

Elite College Prep Camp

Hosted by Zona VBC – At Palo Verde HS

June 1st and 2nd – Open to all athletes from any Club or High School

Come train with college coaches from different levels and locations across the country. There will be a coach in attendance from every level of college volleyball. College coaches, with the support of our Zona staff (most former collegiate coaches), will direct all sessions. Come learn new philosophies, drills and techniques from coaches at the NCAA Division I, NCAA Division II, NAIA, NJCAA Division I and NJCAA Division II levels. Sessions will range from individual skill work, applying the individual skill work in a competitive scenario and team system concepts. This camp is geared towards athletes in high school who are looking to pursue the option of playing in college. Come perform and learn in front of numerous college coaches and compete against other motivated high school athletes.

This camp is open to players from any club. The camp will max out at 90 athletes so sign up fast. The cost is $75 per day or $125 for both days. Daily schedule for both days is 9-11:30a.m. and 12:30-3:00p.m.
