3. All nominations and elections shall be cast by ballot.
4. All voting for general officers and members of the Executive Committee shall be by ballot.
5. Members of the Executive Committee shall be elected at the Annual Meeting and the member from each division receiving the highest number of votes cast shall be declared elected.

ARTICLE 8

SECTION 1: PLAYING RULES

- A. Current American League – Major League rules shall apply except where otherwise noted in these By-Laws.
- B. TEN-RUN RULE is in effect – The game shall end when the visiting team is behind 10 or more runs after 6 ½ innings OR after the 7th inning, if either team is behind by 10 or more runs, and both teams have had an equal number of times at bat.
- C. Designated Hitter (DH) Rule Exception to MLB Rule: DH can be for any position player, not just the pitcher.
- D. High School re-entry rule – starters may re-enter one time, but must re-enter in the exact same spot in the batting order.

SECTION 2: LEAGUE AND SCHEDULE

- A. All teams seeking admission into the league shall apply by written application. This application must be received by the President prior to the Organizational Meeting.
- B. All new teams admitted for membership into this league shall pay a $300.00 probationary fee. This fee shall be refunded upon completion of two full and satisfactory seasons with the league, as determined by the Board of Directors.
- C. The divisions of the league shall be decided by the Board of Directors. In the event that the alignment of the divisions cannot be agreed upon by the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee shall align the divisions and all teams must abide by such alignment.
- D. Regular scheduled games that are rained out must be rescheduled within two weeks of postponement (not necessarily played). If not rescheduled within two weeks, the home team has 72 hours to submit three possible dates to reschedule to the President. The President shall then have the power to reschedule the game.
- E. Postponed games must be played within one week of the conclusion of the regular season schedule, unless permission is received from the President. All regular season games must be played. During that week, more than one game may be played, provided that they are satisfactorily rescheduled by both managers and approved by the President. No team will be allowed to play a postponed game beyond one week after the close of the regular season schedule.
- F. All postponed games will be agreed upon by both teams involved and the reason for the postponement must be filed in writing no later than five days prior to the scheduled date, unless caused by weather conditions. This must be filed with the President.
- G. Games tentatively rescheduled by manager's agreement must be subject to a five day grace period for approval. Once the game is listed on the weekly mailing, it must be played. If not, the game is forfeited.
- H. Weather causing postponements shall be decided two hours prior to the scheduled starting time. The visiting team, the league President and the umpires must be notified immediately. All weather postponements after this time, wherein the umpires travel to the game, the home team must pay them each $25.00 expense money. If rain ruins the diamond after the two hour notice time, the home team shall try to stop travel mentioned earlier.

- I. No league team shall be allowed to play a game on the day or night of the All Star game unless approved by the President.
- J. In case of light failure or darkness, a game may be suspended or postponed by umpire's decision.
- K. In the event that only one umpire appears at a scheduled game, the game must be played and the umpire present shall become the umpire-in-chief for that game. With the cooperation of both managers, the umpire-in-chief may select a second umpire.
- L. In the event neither umpire appears, a grace period of one hour must be allowed to obtain substitute umpires before definite postponement of the game.

