2019 IIHF WOMEN'S WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

The International Ice Hockey Federation Women's World Championship is in its 19th year after the inaugural tournament was held in Ottawa in 1990. The U.S. Women's National Team has played Canada in the gold-medal game in all 18 of the previous events, capturing the tournament's top prize in each of the last four years and now a total of eight times (2005, 2008, 2009, 2011, 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017), including seven of the last eight tournaments, and eight of the last 10.

The 2019 tournament will include competition among 10 women's national teams for the first time, as opposed to eight in previous years. The U.S. is competing in Group A alongside Canada, Finland, Russia and Switzerland. Group B includes the Czech Republic, France, Germany, Japan and Sweden.

After a single round-robin series in each group, the five teams in Group A and best three teams from Group B advance to the playoff round. Quarterfinals will be played between A1-B3, A2-B2, A3-B1 and A4-A5, with the winner of each moving on to the semifinals. The winner of each semifinal game will advance to the gold-medal game, while the losers will play one another for the bronze medal.

MEDIA ACCESS

Team USA players and head coach Bob Corkum will be available for interviews in designated mixed zone areas following games and non-gameday practices. Media availability on day-of-game morning skates will be limited and by request only. Members of the media are not allowed in the U.S. dressing room at any time.

TALKING POINTS

A COMEBACK VICTORY IN GAME ONE

Melissa Samoskevich (Sandy Hook, Conn.), Hilary Knight (Sun Valley, Idaho), Alex Carpenter (North Reading, Mass.), Brianna Decker (Dousman, Wis.) and Annie Pankowski (Laguna Hills, Calif.) strung together five unanswered goals in the third period to power the U.S. Women's National Team past Finland, 6-2, in its opening game of the 2019 IIHF Women's World Championship. Kendall Coyne Schofield (Palos Heights, Ill.) also added a goal in the first period and was the game's scoring leader with 1G, 2A for 3PTS, earning her U.S. player of the game honors.

ON THE WORLD STAGE

The U.S. has faced Canada more than any other team in IIHF Women's World Championship play, owning a 10-4-5-8/W-OTW-OTL-L record. The teams have played into overtime on nine occasions, three of which resulted in a shootout. Twenty-one of the 27 games have been decided by two goals or less, while 13 have been one-goal games. The last time these two teams squared off at the IIHF Women's Worlds was in 2017 in Plymouth, Michigan, in the tournament gold-medal game. Knight scored the game-winning goal with 9:43 to play in overtime lifting the U.S. over Canada, 3-2, to claim the program's fourth-straight world title.

RIVALRY RENEWED

The U.S. and Canada faced off in a three games this February part of the first-of-its-kind 2019 Rivalry Series. An exciting precursor to the 2019 IIHF Women's Worlds, the series brought the excitement of the U.S.-Canada rivalry to London and Toronto, Ontario, and Detroit, Michigan. Knight scored the game-winning goal and Alex Rigsby (Delafield, Wis.) recorded a 33-save shutout to secure a hard-fought, 1-0 victory for Team USA, in the opening game of the series. Though Carpenter, Hannah Brandt (Vadnais Heights, Minn.) and Decker each scored, the U.S. fell 4-3 in game two, and then despite another strong effort by Rigsby between the pipes, the U.S. dropped the series finale, 2-0, in Detroit.

TEAM USA AT A GLANCE

The U.S. roster for the 2019 IIHF WWC is made up of 23 players hailing from nine different states across the country. The roster contains 13 forwards, seven defense and three goaltenders.

RETURNING OLYMPIANS

The roster features 14 2018 Olympic champions, including Cayla Barnes (Eastvale, Calif.), Kacey Bellamy (Westfield, Mass.), Brandt, Dani Cameranesi (Plymouth, Minn.), Coyne Schofield, Decker, Megan Keller (Farmington Hills, Mich.), Amanda Kessel (Madison, Wis.), Knight, Kelly Pannek (Plymouth, Minn.), Emily Pfalzer (Buffalo, N.Y.), Rigsby, Maddie Rooney (Andover, Minn.) and Lee Stecklein (Roseville, Minn.). In addition, three more Olympians are represented, including 2014 Olympic silver medalists Megan Bozek (Buffalo Grove, Ill.), Carpenter and Shelly Picard (Taunton, Mass.).

NEW TO THE RED, WHITE AND BLUE

While fourteen members of the U.S. team that claimed gold at the 2017 IIHF WWC in Plymouth, Mich., return to defend the title this year in Espoo, six players will make their IIHF WWC debut, including Barnes, Sydney Brodt (North Oaks, Minn.), Jesse Compher (Northbrook, Ill.), Emma Polusny (Mound, Minn.), Samoskevich and Hayley Scamurra (Williamsville, N.Y.). All but two members of Team USA - Polusny and Scamurra - have experience representing the U.S. at an IIHF event, however, Polusny helped the U.S. win its fourth consecutive championship at the 2018 Four Nations Cup in November, and Scamurra recently made her U.S. debut during the 2019 Rivalry Series in February.

PLAYOFF ROUND GAMES

QUARTERFINALS

U.S. All-Time in WWC Quarterfinals: 0-0 (W-L)

Of Note: The U.S. has never played in a quarterfinal contest in IIHF Women's World Championship history, having earned a bye to the semifinal round in all of the previous competitions.

