TODAY'S GAME

The U.S. Men's National Team takes on Hungary here today in its second of seven preliminary round games of the 2023 IIHF Men's World Championship in Tampere, Finland. The game will air live on NHL Network in the U.S.

THE SERIES VS. HUNGARY

The U.S. and Hungary meet for just the third time ever in the IIHF Men's World Championship with the U.S. having won the previous two meetings. In the last outing between the two teams -- which came on May 13, 2016, in St. Petersburg, Russia, Nick Foligno had two goals and an assist to lead Team USA to a 5-1 victory Brock Nelson landed in the late morning and played in the game, which had a 4:15 p.m. faceoff. Goaltender Keith Kincaid picked up his first-ever win in a Team USA jersey with seven stops. Team USA set a U.S. single game record for fewest shots allowed in a game at the world championship with eight. The only other meeting between the two teams was back in 1939, with the U.S. earning a 3-0 victory on Feb. 7.

GAME ONE REWIND

The U.S. is coming off a 4-1 win over host and defending gold-medalist Finland on Friday (May 12) to open play in the world championship (see boxscore later in these notes). Finland had earned wins in six of the last seven outings between the two teams headed into the contest, including a pair of victories in last year's world championship. Veterans Alex Tuch (21:28) and Nick Bonino (21:19) led the U.S. in ice time and were joined by Nick Perbix (20:25) in the 20-plus minutes club for the contest. Tuch, who had a pair of goals, led the U.S. with eight shots on goal, with Matt Coronato (6) and Cutter Gauthier (5) next on the list. Bonino won 13-of-21 faceoffs for a .619 success rate. The U.S. outshot Finland 29-14 over the final two periods and 38-24 for the game.

LOOKING TO WIN FIRST TWO

The U.S. is seeking to win its first two games of an IIHF Men's World Championship for the 27th time. It accomplished the feat in last year's tournament (4-1 vs. LAT; 3-2 OT vs. AUT) and previous to that it was in 2018. The U.S. had a stretch of winning its first two games in 10 of 11 years between 2005-15 (2010 only exception).

CAMP IN MUNICH

Team USA conducted a short training camp in Munich, arriving on May 6 and concluding time there with an exhibition game vs. Germany on May 9 in which the U.S. prevailed by a 6-3 count. Drew O'Connor (2G, 1A) led four players with at least two points. Casey DeSmith played the first 32:19 in net and did not allow a goal on 19 shots, while Cal Petersen finished the contest and made five saves. The two teams shared a plane to Tampere which arrived the afternoon of May 10. Part of Team USA's visit to Munich included a trip to the world-famous Hofbrauhaus beer hall where team captain Nick Bonino had the unique honor of tapping a new keg.

STAN WONG

Stan Wong, one of Team USA's two athletic trainers and a beloved figure of players and staff alike, is working his 54th international event for a U.S. hockey team. This year marks his 16th straight men's world championship. He has also served as a trainer for five Olympic teams, 21 national junior squads, 10 Deutschland Cup teams and for Team USA at one Youth Olympic Games and one Winter World University Games. Wong was inducted into the Professional Hockey Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame in June 2015.

WHAT'S IN A NICKNAME

Team USA assistant coach Derek Lalonde, who is the head coach of the NHL's Detroit Red Wings, has long had the nickname "Newsy" after Hockey Hall-of-Famer Edouard "Newsy" Lalonde. When the NHL was forming in 1917, "Newsy" Lalonde was the playing-coach and captain of the Montreal Canadiens. As a kid, Lalonde was working in a newsprint plant and that's where the original Newsy landed his nickname. For Derek Lalonde, it was his teammates at SUNY-Cortland, where he was a standout goaltender, who tabbed him "Newsy," a nickname that has carried with him since.

THE NAMING OF STICKS

Team USA forward Rocco Grimaldi started a fun tradition of naming his sticks four or five years ago as he remembers. He tries to make sure he doesn't use names of people he knows and goes through the alphabet from A to Z with boys and girls names and then back from Z to A in establishing those names. He surmises he's been up and down the alphabet four times since beginning the tradition. Grimaldi cites Trudy as a great stick and one he scored four goals with in a 7-1 win over Detroit back in 2021 when he was playing for the NHL's Nashville Predators. Oswald, a stick he used playing for San Diego in the AHL, has recorded the most goals. Grimaldi says Romeo was his worst stick, breaking just shortly after starting to use it. "How ironic is it that Romeo, who broke hearts, broke right away," quipped Grimaldi. Erica and Fiona are the latest sticks in Grimaldi's arsenal and got their start during Team USA's camp in Munich. To date, Erica has seen game action, while Fiona has not.

WHO KNEW

The first-ever McDonald's restaurant in Finland opened in Tampere, Finland, in December of 1984. The 1985 IIHF World Junior Championship – which began in late December of 1984 and finished in early January 1985 – was played in Finland that year with games in Helsinki, Turku, Espoo and Vantaa. Team USA was based in Helsinki. Art Berglund, who led USA Hockey's international hockey program back in those days, caught wind of the new McDonald's and canceled practice one day so the players and staff could make the journey from Helsinki to Tampere to try out the American icon. Media learned of the adventure and were present to capture the visit. Team USA also visited a Finnish glass factory on its way back to Helsinki. The 1985 U.S. National Junior Team featured U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame players Brian Leetch, Mike Richter and Craig Janney.

Team USA started the world championship with 24 players. Eight have previously been part of a U.S. team in the men's worlds (Bjork, Bonino, Comesso, Farrell, Garland, Mackey, Petersen, Tynan). Five players are making their debut in an IIHF world championship (Attard, DeSmith, Eyssimont, O'Connor, Walker) ... Team USA has finished in the top four of the world championship six times in the last nine years ... Goaltender Casey DeSmith and his wife Mollie are expecting their first child in August ...
