

Northern Soccer Refund Policy

Spring Competitive Soccer Any player who withdraws from the competitive soccer program by Nov. 1 will receive a full refund minus the commitment fee of $150 and an administrative fee of $35.

- Any competitive player who withdraws after Nov. 1 and before Jan 1st will receive a refund minus the $150 commitment fee, minus $100 for winter training and minus the $35 administrative fee. Coaches and tournament fees must be paid in full once team fees are finalized unless another player fulfills the spot and pays the fee. Uniform fees are non-refundable for uniforms that have been ordered. In 2020-2021, that uniform fee is $115. This is subject to change based on the uniform cycle.
 - Any player who withdraws after Jan 1 will receive no refund.
 - If a player elects to re-enroll for a season they withdrew from, they will be responsible for payment in full as well as an additional $35 administrative
 - Refunds for anything related to COVID (including mask mandates) will only be considered if the season is cancelled.
- If a competitive player is injured their parent/guardian must contact the Director of Coaching within one week of injury. The player must supply a doctor's note and a pro-rated refund will be granted based on the date of the doctor's confirmation. Coaches/tournament fees are non-refundable unless another player takes the spot and pays the fee. Uniform fees are non-refundable.
- If a competitive player is injured prior to May 1 they'll be refunded all of their soccer fees except for the $100 winter training fee, the $150 commitment fee, the uniform fee and a $35 administrative fee.
- If a competitive player is injured after the season begins there is no refund available. Coaches fees and tournament fees are not refundable even for a season-ending injury after Nov. 1 unless another player fills the spot and pays the fees.

- Fall competitive soccer: If a player withdraws from the program there is no refund available. If the player sustains a season-ending injury in fall prior to the start of the game play season they are eligible for a refund minus the $35 administrative fee. Uniform fees are non-refundable. Injuries must be substantiated by a doctor's note. Once game play begins there is no refund available.
- Fall recreational soccer: If a player withdraws from the program there is no refund available. If the player sustains a season-ending injury in fall prior to the start of the game play season they are eligible for a refund minus the $35 administrative fee and the cost of the player's uniform. Injuries must be substantiated by a doctor's note. Once game play begins there is no refund available.
- Spring recreational refund policy: Prior to the start of the season families will receive a refund minus a $35 administrative fee and the cost of the player's uniform. Once the season begins no refunds will be available. If a player is injured prior to the state of the season they will receive a refund minus the $35 administrative fee and the price of the uniform. Once the season begins there are no refunds available even for a season-ending injury.