

SOUTHEASTERN LACROSSE CONFERENCE ANNOUNCES 2020 SELC HALL OF FAME CLASS

For Immediate Release: Atlanta, GA

The SouthEastern Lacrosse Conference (SELC) is proud to announce the Class of 2020 to the SELC Hall of Fame. The Class of 2020 will be formally inducted at the 2021 SELC Championship Tournament. We have the honor to present:

David Adams – Florida, Photographer, 1999 - 2017

Dave never played or coached in a SELC game but his efforts had a major impact on the SELC. For almost 20 years (1999 – 2017) Dave chronicled via photography the SELC through hundreds of regular season and SELC and MCLA championship games, most on a volunteer basis. Dave also donated his time and materials in processing and cataloging his images and annually would make them available to the teams at no charge. Dave also served the game as a game official, working games for 10 years. Dave retired after a lengthy career in the Atlanta Fire Department and is currently living in Denver, Colorado.

Ken Lovic – Georgia Tech, Coach/Administrator, 1995 - Present

Ken Lovic currently serves as the President of the MCLA as well as the head coach at Georgia Tech. Previously, he served as SELC Vice-President. Ken has won over 225 games in 24 years at Tech including 4 conference championships. He has coached 3 teams to the semi-finals of the MCLA national tournament and has been honored both as a SELC and MCLA Coach of the Year.

Ryan Miller – Liberty, Attack, 2012 - 2015

Ryan was a dominant attackman from his first SELC game as a freshman in 2012 until his graduation in 2015. He was Rookie of the Year, 4 time 1st team All Conference, 3 time MCLA All American and 4 time Scholar All American. Ryan was honored as SELC Offensive Player of the Year three years and finished his career at Liberty University with 337 points on 201 goals and 136 assists. Ryan currently is coaching high school in northern Virginia.

Kris Muir – Tennessee, Midfield, 1998 - 2001

Kris Muir played on two SELC Championship teams at Tennessee and served as a two time team Captain. Kris was a prototypical two way midfielder and his talents were recognized via both All Conference and All American honors. He was a 4 year starter and was selected as a member of the ALL SELC 25th Anniversary Team. After college Kris coached high school for 8 years in the Atlanta area and was a championship coach with the Copperheads youth program.

Waldo Terrell – Georgia, Goal, 1995 - 1999 / Coach, 2000 - 2003

Waldo was a dominant goalie in the late '90s for the Georgia Bulldogs. He backstopped them to the 1998 SELC Championship and to the 1998 USLMDIA National Championship Tournament. He was the only SELC player to make the national championship tournament team after setting a tournament record 24 saves in a game. Waldo served as an assistant coach at Georgia for two years and as head coach in 2003, leading UGA to the SELC DII Championship. Waldo also served as treasurer of the SELC for 3 years and as a certified official.