SECTION 3: PLAYOFFS

- A. The playoffs shall be decided on a year to year basis, before the season begins, by the Board of Directors.
- B. At least two umpires shall work all playoff and Grand Championship games. The home team involved in a particular playoff game may choose to pay for a third or fourth umpire. The league will pay for a third and fourth umpire in any Grand Championship games.
- C. The 10-run rule and High School re-entry rule is NOT in effect for all playoff games.
- D. If a HOME team elects to play at the ROAD team's field, the two teams would split the cost of umpires. (This would also be the recommendation for all regular season games as well).
- E. For 2017 and beyond it was determined that no double-headers would be played in the playoffs.
- F. The managers involved in the playoffs shall submit a list of umpires they wish NOT to umpire their playoff games. This list is for reference only and does not guarantee exclusion of specific umpires for playoff appearances. This list will be followed as reasonable as possible by the League President.
- G. All teams that make the playoffs will have their rosters reviewed by the executive committee/league President prior to the playoffs beginning. Any players in question shall be brought up at this time. Once reviewed/approved by executive committee/league President, there will be no protests of a player appearing on the approved playoff roster.
- H. All teams involved in playoff and Grand Championship games shall charge the same admission. This will be decided at the playoff meeting.
- I. Current Playoff format - See Below
 - 1. Top 50% (decimals round down) of teams from each the North and South Divisions qualify for the Rock River playoffs
 - 2. Those teams are seeded 1-4 in each division (North & South) where seeds #1, #2 & #3 get a bye and are automatically in the double elimination divisional playoff. When two subdivisions are present, each subdivision winner will be either the #1 or #2 seed. The remaining teams are seeded 3-4 regardless of their subdivision standing and are seeded by the following:
 - a. Overall Record
 - b. Head to Head
 - c. Run differential in games involving the teams tied
 - d. Record against teams higher in the standings
 - e. Total runs allowed during the season
 - f. Total runs scored during the season

* NOTE - Subdivisions = Northeast, Northwest, Southeast, Southwest division.

- 3. If there are more than 4 teams: The #4 & #5 seeds in each division will play a single elimination game where #5 plays at #4. Winners of those games advance to the double elimination playoffs, while the losers are eliminated.
- 4. The double elimination playoffs begin with the #1 seed hosting the lowest remaining seed, while the #2 seed hosts the #3 seed.
- J. TIE BREAKER implemented for 2014 season and beyond.
 - 1. TWO TEAMS tied for one play-off spot:
Head-to-head record is the tiebreaker. If teams have split the regular season, they will have a play in game to decide who goes to the playoff. This game is to be completed prior to the Friday of the first round of the playoffs.
Home field for this situation will be determined by the following in consecutive order: Run differential in games played head-to-head, Record against teams higher in the standings, Runs allowed during the season, Runs scored during the season, Coin Flip.

2. TWO TEAMS tied for two playoff spots:
Tie breaker will determine seed by the following in consecutive order: Head-to-head record, Run differential in games played head-to-head, Record against teams higher in the standings, Runs allowed during the season, Runs scored during the season, Coin Flip.
3. THREE+ TEAMS tied for any number of play-off spots.
Tie breaker will determine seed by the following in consecutive order: Head-to-head record with teams tied with, Run differential in games involving the teams tied, Record against teams higher in the standings, Runs allowed during the season, Runs scored during the season, Random draw. EXCEPTION: If two teams tie throughout the tiebreaker for the last remaining playoff spot, a play-in game can take the place of the coin flip.

ARTICLE 9

SECTION 1: BALL FIELDS

- A. All ballparks must be enclosed with nothing less than a snow fence or team must justify reason to the Board of Directors for a vote. The lack of a fence at a field is not able to be protested.
- B. The batter's box and all foul lines are to be lined by the home team. If not marked or marked incorrectly, the Umpire-in-Charge shall use their judgment to determine these playing conditions and his orders shall be final and obeyed by all directly involved.
- C. The visiting team shall have the field from 1:00 to 1:25 or a comparable time if starting time is different. They may use this time for either batting practice or infield practice or both.
- D. Where admission is charged, no team in the league shall charge less than $3.00 admission.
 1. The fee shall pertain to those 18 years of age and older, no admission fee for anyone under the age of 18.
 2. Players' wives or girlfriends will have to pay for games away from home, the same as any other spectator.
 3. Players in uniform, two bat people and a scorekeeper will be allowed in ballparks free of charge.
 4. All teams involved in playoff and Grand Championship games shall charge the same admission. This will be decided at the playoff meeting.
 5. Each club shall have control over its gate receipts.

