division III, Silengo has built a culture of success both on the ice and in the classroom.

Over his first two seasons at Castleton, Silengo has helped guide several NEHC All-Conference and All-Academic student-athletes. In 2017, his Spartans squad finished fourth in the conference, hosted a playoff game, and advanced to the NEHC semifinals, one of the nation's most competitive leagues. In 2018, Silengo saw his squad take the defending national champions to double overtime in the playoffs. Two players under Silengo have signed professional contracts in his first two years at the helm.

Along with success on the ice, Silengo saw his 2017 team land a league-leading 18 members to the NEHC All-Academic Team and his 2018 squad earn the University's elusive Presidents Cup for the highest GPA.

Silengo has coached skills across the east coast for the past ten years. He is also an evaluator for USA Hockey New England District Camps.

HOCKEY SCHOOL PHILOSOPHY

The Green Mountain Hockey School gives you the tools to be successful on and off the ice. We have a highly trained staff that has been involved at the NCAA and professional levels for several years.

HOW THE WEEK IS BROKEN UP

We believe the best way to teach skill development is with a strong foundation and through repetition. We build each day upon what we taught the day before. We focus on the following areas:

- Skating technique and stride
- Power, speed, and agility
- Puck handling
- Shooting
- Situational play