SEMIFINALS

U.S. All-Time in WWC Semifinals: 13-1-1 (W-L-T)

Of Note: The U.S. has only fallen once in the semifinal round of the WWC and that was against Canada on April 10, 2009. Despite a 33-save effort by Molly Schaus, the U.S. was edged by its northern rival, 2-1. Because the U.S. had already earned a bid into the gold-medal game, the loss did not matter. Team USA would go on to claim gold against Canada two days later, winning 4-1.

MEDAL GAMES

U.S. All-Time in WWC Gold-Medal Games: 4-4-3-7 (W-OTW-OTL-L)

Of Note: The U.S. has faced Canada in the gold-medal game in all 18 previous WWC events, capturing the event's top prize the last four years and a total of eight times, including seven out of the last eight tournaments. Most recently, the U.S. defeated Canada in thrilling overtime fashion, 3-2, on April 7, 2017, at USA Hockey Arena in Plymouth, Michigan.

2019 U.S. WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM GAME NOTES

PRELIMINARY ROUND, USA VS. CANADA • APRIL 6, 2019

2019 U.S. COACHING STAFF

BOB CORKUM, HEAD COACH

Bob Corkum is serving as head coach of the U.S. Women's National Team for the 2018-19 season.

Corkum's first international tournament as head coach with the U.S. Women's National Team was the 2018 Four Nations Cup in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, where the U.S. women went undefeated en route to its fourth straight tournament title.

Previously, Corkum served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Under-22 Women's Select Team for the U-22 Series vs. Canada in Calgary in August and helped lead the U.S. to a three-game sweep.

Corkum's appointment to the U-22 select team staff marked his first coaching assignment for a U.S. team since leading the U.S. men into the 2013 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament in Slovakia, where the team finished second.

Corkum previously served as an assistant coach for the New York Islanders from 2014-2017. A 12-year NHL veteran, Corkum joined the Islanders organization in July 2013 after spending five seasons as an associate coach at his alma mater, the University of Maine. Corkum helped the Black Bears qualify for the NCAA Tournament in 2012.

Corkum's NHL career began with the Buffalo Sabres in 1990 after being selected by the Sabres in the 3rd round, 47th overall in 1986. The Salisbury, Mass., native also spent time with the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim, Philadelphia Flyers, Phoenix Coyotes, Los Angeles Kings, New Jersey Devils and Atlanta Thrashers.

Prior to playing in the NHL, Corkum played four years at the University of Maine. As a senior in 1989, Corkum helped lead the Black Bears to a Hockey East Championship and a second-consecutive Frozen Four Appearance.

JOEL JOHNSON, ASSISTANT COACH

Johnson recently served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's National Team during the 2019 Rivalry Series and as it won four games in five days en route to its fourth consecutive tournament championship at the 2018 Four Nations Cup in November, marking his first appearance behind the bench for the team in international play. Previously, he led the U.S. Under-22 Women's Select Team to a three-game sweep at the Under-22 Series vs. Canada, serving as head coach alongside Corkum. Johnson also served as head coach for the U.S. Under-18 Women's National Team from 2015-2018, helping the U.S. capture four consecutive gold medals at the IIHF Under-18 Women's World Championship, and in addition, has coached at numerous USA Hockey evaluation and training camps over the past five years. Now in his 14th season on the University of Minnesota coaching staff, Johnson has helped the Golden Gophers claim six national titles (2000, 2004, 2012, 2013, 2015, and 2016). He previously spent six seasons coaching at Bethel University from 2004-10, including three years as the men's hockey head coach.

BRIAN POTHIER, ASSISTANT COACH

Pothier receives his third coaching assignment with the U.S. Women's National Team after serving as an assistant coach during both the 2019 Rivalry Series and the 2018 Four Nations Cup. Pothier, alongside Corkum and Johnson, has served as a camp coach at the 2018 USA Hockey Women's Winter Training Camp in Plymouth, Mich., the U.S. Women's National Team Evaluation Camp in Biddeford, Maine, and the USA Hockey Women's National Festival in Lake Placid, N.Y. A former NHL defenseman and U.S. Men's National Team alumnus (2007 IIHF Men's World Championship), Pothier went undrafted in the NHL before signing with the Atlanta Thrashers in his senior year of college. He spent his first year in Orlando with Atlanta's farm team, the Orlando Solar Bears and went on to win both the Turner Cup and Rookie of the Year and American-born Rookie of the Year honors in 2000-2001. Pothier also spent time with the Ottawa Senators, Washington Capitals and Carolina Hurricanes organizations before retiring from hockey in 2012. Pothier now coaches all ages at Pothier Blueline Hockey in Rochester, Mass.

STEVE THOMPSON, GOALTENDING COACH

Thompson is also making his third appearance as a coach with the U.S. Women's National Team after having been a member of the staff at the 2019 Rivalry Series and 2018 Four Nations Cup. Recently, he served as goaltending coach during the 2018 USA Hockey Women's Winter Training Camp in Plymouth, Mich. He has spent two years with USA Hockey as the Pacific District Associate Coach-in-Chief/Goaltending. The founder and head instructor at Alaska Goaltending Academy, LLC, Thompson played two seasons with the USHL's Sioux City Musketeers before graduating from University of Alaska Nanooks and moving on to coach at University of Alaska Anchorage where he spent two seasons as the team's goaltending/strength and conditioning coach.