SECTION 2: BASEBALLS

- A. The official ball adopted by the managers effective until the end of 2018 season will be the Diamond D1-Pro and must be used in all league games.
- B. If an illegal ball is found in a game, it must be replaced with an official ball. If no official ball is available, a substitute ball may be used with the approval of both managers and umpires. There shall be no protest on the use of an illegal ball.
- C. Three new baseballs must be given to the umpires at the start of the game. The umpire must approve any balls added later.
- D. The home team must have one dozen new baseballs available for each home game, with the exception of the last home game, when a half dozen must be available.
- E. The home team is required to furnish a warm up ball for the visiting team upon request.

SECTION 3: BATS

- A. Only wood or wood composite bats are legal.

SECTION 4: UNIFORMS

- A. All players and coaches representing their team on the field must wear closely matching uniforms.
- B. Managers must be in complete uniform unless agreed upon by the opposing manager.

SECTION 5: OTHER

- A. The home scorekeeper shall be the official scorekeeper. In the event the home scorekeeper is not present, the visiting scorekeeper shall act as the official scorekeeper. If the scorekeepers are unable to agree on a base hit or error decision, the home plate umpire shall rule on this and his decision shall be final.
- B. Base runners and batters shall be required to wear a protective helmet with at least one ear flap at all times. It is also recommended that base coaches wear a helmet. A base coach or player who chooses to not wear a helmet assumes all liability of any injury that occurs.
- C. No player or umpire shall indulge in alcoholic beverages while performing his duties. No player or umpire shall smoke on the field of play. Once a player has appeared in the lineup, and is removed from the game, he may not indulge in intoxicating liquor or beverages until the contest is completed. At no time shall he conduct himself in a manner that would be unsportsmanlike; such as the use of profanity or derogatory remarks.
- D. With the agreement of both managers, a ball player may re-enter a game in case of injury to a player if no replacement is available.
- E. A team must have 9 players to start the game. If a team cannot field 9 players to start the game league forfeit fees and sanctions apply. Exceptions listed below.
 1. INJURY: If an injury occurs following the start of the game, you can play with 8 or 7, but no less than 7. If there are less than 7 players available, the game is over. The team with less than 7 players forfeits the game with a score of 9-0, however the stats for the game count. When there are less than 9 players, the injured player's spot in the batting order will be considered an automatic out. The manager of the injured player's team may pick a player to re-enter if available. League forfeit fees and sanctions will not be applied.

2. EJECTION: As a result of an ejection leaving a team with less than 9 players, the game is forfeited by the team with less than 9; resulting in a score of 9-0. Any stats in the game to the point of ejection would count. Once game has become official, league forfeit fees and sanctions do not apply.

ARTICLE 10

SECTION 1: ROSTERS

- A. Roster limit is 40 players and is frozen once that number is reached.
 1. A player may occupy only one spot on the roster.
 2. A spot on the roster once used (player actually plays), cannot be re-used.
 3. A player may be removed from the roster if he has not yet appeared in a game in the current season, however if removed he can NOT be added back to your roster at a later date that season
 4. Teams losing players to selective service, sickness or other unavoidable circumstances, which would hamper the team severely, may add players upon approval of the league President.
- B. A player is not eligible unless registered with the league in writing or by phone prior to the start of the next scheduled game. If a player is added the day of a game, the opposing team must be notified of that added player prior to the game starting.
- C. All ball players must be registered by name, address, telephone number and name of other team and league (if player is playing in another league).
 1. Birth dates must be provided for all players still in High School
- D. The minimum age of a ballplayer in the RRL is 16 years old. League approval must be met for ballplayers seeking admittance if younger. (Minors may need liability forms signed by legal guardians in order to play – concussion forms)
- E. Players shall be strictly amateur. Any player receiving any pay or fee, regardless of whether from the team, manager or any individual shall be expelled from the league.
- F. The previous year's roster shall hold over as the roster of the respective teams for the coming year. However, players must be registered by a team each year to be eligible to compete in that particular season. To be released, a player must obtain a written release from a legal representative of the team with whom he was registered the previous year. The written release must be granted by previous team if a player is in good standing (uniform turned in, monies collected, team equipment, or other team property). The Executive Committee may have the power to overturn the decision by a team to not release said player.
- G. If a player is not allowed to play at least 5 innings in three consecutive games, he may obtain his release from the Executive Committee (player must appeal to the league President).
- H. Servicemen who were former players are eligible to play with their former club after notifying the league President before the game.
- I. Deadline for roster additions will be the THIRD TUESDAY OF JULY by 11:59PM
- J. The commissioner can add players after the deadline on a case-by-case basis. Players added after the deadline would not be eligible for the playoffs.

