

About This Coach: _____

The Pas Minor Hockey Association Larry Mayer Memorial

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Larry played one year in the JR. B hockey program and the next year he could not play as he was diagnosed with cancer. Larry continued to assist his team and coaches in the capacity of a trainer as he could no longer play due to medical reasons. He continued to do so until his passing. The coaching staff at the time, led by Wayne Hawrysh, were very grateful for all the help & support Larry gave the team and donated a trophy in honor of his memory.

This award will be presented in recognition of an individual's dedication & commitment to the minor hockey program.

Can be nominated by any member of TPMHA. After reviewing all submissions, the Awards Committee will pick the winner.
