Reno striker Corey Hertzog is currently tied for fourth in the USL with 11 goals, four of which have come in his last five games. The hot streak comes after Hertzog was scoreless in his first eight appearances this season.

FAMILIAR OPPONENT

Reno heads to Texas to take on Rio Grande Valley FC, just a month after topping the Toros in Reno. On July 3, Reno scored four goals and JT Marcinkowski kept a clean sheet to pick up three points against RGV.

JULY FIREWORKS

July was a month to remember for the boys in blue, with the team going 4-1 with a +7 goal differential. Reno scored three or more goals in three of the five goals, and went 2-1-0 on the road. The team was 2-0-0 at home, with two 4-0 wins.

RIISING UP THE TABLE

Last week, Reno topped Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC, while Fresno FC fell to Austin. The win, paired with a Fresno loss, puts Reno four points ahead of Fresno for second place in the USL's Western Conference. 1868 trails Phoenix Rising FC by just three points for first place in the conference, and is tied for the third most points in the whole league.

CHASING HISTORY

With 12 matches left to go in Reno's third season, the team owns 45 regular season wins. The total is fifth all time in USL history for a club's first three seasons. If 1868 can earn five wins in the final 12 matches, the team will become just the second ever to win 50. Reno can also become just the sixth team ever to make the playoffs in each of their first three seasons.

RENO HITS THE ROAD TO TAKE ON RIO GRANDE VALLEY FC

1868 FC ENTERS WITH 12-5-5 RECORD

RENO, Nev. – Coming off of a 4-0 home victory over Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC last weekend, Reno 1868 FC hits the road this weekend for a matchup with Rio Grande Valley FC. Reno enters the match in second place in the USL's Western Conference, trailing first-place Phoenix Rising FC by just three points.

"We had a good result the first time we saw them," said head coach Ian Russell. "They got embarrassed here so they're going to be looking to show that they're better than that. For us it's about keeping our mentality strong and going in knowing we can get it done on the road."

Los Azules are solidifying their second-place position in the west, and two individuals are climbing up league rankings. Corey Hertzog is tied for fourth in the league in goals with 11, and Raul Mendiola is second in assists with seven. Reno's 48 goals and 41 points on the season are both good for third in the USL.

Reno and Rio Grande Valley are meeting for the second time this season, with the first coming in Reno on July 3. Reno rolled RGV 4-0, thanks to two goals and an assist by Sam Gleadle. Most recently, the boys in blue defeated Colorado Springs at home 4-0. Lindo Mfeka scored two second half goals, and Mendiola tallied two assists in the first half.

"We had a really good game against them before, but I don't think they looked their best," said Russell. "I expect a better challenge when we go there."

RGV is coming off of a 2-1 road loss to Las Vegas. Five of the Toros' six wins this season have come at home, while Reno enters with a 5-4-2 road record.

Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. PT from H-E-B Park, and the match will be streamed on ESPN+. Reno will be back home next weekend to take on San Antonio FC.