SECTION 2: ELIGIBILITY OF PLAYERS

- A. A player already registered as being on a RRL team's roster, who misses a RRL game to play for another team in another league at the same time as a RRL game, would be ineligible unless one of the exceptions below apply:
 1. 1 to 3 players already on your roster may miss multiple RRL games to play for another team in another league (this excludes leagues that require college eligibility) and remain eligible as long as they are identified with the league President before the next scheduled RRL game. Identifying these players the first time they miss a game is all that is needed. These players are then required to play in 50% of its RRL team's regular season games to remain eligible for the RRL playoffs (would be 9 games in 2018). If this player is a pitcher and misses a RRL game to pitch in another league, he would no longer be eligible to pitch in the RRL.
 2. For players playing in a league that requires college eligibility (Northwoods, Cape Cod, etc.), as long as that player was on your RRL roster when they left to go to that collegiate league and
 - a) had played in a game for your team in the current season
- OR

b) had played a game for your team in the previous season

they are eligible to return and play in the RRL. These players will need to have played in 4 regular season games to be eligible for the playoffs and must be identified with the league President at the time they leave and return to the RRL.

For a player that is being added to your RRL roster after having already played in a collegiate league earlier in the current season, they must play in at least 2/3 of the games their RRL team plays during the second half of the RRL season to be eligible for the playoffs.

3. Any player who is a member of a team in organized leagues such as High School, American Legion, Babe Ruth, Pony, MSBL, MABL, Senior type league or an age limit leagues (18U and under, 25+, 35+, etc) will not lose their RRL eligibility if they choose to play with that team when their RRL team is scheduled to play a game at the same time.
 4. Players that are in High School or have graduated in the school year just ended, may be added through the last regular season game. These players would be eligible for the postseason regardless of games played. These players must be identified with the league President if added after the roster deadline.
 5. All registered players (other than those exceptions identified above) who miss a RRL game to play for another team in another league at the same time as a RRL game would be ineligible. A player, although he appears in uniform with a team, cannot be ruled ineligible unless his name appears in the official box score.
- B. Any player that is added to your RRL roster that has already played for another team in another league in the current season must play in at least 2/3 of the games his RRL team plays during the second half of the RRL season to be eligible for the playoffs.
- C. Any player who transfers to another Rock River League team during the season must play in at least 2/3 of the games his new RRL team plays during the second half of the season to be eligible for the playoffs.
1. A player will be declared ineligible if he chooses to play with another team in the RRL without obtaining a release from his former team
 2. A player declared ineligible for one team in the RRL is also ineligible to play with any other team in the RRL
- D. Any team involved with the NBC, ABC or any other sanctioned tournaments must notify the league President that they are entered and supply possible playing dates in the tournament as soon as possible. They also must supply the league President with a contact name and phone number for the tournament.
1. Teams which participate in district play-offs or state semi-pro tournaments may draw players from the league to aid them in the games.
 2. A player may seek approval to play with another team in these tournaments with the approval of the Executive Committee if that player is missing a scheduled or rescheduled league game.
- E. All teams that make the playoffs will have their rosters reviewed by the executive committee/league President prior to the playoffs beginning. Any players in question shall be brought up at this time. Once reviewed/approved by executive committee/league President, there will be no protests of a player appearing on the approved playoff roster.

