

Limestone Trout Club

The Clubhouse

Limestone Trout Club offers a blue ribbon fly-fishing experience in a scenic 94-acre parcel located in East Canaan, Connecticut. Within the reclaimed limestone quarries is a well-groomed property suited for the needs of fly fishers of varied abilities. There are six unique ponds and beautiful landscape. Non-fishing visitors will find a newly renovated clubhouse where you can get comfortable, read a book, or walk on the trails around the ponds.

The Cottage

Limestone Trout Club is located at 29 Allyndale Road, East Canaan, CT.

Visit us on Facebook (LimestoneTroutClub) or www.LimestoneTroutClub.com

For directions go to <http://goo.gl/RyvOWa>

Questions? Contact Dean Keister, dkeister@centerprise.com, (203) 834-1528

A Great Place
For The Family

Brook Trout

Brown Trout

Rainbow Trout

Accommodations at Limestone

Accommodations for six are provided in the cottage overlooking Cedar Pond

The Lounge

The cottage is self-catering. Relax in the comfortable lounge with a gas fireplace for cold nights and air conditioning for when the days are warm.

Kitchen-Eating Area

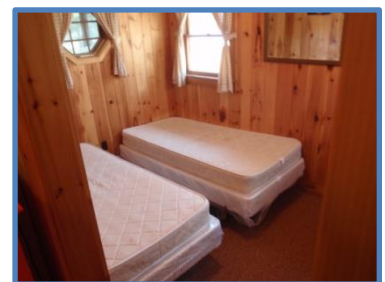

Bedroom 1 - Hide-a-Bed

The dining table seats eight.

Prepare meals in the fully stocked kitchen which has a stove, refrigerator, and microwave.

There are two bedrooms, one with a sofa bed, and the other with two single beds. The couch in the lounge also forms a double bed.

Bedroom 2 - Twin Beds

A screened in front porch overlooks Cedar Pond and the back deck has both gas and charcoal grills and tables. A Super Stop & Shop is just three miles away and there are several nice restaurants within 10 miles of the property. Blankets are provided but bring your own pillows, sheets, and towels.