ARTICLE 11

SECTION 1: FINANCES

- A. The Franchise and Forfeit Fees for membership shall be set on a year to year basis. The Franchise Fee for 2020 is $500 per team. The Franchise Fee includes: Website, scheduling, statistics, admin, and umpire assigning costs ($270), All Star Tickets ($50), Awards and the Annual RRL Banquet ($180). Teams have the privilege of having the Forfeit Fee (see Section 1, B) refunded at the Annual Meeting, provided they have fulfilled their duties under the rules and regulations and in good standing with the league.
- B. As of 2019, the Forfeit Fee shall be equal to $300. This includes payment to the umpires, the team being forfeited against, and covers league expenses to administer payments and notices.
- C. Any team with an outstanding balance as of the end of the fiscal year shall lose its franchise in the league and all voting privileges of that franchise until fees are made current.
- D. The Franchise and Forfeits Fees must be paid at the Organizational Meeting in order for teams to compete in the league in that particular season.

- E. Each member of the Executive Committee with the exception of the President shall be paid $50.00 per year as compensation for traveling expenses. This is to be paid at the Annual Meeting. A substitute member appointed by the President for a specific meeting shall receive $5.00 per meeting. Funds to be paid from the general fund.
- F. Members of the Executive Committee shall receive two complimentary tickets to the Annual Awards Dinner.
- G. Umpires who work at the current years' All Star game is eligible receive two complimentary tickets to that specific Annual Awards Dinner.
- H. Each team must take and pay for a minimum of 8 tickets for the Awards Dinner. In 2019, the cost of each ticket was included with your Franchise Fee. If the tickets are not paid for, the money is to be taken from the Forfeit Fee account and placed into the league treasury.
- I. Each team must take and pay for a minimum of fifty tickets ($1 each) for the annual All Star game. In 2019, this cost is included in the Franchise Fee. If the tickets are not paid for by the Annual Meeting, the money is to be taken from the Forfeit Fee account and placed into the league treasury.

ARTICLE 12

SECTION 1: PROTESTS

- A. No protest will be accepted on the judgment of a play. All protests on technicalities must be made at the time of the play (play having resumed, there shall be no more protest on that play). The reason for protest must accompany the official summary sheet as well as the score at the time of the protest, what inning, who was batting, how many outs, the count on the batter and any other necessary information to be sent in by the umpires
- B. The protest fee of $60.00 must be filed in the league office within forty-eight hours of the start of the contest. Managers and umpires shall agree on game being played under protest unannounced to the fans. This is necessary to protect the home management from refunding money to the fans
- C. Protests on eligibility of a ball player must be filed in writing to the league President. Protest may be filed at any time during the regular season. A team will lose all games in which an ineligible player participated in after the violation.
- D. In the event that the protest is won, the $60.00 fee is returned to the protesting team. If the protest is lost, one third of the fee is retained by the league President and the other two thirds of the fee go to the umpires for attending the meeting. If the umpires do not attend the meeting, the entire fee goes to the President.
- E. In a protested game, the home manager is to send the umpires' fees to the President if the protest is related to the officials. If the protest is disallowed the umpires will receive their fees immediately as well as their fee for attending the meeting. In the event the protest is allowed, the umpires will get their fee after the protested game has been completed. The league President will have to authority to determine the appropriate amount the umpires are to receive pending they are unable to complete the protested game. However, if the protest is related to anything else, the umpires must be paid their full game fee at the conclusion of the game. They will receive no compensation for attending the protest meeting.
- F. If a protest is filed by a team in the last game of the season and the protest is won, the game must be replayed unless mutually agreed upon by the managers not to replay it. Any team refusing to play will be subject to the non-appearance penalty.

SECTION 2: FORFEITS AND FINES

- A. All games in which either manager involved wants to play must be played. The nonappearance penalty is $50.00. This money is paid to the team making an appearance and is taken out of the forfeit fee of the team not appearing. The game is also forfeited to the team making the appearance. Note: A team forfeited to will receive at least $50.00 whether they are the home team or the visiting team.
- B. If a team fails to appear with nine or more players on two different occasions, they not only forfeit the game but are dropped from the league. At any time they seek reentry into the league, they must pay all fines.
- C. Umpires must wait thirty (30) minutes before declaring a forfeit if a team appears with less than nine players.
- D. In case of an accident in route to the game, a team may add others to play the game. Forfeiture will be decided by the Executive Committee in respect to the relative facts presented by the offending team within forty-eight hours.
- E. A fine of $25.00 will be levied against any team in the league which fails to send a representative to any league meeting unless their absence is excused by the league President.
- F. A $25.00 fine will be assessed to any team that does not give the President an advance notice of attendees to the banquet by the set guideline established at the Annual Meeting.
- G. A team that forfeits a game must have a new forfeit fee in the league office before the next scheduled league game.
- H. All Stars selected but not appearing at the All Star game, unless excused by the President, shall be fined $5.00.

- I. Any team found guilty of using a player who has received pay or compensation shall forfeit their forfeit fee money to the league and forfeit the results of each game in which that player participated.
- J. All summary sheets must be postmarked or emailed within three days of the date of the game or a $5.00 fine will be levied. After the third offense, the fine will double to $10.00.

SECTION 3: EJECTIONS/SUSPENSIONS

- A. A player can be ejected by an umpire at any time during the game for profanity or misconduct. The player is ejected for the remainder of the game.
- B. If a player is ejected from a game or performs any act of misconduct where a suspension is recommended by an umpire or League Director follow the guidelines below.
 1. For a profanity or misconduct offense, the player shall receive a one game suspension for the first offense and a two game suspension on the second offense. On the third offense, the player shall be suspended for the remainder of the season.
- C. There will be an automatic-minimum- three game suspension for physical contact with an umpire.
- D. Each Team Manager or Team representative must notify the League President within 24 hours if there has been an ejection at their game.
- E. Any player ruled ineligible by the Executive Committee shall be suspended for the remainder of the season and all games said player appeared in after he was ruled ineligible will be forfeited.
- F. The President shall declare a player ineligible if he finds that the player has violated league eligibility rules.
- G. Any team knowingly using an ineligible player or that uses a player under an assumed name shall forfeit that game and pay a $200.00 fine if it is a road game or a $100.00 fine if it is a home game. Additionally, the offending team's manager shall be suspended for four regular season games.
- H. In the case of suspension or ineligibility, all players, managers and umpires involved must be given the opportunity to state their case to the Executive Committee.
- I. The findings of the Executive Committee shall be final. Under no circumstances shall it be reconsidered ,reopened, or inquired into, either by the league or a subsequent board

Appendix A
Rock River All-League & Awards

At the conclusion of the season each division of the Rock River League will select an all-league team (North & South) based off the official league regular season statistics. To qualify for the all-league team the following criteria must be met in 2018:

 Pitchers must have thrown at least 25 IP to qualify*

* Position players must have 45 plate appearances (PA) to qualify. This was determined by taking 80% of the PA needed to qualify for the batting title (3.1 PA x 18 league games = 56 PA x 80% = 45 PA)*

The All-League team shall consist of the following:

Catcher	Outfield
First Base	Outfield
Second Base	Outfield
Shortstop	Utility / DH
Third Base	Pitcher

Other awards shall include:

Most Valuable Player	Most Improved Team	Umpire of the Year
Rookie of the Year 	Scorekeeper of the Year
Manager of the Year	Bat Boy of the Year
Player of Merit	Batting Champion ***

 40 plate appearances or 25 IP needed to be eligible for Rookie of the Year, a player does not qualify if they have reached 40 plate appearances or 25IP in a previous season*

* To be eligible for batting champion, hitters must have at least 56 plate appearances (3.1 plate appearances x 18 league games)*

Each team should nominate one player as their team MVP
